

SHOT IN HEART IN SLIDELL EATING PLACE

PERRYMAN, A COLORED MAN,
QUARRELS WITH HIS WIFE IN A RESTAURANT.

IS SHOT DOWN BY PETERS, PROPRIETOR

Bullet Enters Left Side, Passes Thru
Heart and Lodges in the Wall of Room.

Another shooting occurred at a Slidell eating house, last Saturday, the parties being negroes. It seems that Harold Berrymann's wife visited the place in question about 12 o'clock and remained there in the kitchen until 4 p. m. when her husband came and a quarrel ensued. Chas. Peters, the proprietor, ordered Berrymann away, and Berrymann remarked that he "did not know whether he would go or not." Then Peters started out for an officer, but returned without one, about a quarter past six, when the shooting occurred. Perryman had started toward the front door, with both hands at his side and unarmed. Peters was in the dining room, and as Perryman stepped over the threshold Peters fired. Perryman fell back on the kitchen floor. The bullet entered his left side and passed through his heart, coming out through the right shoulder-blade and lodging in the wall. Peters was arrested, and two witnesses, Stark and Rugno, of Bogalusa, were also detained. Coroner Heints held an inquest.

Teachers' Examination.
The next State examination of applicants for teachers' certificate in this parish will be held in my office April 6, 7, 8, (white); and 9, 10, 11, (negro). The subjects for examination and conditions governing the issuance of certificates to applicants will be the same as those of last State examination.
The questions of the examination in Theory and Art of Teaching will not be based upon any particular text-book on that subject, but will be general and comprehensive in character.

ELMER E. LYON,
Superintendent.

JUDGE HARDY SAYS ROAD IS AS SURED.

Gulfport, Miss., Feb. 10.—The Gulfport and Western Railroad, promoted by Judge W. H. Hardy, of Pass Christian, is again to the fore. Judge Hardy announces that he has succeeded in securing the rights for harbor facilities, which were held up by Governor Brewer for two years, and that in recognition of that fact he has received the assurance of eastern financiers that the building of the road would be assured by April 1. The road will be run from Gulfport to Covington, La., and will pass through thousands of acres of virgin yellow pine timber. Judge Hardy declares that at the junction of the Gulfport and Western and the extension of the New Orleans, Mobile and Chicago a town of considerable size will be built.

FULL OF FUN IS WHAT IS CLAIMED FOR IT

LADIES OF TODAY TURNED INTO SCHOOL GIRLS OF 50 YEARS AGO.

A LAUGH FOR EVERY TEN MINUTES

Some of Our Prominent Citizens Will Be Seen Barefooted in Knee Breeches.

Mrs. J. B. Wortham and Mrs. E. R. Moss, chairmen of the lunch committee for the school rally have devised a plan for raising money for this purpose without asking for donations. This will allow people to contribute to the occasion and at the same time get value received for every cent they spend, by enjoying an evening's amusement that will give them more fun in a bunch than they've had since the black cat was left at the neighbor's. The scheme is a representation of the "Deestric Skule" as in vogue fifty years ago, and it will have in the cast some who if they did not attend school fifty years ago still had the impress of the old-time discipline when they did go, and now freely admit if the strap and the rule, which formed an important part in their education, had been used less strenuously they might not now occupy the high positions in the community they do. It has probably slipped through your eye by now that there is going to be some class to this cast, and if it hasn't, we ask you to run your eye through it, as it is given below. There you will find the Hon. T. E. Brewster, who as Ed's Silence, makes his first appearance on a public stage. He has made the part a life-long study, and if he doesn't do justice to it, then we lose our reputation as a dramatic critic. And there is Judge Lancaster as Billy Slim. What do you know about that. And then there's Tommy Slick and Rufus and Leander Elbert Checkers; you can guess who they are without telling you; and Rubin Cash and Jake Nickels, you can bank on them; and Mattie Pankhurst, don't that make you smile? Well, we are not going through the whole list. It is here for you to look over.

We want to say, however, that all this high toned and select cast is to be dressed in the garb that was common in the days they represent. There will be barefooted boys and probably with one suspender (and in that case the single suspender buttons will be sewed on hard and fast), and the girls won't have to hold their skirts up when they go down stairs. They will be the girls of the good old days when a homespun dress was worn with a grace that made it fine as silk and when rosy cheeks needed neither paint nor powder. Now won't everybody be anxious to see how well our modern dames can represent the part?

This event will be at the park pavilion on February 13, 1914.

There will be lots of fun for everybody who attends. During intermission the Glee Club of the Covington high school will sing.

