THE HEALTH TRAIN.

We have with us to-day a band of experts, each devoting to his or her department the ability resulting from special study and investigation and the energy due to the conviction that the benefits conferred upon mankind thereby will lead to a higher order of development and a more perfect moral and social condition. If cleanliness is next to godliness, healthiness is an ideal condition that embodies both, for one is hardly separable from the other.

Dr. Dowling, as chief of this band of health-workers, has worked wonders for the state of Louisiana, placing her in the foremost ranks of those states of the Union whose sanitary condition bars the door to epidemics and cuts mortality to the minimum. We have much to thank Dr. Dowling for, and if there are cases in which his activities seem to have exceeded the necessary functions of his office, we must remember that we are not experts and that, in its results that count.

We are glad to know that the doctor and his staff of co-workers will be with us to-day, and we know that when they shall have left there will remain with us the teachings to maintain better health conditions and a knowledge of preventive measures that will insure to our benefit in the home as well as in our public relations. It is to be regretted that they can not be with us more often.

The health train should be visited by all who can do so, for there is much to be learned there in object lessons not frequently within the reach of people remote from the larger cities. The opportunity should be taken advantage of by both parent and child, for it will be time well spent.

THE SCHOOL WORK OF ST. TAMMANY PARISH.

On another page will be found a short statement of the work of the parish along educational lines for the past eight months. Patrons of the schools who do not familiarize themselves with the work done have a poor conception of the energy required, not merely for progress and improvement, but to keep from sinking below the standard set by the least advanced schools of the state. The battle cry of every state to-day is "education." It is demanded that the growing generation shall be given opportunity to outstrip everything that has been accomplished in the past. The glory of posterity rests in the magnanimity of the people of to-day; their willingness to make sacrifice to the greatness of the future, that it may pay tribute to the memory of the past for the grandeur breathed into it by self-sacrifice and labor. We may be proud of the part we are taking in building for the future, and we call attention to the statement in question because we believe it will give pleasure to those who read it.

Prof. Lyon has done much to push us to the front since he has been parish superintendent of education, and the people generally are taking more interest in school work. We expect soon to have a high school building of which the third school district shall be proud. Everybody seems to want it. There will be very few votes against it.

ALL ON ACCOUNT OF THE LOBBY-STEEL.

The School League of Abita Springs will put on a very comical little farce, in one act, at the town hall in Abita Springs, April 5, for the benefit of the public school, the object being to finance the ninth month of the school term, thereby giving to the Abita school the benefit of a full term.

The work of the School League of the parish has been of great value in its assistance to the schools financially and in awakening interest in school work generally. This entertainment should attract a large audience because it is for a very worthy cause. Aside from this, the money's worth will be returned in amusement that will be enjoyed by every one for "All On Account of the Lobby-Steel" is full of laughable situations and the talent is local.

Following is the cast:
Albers, Langdon. Capt. H. J. Thompson.

Grice, his wife. Miss Francis Betty Pidler, a delivery clerk. Thos. Miller.

Sereus, the maid. Miss Barbara Allen.

SUPPOSED CONVICT CAPTURED.

A negro was employed by Mr. G. H. Bradley was accused by another negro on the road by the Baton Rouge, Hammond and East Baton Railroad, near Covington, last Tuesday evening. There was nothing startling in this, but things began to look up when he was informed that he was talking to a convict who was being sought by the business between stations. The supposed convict asked him if it was possible to get a horse. This seemed a little bit too accommodating, but he told him he would try. He left, apparently in search of the promised horse but as soon as he was out of sight he hiked it to Mr. Bradley's place and told him what had occurred. Mr. Bradley told him to carry out his program as if all was well, and he would do the rest. When he stopped on the track the negro came out to get his breakfast. Mr. Bradley pounced upon him from his hiding place and carried him to Sheriff Brewster who locked him up. He answers perfectly to the description of a negro who is wanted at Columbia, Miss., by Sheriff Hawthorne, for killing man by Jamesstown.

The Ministerial sheriff has been notified. Key has a gold tooth in front, is shiny black and weighs about 140 pounds.

[From Jackson News.]
The remains of Mrs. Camille Didier Featherstone will be laid to rest this morning in Cedar Lawn cemetery. The funeral service will be conducted from the First Methodist church at 10 a. m. by Rev. Alfred Franklin Smith.

Mrs. Featherstone was the wife of Justice F. M. Featherstone and was just in the bloom of young womanhood. The end came yesterday morning at 3 o'clock and the patient suffered her eyes forever on her husband and family.

She was well known and popular in Jackson where she has resided for several years and by her many virtues and lovable disposition had become endeared to a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

Her mother, Mrs. Louise Didier, and two sisters, Mrs. Mabel Haas and Miss Loretta Didier, of St. Louis, were with her at the time of her death.

The deceased was married to Justice Featherstone in St. Louis in 1903. Of this union two children survive, Francis Marion, Jr., six years of age, and a baby sister, born 14 months old.

The family of Mrs. Quin, Mr. Featherstone's mother, and at whose home they resided, loved the deceased and are prostrated with grief that an all-wise Providence has seen fit to call her to her reward.

The following gentlemen, all boarders at Mrs. Quin's home, will act as pallbearers: D. D. Birmingham, J. D. McKie, G. L. Caraway, P. G. McNeill, J. N. McNeill and J. A. Wooten.
