VOL. XXXX NO. 4

PROFESSIONAL VAUDEVILLE IS PROMISED TO COVINGTON

MANAGEMENT OF PARKVIEW MAKES THIS ANNOUNCEMENT.

CONTINUANCE DEPENDS UPON THE PEOPLE

With But One Theatre in Covington the Patronage Should Support First-Class Performances.

Covington is so close to New Orleans that many of her people have formed the habit of going to that city to indulge their desire for theatrical entertainment of high order, forming tastes that have taken away the attractiveness that does not class up to the standard thus set. As the expense of these trips prohibit frequent repetition, the hours of amusement for this class of theatrical patrons becomes limited to an extent that makes amusement a problem of no small importance.

The Parkview Theatre is one that Covington may well be proud of. Its appointments are first class, it is comfortably heated, and it has run first-class pictures; but in the matter of vaudeville, it has been compelled to depend mainly upon local amateur talent. The increased expense of professional performances have been given by these amateurs, it is not to be expected that the results of the professional can obtain. The management recognizes this, but as the theatre must be run on business principles, the increased expense of professional performances must be made up in the larger attendance. It becomes simply a question of whether the people are willing to pay for the pleasure of this service.

We have many visitors to Covington, and it is to be expected that they will be entertained. It is also due to a local business venture, the only one of its kind in Covington, that it should have the support to maintain it, in winter as well as in summer, because if it had none an immediate effort would be put on foot to establish one. In fact, Covington could not do without one place of amusement. Therefore, the following announcement by the management of the Parkview Theatre should be welcomed by the public. We shall make announcement each week of the program of the theatre:

ANNOUNCEMENT.

After a very successful management of Russell and Durbin's, the South's most exquisite dancing school, and Miss Blanche Barron's first light melodies, it has been decided by the management of the Parkview Theatre to book high class acts from the Greenwood Theatrical Circuit, on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays of each and every week. These acts will range from vaudeville artists to musical comedies and dramas.

The vaudeville program for next week will include those well known scenic artists, Berlie and Berlie's comic songs, talks and dances. Al Monroe, the famous rag-time pianist, in all the latest songs and parodies. These artists are sure to win their way into the hearts of Covington theatre goers.

Mr. C. C. Kornfelt has proven an improvement in the musical program of vaudeville nights.

GERMAN SETTLEMENT SCHOOL NOTES.

Supr. Lyon and wife were at the school recently.

Farm Demonstrator Lewis met the patrons and gave them an interesting talk on agriculture, etc., and organized a Corn and Canning Club.

All the pupils who were eligible responded promptly, and the following were enrolled: Corn Club—Adolph Dunn, John Dunn, Archie Cook, Willie Cook, Arthur Schech, George Rivers, Lonie Revere, Eddie Revere, Percy Talley and Charles Dutch. Canning Club—Hattie Cook, Esther Cook, Jennie Dutch, Viola Talley, Gertrude Talley, Alice Dunn, Blanche Downs, Beatrice Downs, Ruth Schech and Jennie Cook. The children are utilizing their extra time making Christmas presents, decorations and invitations, and are anticipating a pleasant Christmas celebration.

They were some local fame for their handwork at the 1913 St. Tammany Parish Fair, and hope to keep up their record at the Grand School Rally of St. Tammany in 1914.

Mr. Berns Helps in Providing for Experiment Farm

Mr. Ned Berns, of New Orleans, who has purchased the old Voss homestead, is a progressive and a resident of this parish is interested in its progress and is helping among the boosters. He desires to see the agricultural interests of the parish developed to their fullest, and when he was approached by Capt. C. E. Miller, president of the St. Tammany Parish Truck Growers Association, and Mr. G. C. Lewis, farm demonstrator for this parish, from the Agricultural Department, and asked to place his farm in charge of the Demonstrator, Mr. Lewis, as an experiment farm, he expressed himself only too happy to do so.

Mr. Lewis could increase his crop yield, and at the same time demonstrate to the farmers what could be done by proper cultivation and fertilization, he was "Johnny on the spot" and named for the purpose of going over the field and making arrangements. Yesterday was fixed as the date for meeting, when Capt. Miller and Mr. Lewis promised to be on hand. We will report their findings and arrangements in another issue; but the important part of it is that such an excellent piece of land has been secured for this purpose.

The Voss homestead, which is now the home of Mr. Berns, is situated on the Military Road and is familiar to all the farmers of the parish. The travel on this road is considerable and the view from the road is good. Every one who passes will be able to see the progress of the crops and if interested may get down and investigate the methods adopted and become informed on the matters that may interest them.

Mr. Lewis has written quite a number of letters for the St. Tammany Farmer, and he has been among the farmers trying to interest them in up-to-date and scientific farm practices. He has told them how to plow, what kind of fertilizers to use, when the ground needs lime, and of the importance of selecting good seed. In fact he has been ready to answer any question pertaining to the farm, even as to the best manner of removing stumps and the cost. He is here to teach them, free of cost, how to get the best results from the soil. The prosperity of the farmer will be greatly increased if advantage is taken of his experience and advice. In giving up his farm to the purposes of experimentation, Mr. Berns has shown a public spiritedness that should be appreciated.