The arrival of the twins will bring a laugh out of every person who hasn't glued his mouth in one position, with the curl downward.

There will be dancing and refreshments after the performance, and those who want to dance the tangos will not be prevented from doing so after they go home.

Reserved seats will be for sale at Schonberg's Pharmacy, 15 cents. Tickets, adults, 25 cents, children, 15 cents.

Stage directors are Miss Anna's Boudouque and Miss Anna Morrel. Cast of Characters.

POSTOFFICE AT FOLSOM IS ROBBED BY YEGGMEN

THE FENDLASON & VERGER GENERAL MERCHANDISE STORE IS ALSO ROBBED.

VAULTS BLOWN OPEN WITH NITROGLYCERIN

Loss to the Postoffice is About $150,
and Fendlason & Verger
About $175.

The excitement of the robbery of the Madisonville Bank has scarcely died out when a new sensation is sprung in the robbery of Fendlason & Verger's merchandise store and the postoffice, at Folsom. This time the job gives evidence of having been done by expert cracksmen. Mr. Paul Verger, of Fendlason & Verger, is also postmaster at Folsom. There are two separate safes, one for the mercantile company and one for the postoffice. Both were considered safe from the ordinary burglar, and when Mr. Verger closed up the store in which the postoffice is situated the separate safes were each deposited in their respective places of perfect security. Wednesday evening, February 11, between 12 and 1 o'clock a slight detonation was heard by Mrs. Rogers who lives a half square away, and Mr. Louis Jenkins, who lives about a square from the postoffice, but neither were sufficiently aroused to give heed to it. The sound evidently was muffled. But when morning brought news of the robbery there was no doubt but that the sound had been caused by the blowing open of the safes.

There is every indication that this job, unlike that of the Madisonville Bank, which was bungled, was performed by expert cracksmen, who knew how to use nitroglycerin effectively and with as little noise as possible. The doors of the safes were blown open without damage to the internal parts. The drawers and inner doors worked perfectly and all were ransacked. The loss to the postoffice is $158 in stamps. Fendlason & Verger lost about $175, $100 of which was in cash.

As soon as the news reached Sheriff Brewster Thursday morning he entered his automobile and made the run to Folsom in quick time. His investigation brought out nothing that would give a clue as to who did the job. It was good clean work without a clue left behind. It is said that two strangers were seen in town Wednesday evening, but no one seems to be able to describe them. As the brake-shoe was railroad property, it is probable that the men came in on the train and kept well out of the way until the job was done. Another suggestion is that the work was done by some of the followers of the show which was recently in Covington. However, these recent robberies show that an eye should be kept on every stranger that comes into town, and that all suspicious persons should be made to give an account of themselves.

CASHIER OF BANK COMMITS SUICIDE.

Official, Accused of $12,000 Shortage,
Takes Life as Officers Call
With Warrant.

Hazlehurst, Ga., Feb. 9.—G. F. Armstrong, cashier of the Farmers' State Bank here, which closed its doors Jan. 31, to-day shot himself through the head and died several hours later.

Investigation of the bank's affairs disclosed a shortage of approximately $12,000, and a warrant to-day was issued charging Armstrong with responsibility for the disappearance of this sum. He was given until 3 o'clock to make good the shortage, and shot himself just before the officers called to serve the warrant.

Armstrong's son, W. O. Armstrong, now is in jail at Rantz, Ga., charged with being short in his accounts as cashier of the Bank of Rantz. The latter bank suspended on the same day the Farmers' State Bank here closed its doors.

Unattached, or school athletes in the parish who are registered in the Southern Association Amateur Athletic Union. Those who wish to enter and are not registered can procure registration for one year by enclosing 25 cents to L. DiBenedetto, care of New Orleans Daily States and requesting him to be registered. No application will be considered unless athlete is registered.

Applications have been sent out to the different schools of the parish and a large number of entries are expected. All those who wish for more information about the above, will please address Manager Track Team, St. Paul's College.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME TO NIGHT.

New Orleans High School Versus St. Paul.

A basketball game will take place tonight at the St. Paul Gymnasium for the championship of Louisiana. The game will be by far the best ever had around this part of the country, as the New Orleans High School has held the State championship for the last four years. St. Paul, on the other hand, has shown up wonderfully well in the Tulane game and is therefore expected to give a good account of itself. The game will be called at 8:30, and a large crowd is expected. An admission of 25 cents will be charged.

WILL PLAY L. S. U.
Thursday night, February 19th, the St. Paul team will take on the fast Louisiana State University team. This is the first time the Tigers have appeared in Covington and they will undoubtedly draw a record-breaking crowd.

