FREE WILL OFFERING SOCIAL

Mrs. L. M. Bourgeois entertained at a free will offering social on Wednesday evening, thereby raising $15 for the Sophie B. Wright Memorial Fund. $6.40 of this amount was donated by the Do You Boy Junior Circle, now disbanded.

Mrs. Bourgeois large dining hall was tastefully decorated with plants, roses and pine. An interesting program had been arranged. Mrs. Hughes, almost a stranger in our midst, added greatly to the pleasure by her recitations and songs. Mrs. McDonald sang very sweetly also. A selection from Miss Sophie's diary to heart talks read by Mrs. Addison. All this with ice cream, strawberries, cake, friendly chat and music made the time pass all too quickly. A pleasant evening was spent by the King's Daughters and their friends in the interest of a noble cause—a memorial to our dear Miss Sophie.

The Choral Club will give an entertainment at the Air Dome, Friday May 2, giving besides the three reels of pictures, a delightful musical program. "Mr. Bob" drew a crowd at the park pavilion, last Tuesday. The Carnival Klub netted about $30 for the thirty-day ticket, to the new theatre on Boston and New Hampshire street, donated by the company was won by Mrs. Lillie Hawkins. The five-pound box of candy for the two boys, waltzers was won by Barclay Smith and Miss Doris Piper.

We have quite a number of very clever artists, among the amateur of Covington, but we believe Miss Morrell deserves special mention for her work in "Mr. Bob."

The building committee for the erection of the school building have been in communication with several New Orleans architects, among whom are Mr. Torre, of Nolan & Torre; Harold Raymond, and Albert Bear, a brother, to Mr. A. L. Bear, attorney of Covington. We understand the committee will select the architect they wish and then have him draw up the plans, instead of having plans submitted promiscuously.

There is some talk of attempting to get a better site for the school building, if it can be obtained and the old ground, can be sold to advantage.