CINDER TRACK IS NOW WELL UNDER WAY

THE 220-YARD STRAIGHT-AWAY IS LAID AND THE QUARTER-MILE TRACK IS BANKED.

ATHLETIC EVENTS OF ST. PAUL'S COLLEGE

A Resume of Basketball Games Played Lately and Work of the Literary Societies.

Work on the cinder track at St. Paul's College is progressing finely, the work being completed as rapidly as the cinders arrive over the New Orleans Great Northern Railroad, which is doing the hauling free. The straight-away 220-yard track is laid out and the circular quarter-mile is laid out and banked. Everything will be ready for the meet in June, which is the talk of those interested in athletic in New Orleans.

Mr. Foster Commenge, is better pleased than ever with the prospect of having one of the fastest tracks in the country, and is also delighted with the progress being made by some of the Covington boys he is coaching for coming events.

On Sunday, Dec. 7, the St. Paul five defeated the Night School of New Orleans in what was a fast and snappy basketball game by the score of 53 to 14.

December 8th was a holiday. As it had been arranged, the Senior Literary Society held an extra session. The question, "Resolved, That Telegraphy is More Advantageous Than Wireless Telegraphy," was the subject of discussion. The affirmative Messrs. A. Cassagne and Louis Laise telegraphed their points in such rapid fire order that the negatives, Messrs. W. B. Schmidt and A. Trappan, whose wireless points seemed floating in the air without any special mark, so much so that they were lost to the judges, that the latter gentleman voted the affirmative the winners.

Matters were agog, that afternoon, in the Junior division. The Lomoux wishing to wipe out their athletic defeat of Thanksgiving by the Brunos, challenged the latter to again meet them on the field. The Brunos willingly agreed to afford their opponents an opportunity to regain their honors, and the youngsters met once more to decide the supremacy of their yard. The meet was very exciting and interesting. The young members who did not take part with arms and limbs were there with their voices cheering their respective heroes to victory. When the scorer announced the result, the Brunos were again victorious, the score being 35 to 24.

Within the Juniors were battling for field honors, the Seniors took jaunt to Abita Springs. They returned somewhat fatigued, but all agreed that they had a merry time during their walk.

During Wednesday afternoon recess of that week, Covington High School basketball team met our five. The game was fast and furious, but the Covingtonians were no match for our boys and they went down to defeat by a score of 47 to 6.

The Literary Societies met for the last time in the year 1913, on December 14. A very good and interesting debate took place in the Senior Society. The subject for argument was: "Resolved, That the Classical Course is More Advantageous Mentally and Economically Than the Commercial Course." The debate lasted for quite a while. Much quick and to the point rebuttal being in evidence. Messrs. A. Trappan and A. Gondoran were victorious over the Messrs. Ode Landry and C. McMurphy.

The Junior Society was no less a factor on that day. Their meeting called for two debates. The first, on the usefulness of oil and coal was won by Masters W. McDermott and F. Delatte, the defenders of oil, over R. Toups and T. J. Kelly. Resolved, That the Negro would be better off as a Slave than as a Freeman, was the second. Messrs. J. Hughes and G. Toups, affirmatives, winning from A. Landry and F. Bertoniere. Both sides held the question well.

That afternoon the college campus was the scene of a race between picked teams in the Senior division. With the exception of a few, all did something to show their athletic ability. Much rivalry existed between the two teams, and as will be shown by the score, the teams were evenly matched. Everything went on in apple pie order and this meet was acknowledged by all to be the best inter-college athletic meet ever held at St. Paul's. The team which was captained by V. Chauvin lost to the one headed by P. Duplantis by a score of 77 to 76. Following is the list of cents and those who placed in them:

200-yard dash—V. Chauvin, P. Duplantis, G. W. Dabshere. Shot put—V. Chauvin, J. Didier, A. Commenge. Half mile run—G. Laise, M. Blanchette, W. B. Schmidt. 16-pound hammer—A. Commenge, A. Chauvin, E. Gueno. Mile hurdles—V. Chauvin, E. Gueno, A. Mutter, P. Duplantis. Discus—G. Commenge, A. Commenge, B. A. Mutter. Pole vault—A. Cassagne, P. Duplantis, R. Grimmer. High hurdles—G. W. Dabshere, E. Dabshere, E. Dupont. Quarter mile run—A. Gueno, Sam Laise, F. Letort. 56-pound weight—A. Commenge, B. A. Mutter, E. Dabshere. Half mile walk—A. Chauvin, R. Grimmer, S. Ardouin. Mile run—V. Chauvin, W. Melancon, B. A. Mutter. High jump—G. W. Dabshere, A. Cassagne, E. Beshottell. Broad jump—V. Chauvin, G. W. Dabshere, A. Cassagne. 220-yard race—P. Duplantis, F. Letort, V. Chauvin. Hop, step and jump—R. Gueno, A. Cassagne, G. W. Dabshere. At 6:30 that evening the members of last year's athletic track team met to elect a captain for the 1914 team. Duplantis was unanimously elected.

Work on the track is at present progressing. No doubt when the work is complete Covington may boast of having one of the finest quarter mile tracks in the country.

The drama club, both Junior and Senior, are working hard toward presenting a play on the 21st, prior to the day the boys leave for the Christmas holidays.