THE KING OF ALL LAXATIVES.

For constipation, use Dr. King's New Life Pills. Paul Mathulka, of Buffalo, N. Y., says they are the "king of all laxatives. They are a blessing to all my family, and I always keep a box at home." Get a box and get well again. Price 25c. At all druggists or by mail, H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis.

TO THE CANNING CLUB GIRLS OF ST. TAMMANY PARISH.

I have recently sent your teacher a circular letter telling you what to do towards starting your tomato plot, but for fear some were not at school at the time of the explanation, I am going to take the opportunity here to tell you again.

Prepare a bed 6 feet wide and 9 feet long on the south side of some out-building or board fence, in order to give the young plants protection from the cold winds of early spring.

Use old planks or boards, for the sides and both ends, 6 or 8 inches wide. Drive down stakes on outside for support of frame.

Fill frame to within 3 inches of top with good, loose soil, mixing about 3 bushels of barn loam manure with it, and chop up with hoe and rake perfectly smooth. The bed is then ready for the reception of the seed.

We do not want to plant now, but we do want the frame made in order to have it settled and warmed up by the time the seed are to go in.

After the frame is made and bed completed do not allow it to get wet as the seed will not germinate as early and may be not at all. Keep covered with planks or canvas—anything to turn the rain.

The seed will be sent you in due time, so get busy now and prepare the bed and have it ready. Do not put it off because the other girl might beat you if you do. There will be several prizes offered to the girls who make the best record in this parish and then there are some valuable prizes offered for the State winners, including a trip to Washington, D. C. This is a good chance to show how you can work, how you can grow tomatoes, and eat what you can and can what you can't.

If there are any other girls who have not joined the club but would like to, write me to put your name on the list and get busy towards making the frame, and you will be a full fledged member.

Farm Demonstrator.

LITTLE GIRL IS BURNED TO DEATH AT RAMSAY

MIMICKING GROWN-UPS, HER
SKIRT CATCHES AFIRE FROM FIREPLACE.

LITTLE ONE BUT 7 YEARS OF AGE

Dr. Heints is Called in But She Was Too Badly Burned To Be Saved.

A pathetic incident of the pervasiveness of fate in its immutable reckoning is pictured in the unfortunate death, last Saturday evening, of Dorothy Thomas, the sweet little child of Mrs. Bertha Thomas, that was shrouded in the flames of an "old folks" costume while playing in front of an open fireplace. The bitter cold that came in with the sudden change of weather made the hearthstone a pleasant place for the little ones to pass the hours. Mrs. Thomas is the widow of Miles Thomas (before her marriage was Mrs. Bertha Sharp), who died in Bogalusa about four years ago. After his death Mrs. Thomas brought Dorothy to St. Tammany parish, and in her struggle for a livelihood found employment in New Orleans, and at the time of the child's death it was in the loving care of Mrs. Nathan Tidale about four miles from Covington in the vicinity of Ramsay. Saturday evening Mrs. Tidale was called away to attend to some household purchases in Covington, and Dorothy and her little playmate, Rebecca Tidale, 11 years of age, amused themselves "keeping house." Dorothy dressed herself in a long skirt, and in imitating "old folks" appeared with her assumed attire. It is thought that in turning around the skirt must have come in contact with the fire. Mr. Tidale's brother and wife attempted to extinguish the flames, but before this was done the child was badly burned. She was 7 years of age.

Nearly frantic with grief, the Tidale family watched over the little one, who seemed to have a wisdom beyond her years. While able to stand and walk, little Dorothy seemed to realize that she could not live. Although she suffered no pain, she said, "I know I am going to die." She became speechless about thirty minutes before she died, and undoubtedly suffered some, as she then seemed restless. But at no time did it seem that her suffering was great. Death came at 7 o'clock Sunday morning. Dr. Heints was in attendance, and all was done that could be for the little unfortunate.

M. C. B. Dancing School.

Beginning Saturday, February 14, the hours for the dancing school will be as follows:

The little ones, who are being taught the dance games in preparation for the folk dances, will be taught from 3 to 4 p. m.

The older ones, who want to learn the modern ball room dances in a modest, dignified manner, will be taken from 4 to 6 p. m.

The others will be given night dances from time to time. The announcement for these will be made at the first one of the series to be given on Valentine night, Saturday, Feb. 14, at the M. C. B. Library.

All mothers are invited to bring their little ones. They will be given individual attention for two successive hours.

The rates will still be cut according as a monthly ticket is purchased, or more than from one family attends.

