DEPARTMENT OF SCHOOLS

Last Friday afternoon at the high school building, Dr. Pigott gave a very interesting and instructive talk on the subject of tuberculosis. Dr. Pigott said "sleep with your windows open, get plenty of sleep, eat good food and plenty of it, try to avoid inhaling dust." Also, "it is easier to prevent than to cure tuberculosis." The talk was enjoyed by all because it is a subject bearing upon the mind of everyone living in the community.

In two weeks another lecture upon some phase of sanitation or care of the body will be given by one of our local physicians. We encourage this and ask all to be present who can.

"Old Farmer Snow" was rendered by the high school chorus on Friday with good effect.

The boys are hard at work on baseball. They expect to put out a good team.

This seems to be the season for school book agents. Several have been in our midst the past few days. Alma Frederick of the eighth grade, has been compelled to stop school on account of sickness. She will go to New Orleans Sunday for treatment.

Don't forget our entertainment on the 34th inst. This will be a literary and musical treat for those who will be present.

Miss Howell was absent from school on Wednesday afternoon on account of sickness.

One of the special numbers for the program of March 28th will be the "Wand Drill," by twenty girls. This alone will be worth the price of admission.

Little Carrie Belle Jones entered the first grade this week, and we are glad to have her as she is bright and interesting.

The primary children had their pictures taken and are very anxious to see themselves on a post card.

The Covington teachers are going to Sildell Saturday for an institute. Miss Cooper spent Saturday and Sunday in Abita.

Vannie Burns has recovered from his sickness and is back at school.

There were four or five new pupils enrolled this week.

Ethel Murray, from Houliouville who is in the third grade, entered on Wednesday morning.

Walter Fassman and Eleanor Art. us are in the tenth grade, and Earle Newman, in the tenth grade, are from Mandeville.

All the pupils pictures were taken on Monday. They were very good at a whole.

Roll of honor for the fourth grade this week is as follows: Eddie Quave, Fannie Brush and Winnie Gulce.

The spelling match was won by Thelma Quave, Gillard Ellis, Milton Lamselene, Fannie Brush.

The fourth grade realized $1.40 from their candy sale, with which they will buy a Thomas Jefferson picture and frame.

AT WORK FOR THE PUBLIC SCHOOL

The people of the third ward, which now constitutes the third school district, will be given an opportunity to declare themselves on the subject of education. An uncompleted school building that has been an eyesore for years and the taunt that Covington was behind other towns of its size in its accommodation for school children will soon be a memory of an unpleasant condition that force of circumstances made it hard to overcome.

For some months past Superintendent Lyon and prominent citizens of the district have interested themselves in paving the way to an issue bonds that would not be handicapped by any legal quibbles as to their validity and that could be disposed of immediately upon their issuance as the funds would become available for the building of a suitable school building, and the difficulties that have assailed us heretofore be avoided.

Last week Superintendent Lyon and Mr. E. G. Davis went to New Orleans and visited various banks in order to see what bids they could get on a bond issue. Mr. Harvey E. Ellis was to have gone with him, but business prevented him and Superintendent Lyon went in his place. They were successful in getting several bids, the best being that of the Interstate Trust and Banking Company. The proceedings of the special school board meeting held Wednesday, published on first page, show what action has been taken in the matter. Public sentiment seems to be greatly in favor of this special tax. The people should turn out in full force and property holders of the third school district should show that they are not behind Sildell, Mandeville or any other place in their support of free education for the children.

In addition to the agency for the Ford car I have taken the agency for the Buick. I have one second-hand 1912 model Ford and one 1913 model Buick, both as new, and will sell cheap, on easy terms. Old machines sold on easy terms. Parts kept for Ford car.

F. C. FITZSIMONS GROCERY COMPANY.

THE CANNING FACTORY.

There will be a meeting at the courthouse, Tuesday, March 11, for the purpose of completing the arrangements for the establishing of the Abita Springs Canning Co., in Covington. The meeting will be at 2:30 p. m.

The committee appointed to solicit subscriptions to stock: E. V. Richard, F. L. Dutach, A. Kistenschlager and Robt. L. Aubert, raised $1275 in one day, which amount was promised to nearly complete the required $3000. The use of the lot offered by Mr. E. J. Frederick will provide building room 26x60 feet. He will also furnish steam. Mr. J. J. Smith will give storage room and Mr. Makie will give yard room.

It is the desire of the Canning Company to co-operate with the growers of products for canning, in the way of providing them with fertilizers or rendering them assistance in any practical way.

Covington seems to have taken the idea of having the company established in Covington. Bogavia has also made a bid for the company and offers looking to the increasing of the proposition have been quite liberal; but it is preferred to establish in Covington, if possible.

In connection with the organization of this factory, Dr. Stevenson announces that, while he has been tendered the presidency, he feels that so responsible a position should be filled by the person best qualified by executive ability and commercial experience, and whose private duties will not hamper his work in the interest of the factory. The office is therefore, open until the next meeting.

JOHN THEOBALD.

John Theobald died at his home, a few miles north of Covington, Tuesday, March 4, 1913, at 11:30 a. m., at the age of 85 years. The funeral took place Thursday afternoon, at the residence at 2 o'clock, and at the Episcopal church in Covington, at 3:30 o'clock, Rev. E. A. Rennie officiating.

Mr. Theobald's death was quite sudden, occurring while sitting in his chair and apparently as painless as the sleep of a child. His relatives were immediately notified and were in attendance at the funeral. They were John Theobald and wife, of Galveston, Texas; Mrs. E. Jesse and two children, of Kenner, La.; James No. land and family, Gu. Theobald and family, Wm. Theobald and Gus Theobald, Jr., Mrs. Oscar Mogel and daughter, and Miss Aggie Casey, all of New Orleans.

The funeral was very largely attended. Mr. Theobald was one of the old citizens of Covington, his home always being open with a circle of acquaintances being well extended throughout the parish. The respect and esteem in which he was held was shown in the expressions of grief by those who had known him long years during the progress and growth of Covington. Mr. Theobald was a charter member of Masonic Lodge No. 188 of Covington and was buried with Masonic honors. He was also a charter member of Epoc-

Palmyra Grove No. 21, U. A. O. D., which order, attended his funeral in a body.

Mr. Theobald came to New Orleans from Wohimerheim, Germany, where he was born November 27, 1827, in 1848, where he afterwards engaged in the blacksmith business. Shortly thereafter he married Miss Lezard Bloom of Mandeville, John Theobald being born to them. In 1859 he moved to Covington, and after the death of his first wife he married who survives him, the other children of the family being the result of that union.

Besides those members of the family spoken of above there are living in Covington, Albert, Edward and Charles Theobald and Mrs. Pauline Fatchek; and Mrs. Rosa Francisca Hagan of Ramsey, La. Mr. Theobald is also survived by twenty-nine grandchildren and one great grandchild.

IN MEMORY OF ROBT. E. BURNS.

Hark! the clock is striking eleven: Death is waiting at the door, To take from us our Robert, For days and weeks he suffered, More than tongue can tell; When a voice from above gently whispered, "Come unto me." No more pain, no more sorrow, Will ever reach him now, Happy he is in the arms of Jesus For now and ever more.
