

St. Tammany Farmer

November 2, 1912

Don't waste your money buying strengthening plasters. Chamberlain's Liniment is cheaper and better. Dampen a piece of flannel with it and bind it over the affected parts and it will relieve pain and soreness. For sale by all dealers.

Mr. Poultryman: If you are not getting eggs, don't blame the chickens. Help them along by feeding Conkey's Laying Tonic. A. C. M. Cormack has it. oct12-4t are mosquitos. As they sting they put deadly malaria germs in the blood. Then follow the icy and the fires of fever. The appetite flies and the strength falls; also malaria often paves the way for deadly typhoid. But Electric Bitters will cast out the malaria germs from the blood; give you a fine appetite and renew your strength. "After long suffering," wrote Wm. Fretwell, of Lucas, N. C., "three bottles drove all the malaria from my system, and I've had good health ever since." Best for all stomach, liver and kidney ills. 50 cents at all druggists.

Alexis Bros. & Co., vs. Sebastian Dirr.

Twenty-Sixth Judicial District Court, Parish of St. Tammany, State of Louisiana.

By virtue of an order of seizure and sale from the honorable aforesaid court and to me directed, bearing date of the 12th day of September, 1912, I will proceed to sell at the front door of the court house in the town of Covington, La., on Saturday, November 3, 1912, between legal sale hours, the following described property, to-wit:

A certain piece or parcel of land situated in the parish of St. Tammany, State of Louisiana, and more fully described as being Lot No. 1, and measures 60 feet by 120 feet, which said piece of land is bounded on the north by land of Letis, on the west by Abita Springs Land Co. and Mrs. Jesse Page; said piece of land above described has a front of sixty feet on continuation line of Heintz street, by a depth of one hundred and twenty feet on line that separates the vendor's property from the Abita Water Co. land; said Heintz street is the south boundary of the piece of property; together with all the buildings and improvements thereon.

Terms of Sale—Cash, without benefit of appraisement.
 T. E. BREWSTER, Sheriff.

NOTICE TO BUILDERS.

Public notice is hereby given that sealed bids will be received by the Board of Directors of the Public Schools of the Parish of St. Tammany for the erection and construction of a two room house to be located in the village of Lacombe, La., this house to be built according to plans and specifications by Jenkins Brothers, architects, and now on file in the office of the Parish Superintendent of Schools.

Notice is also given that the building committee appointed by the Board of Directors of the public schools will meet in open session in the office of the Superintendent of Schools in Covington, La., on Wednesday, the 14th day of November, 1912, and will then proceed to open all bids and will award the contract to the lowest responsible bidder; the board reserving the right to reject any and all bids.

ELMER E. LYON, Secretary.

Escapes and Awful Fate.

A thousand tongues could not express the gratitude of Mrs. J. E. Cox, of Joliet, Ill., for her wonderful deliverance from an awful fate. "Typhoid pneumonia had left me with an awful cough," she writes. "Sometimes I had such awful coughing spells I thought I would die. I could get no help from doctor's treatment or other medicines till I used Dr. King's New Discovery. But I owe my life to this wonderful remedy for I scarcely cough at all now." Quick and safe, it's the most reliable of all throat and lung medicines. Every bottle guaranteed. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free at all drug stores.

"There could be no better medicine than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. My children were all sick with whooping cough. One of them was in bed, had a high fever and was coughing up blood. Our doctor gave them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the first dose eased them and three bottles cured them," says Mrs. H. A. Donaldson, of Lexington, Miss. For sale by all dealers.

TELEPHONE TALK NO. 10
 The telephone directory is conceded to be the very best city guide. It is not only consulted by every one desiring to make a telephone call, but every stranger visiting the city immediately refers to it to find or locate some person; therefore, it is invaluable as an advertising medium. Especially is this true of the Cumberland Telephone Directory. It is not read and thrown aside, but is referred to hundreds of times daily, and is on duty day and night. You should be listed in the directory in a prominent manner. Call up our manager for information regarding extra listings or advertising space in this valuable book.
