Let us help you

When a man is sick he pays a doctor for advice before he uses it. He does the same with his lawyer. The banker gives advice cheerfully and free. When you are in financial difficulties, why not consult us? It is strange that the banker, whose advice is as cheerful as it is free, is never sought BEFORE men have risked and lost their money, but AFTER. If you want some advice or help, come in; we will welcome you.

A few weeks ago the guest of his aunt, left Sunday for his home. Mesdames Joe Jordan, Jake Navo and Miss Louise Mesa, of New Orleans, visitor here last week on account of their brother's death.

Mr. Joseph Rogers, of New Orleans, is here on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Mesa and brother, Andrew Mesa, visited New Orleans last Thursday to attend the funeral of their father.

Miss Wakefield, of New Orleans, is visiting here as the guest of her aunt Miss Sallie Halley has returned after spending a few days in Bogalusa.

Mrs. W. S. Dwyer and children, of Algiers, spent Sunday here as the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. G. Abel.

Miss Gladys Sera, of Algiers, was the guest of Miss Agnes Abel Sunday last.

The entertainment given Tuesday, August 26, for the benefit of the Silldell high school, proved quite a success.

The soul of Mr. Emanuel Joseph Mesa, passed into its eternal reward Wednesday, August 30, 1913, at his home in the suburbs of Silldell. He was formerly a resident of New Orleans, having been born and reared there. A few years ago he moved his family to this place. The family consisted of four sons. His wife had answered the roll call of the Great Beyond some eight years ago. Mr. Mesa was fifty four years of age. He is survived by five sisters and four sons. Interment was made in the Greenwood cemetery, of New Orleans, on Thursday, August 21, 1913.

HAGURS IN RUNAWAY.

Mandeville, Aug. 27.—While Mr. Jules Bagur and wife were out driving Tuesday their horses became frightened and ran away, striking a buggy which was standing in front of George E. Reine's store, overturned it and driving it into the door, also causing the other horse to run away. The Bagurs were not hurt.

SUFFERED ECZEMA FIFTY YEARS

—NOW WELL.
Seems a long time to endure the awful burning, itching, smarting, skin-disease known as "tetter"—another name for Eczema. Seems good to realize, also, that Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment has proven a perfect cure. Mrs. D. L. Kenney writes: "I cannot sufficiently express my thanks to you for your Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment. It has cured my tetter which has troubled me for over fifty years." All druggists or by mail, 50 cents.

ST. BENEDICT SENDS THREE TO LOUVAIN.

St. Benedict, Aug. 24.—Three graduates of the seminary course at St. Benedict will be sent by the archdiocese of New Orleans to take up the philosophical course at Louvain University, sailing from New Orleans Aug. 30. Mr. Greco, of New Orleans; Simoneaux, of Plattenville, are the students. Cardinal Mercier's philosophical methods, which prevail at Louvain, will be well appreciated by the graduates, who completed a theological course of six years in the classics, and speak fluently in their languages. The seminary will open Sept. 10.

TO PAY BOGALUSA BANK NOTE.

Bogalusa, Aug. 24.—The question of the payment of the note due the Commercial Bank of Bogalusa, which was closed by the State Bank Examiners a short time ago, amounting to $20,000, was discussed at the last meeting of the police jury, and it was resolved that the said note should be settled with 5 per cent interest on the whole amount, deducting therefrom the $397.15 discount made by the Commercial Bank, also the 5 per cent discount that the bank made on culvert tickets, and less all protest fees paid on warrants drawn on said Commercial Bank, and less 5 per cent interest on the whole deposit since said note was made, and deduct credit of interest of $274 due police jury from 1912.

MANDEVILLE NOTES.

The soiree danseuse given by the young ladies and gentlemen, complimentary to the gentlemen composing the membership of the Lew Rose Band was a delightful affair. The parlor and dancing hall of the Heenerichs house was beautifully decorated with ferns, pines and moss. When the fine music was heard by the dancers it marked the early morn as the close of the dancing. Refreshments were served and there was an abundance of ice cream, punch and lemonade. Among the many present were: Misses Alice Capicome, Leonie Kopmeier, Azema Ducote, Alma Rolle, Victoria Clemence, Orida Lousiatot, Evelyn Reames, Lottie and Alice Davis, Camille Francis, Eva Silverstein, Mary and Sarah Morgan, Almaria Padgett, Eva Phister, Ed. Judston, Myrtle, Vivian and Genevieve Kimler, Alma Picotta, Messrs. Wade Peters, Edgar Ducote, Louis Davis, Maurice Sharp, E. A. Paine, Clyde Paine, B. Ford, E. Lyle Shiels, Will Shiels, Bonnie C. Catton, encouragement and organization, gathering and publishing reliable information about our products. Our ultimate aim being to demonstrate to the people and our legislature that this work must be taken up and further developed by the State.

LOUISIANA PUBLICITY COMMISSION BULLETIN.

In this, our first bulletin, submitted to the press of the State, we desire to set forth the aims of this Commission in condensed form.

First, and foremost, we hope to give to our State by a campaign in the interest of the growers and shippers of Louisiana products. First distributing our products so far as practical within our State, and profitably marketing the surplus outside the State, bring outside money to Louisiana; to establish a bureau in the north to facilitate the sale of perishable crops.

We wish to assist in home exploitation, encouragement and organization, gathering and publishing reliable information about our products. Our ultimate aim being to demonstrate to the people and our legislature that this work must be taken up and further developed by the State.

At present, the "corn crop" is attracting our interest. We find that the cane territory, as indicated by answers so far secured to four hundred inquiries, will yield a large surplus and a conference with Mr. Mason Snowden, State Agent of the Federal Co-operative and Demonstration Work, indicates that a large portion of this surplus should be distributed within the State.

Facilities for shelling are inadequate in many territories, and we would be glad to put those of the State, who may need to purchase feed, in touch with those offering corn for sale. This done, together with the cash derived from export sales, will demonstrate that Louisiana is the place for the corn farmer to look for corn land.

Short forage crops in the north and west will induce early feeling of stock and the present apparent shortage will, in all probability, be more manifest as the winter advances.