Two bents of piles, 4 piles to each bent. Piles to be made of good heart with not less than 10 inch heart in butt and not less than 80 feet long, and to be driven in ground not less than 8 feet. Caps, mud alle and tressel post to be 10x10 heart, 6x15 stringers and 2x8x12 decking, 6x4 banister post, 2x8 banister railing, 2x4 banister braces, away brace, 6x8 heart. All lumber to be not less than 90 percent heart. Two 1-4 inch brace bolts.

All bids to be in the hands of the secretary no later than 11 a. m., February 16, 1914.

E. D. KENTZEL,
Secretary Police Jury.

Notes from the Schools of St. Tammany Parish

COVINGTON HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

The success of the Rally Edition of the Farmer is assured. We would consider the enterprise a success if we succeeded in merely circulating an extra edition bristling with matter of school interest, calculated to awaken a deeper school sentiment in the parish. We are now assured of doing that much. Last Saturday the proposition was submitted to the teachers in their institute and the idea was widely indorsed. We believe every school in the parish will have a write-up, telling what has been accomplished this year, and what is in sight. Many teachers promised cuts. So the reading matter in is right—live school news, a general variety—interspersed with cuts of school houses, groups of pupils, teachers, and perhaps school officials.

The next consideration is the financial end, the expense issue. This looks encouraging, too. First, a number of teachers have promised to cooperate in sale of papers in their communities. We believe all will. The paper will help their school work. Patrons ought to read it. It will help them and the teachers to get the same viewpoint, harmony, cooperation—pleasant work for the teacher, and better results for the parent.

The advertisement feature promises well. Mr. Demergue says: "You can count on me for an ad. or any assistance. Mr. Little of Slidell, speaks in the same vein. Business men of Covington have offered cooperation. Three New Orleans firms have spoken for space. Then read this letter:

Natchitoches, La., Feb. 6, 1914.
Principal W. A. Bynum, Covington, Louisiana.

Dear Mr. Bynum:—We shall be glad to take a $5.00 advertisement in the Rally Edition of the St. Tammany Farmer. I herewith enclose copy.

With all good wishes, I remain,
Cordially yours,
V. L. ROY,
President, State Normal School.
We hope to have an advertisement from every business man in the parish, not as a donation, but because

IT WILL BE THE BEST MEDIUM EVER OFFERED

and will show that you are interested in the development of the public schools of the parish. Whether you live in Slidell, Madisonville, Mandeville, Abita, Folsom, etc., it doesn't matter. Write at once as to space. And see that your school is represented in the reading matter.

The basketball game last Saturday between Madisonville and Covington girls was fine, despite bad weather. A large crowd turned out to the annex grounds, and all enjoyed the game. The score was in favor of the Covington team. One pretty feature of the game was the manner in which the Madisonville girls took their defeat. They seemed not to mind it at all. They seem to be a fine lot of girls any way, and deserve congratulations both for their way of taking defeat and the playing of the game.

One noticeable condition within the schools of this parish is the fine spirit of friendliness existing among the pupils of all schools. This is due to the intermingling in the ball games. If nothing else could be said for athletics than its bringing together of pupils of different schools, that would be sufficient for the encouragement of the games. In fact, that is the best feature. As association brings about friendly interests, good fellowship, a spirit of comradeship. But athletics awakens school pride. It develops boys and girls on a number of lines. Next year, when the Covington school will have grounds, outdoor sports and games should be encouraged more than we could this year, when the school is handicapped in grounds.

Next Friday will be Washington Day. While his anniversary, the 22d, falls on Sunday, Supt. Lyon has designated Friday for a Washington program.

A good program will be observed, when the pupils will sing Dixie and America as they are going to do Rally Day. The public is invited.

Supt. Lyon has received a cut of the new school year to run in the Rally Edition. Let all teachers send in their matter at once to W. A. Bynum, Covington, La.
Roll of honor for the fourth grade for the week ending Friday, February 6, was as follows: Elma Maddox, Percy Theriot, E. G. Davis, Jr.

Spelling match won by Suzanne Murphy and Paul Merritt.

BEN WILLIAMS SCHOOL NOTES.

Dr. Geo. B. Adams, of the Hookworm Department of the State Board of Health visited our school last Tuesday, Feb. 4th.

Mrs. L. B. Straughan visited our school Monday.

Mrs. Jennie King, who has been very ill, is improving slowly.

Miss Luella Fauntleroy is on the sick list this week.

The infant of Mr. and Mrs. E. Oalman died Saturday morning, after only one day's illness, and was buried Saturday evening at 4 p. m.

Mr. T. A. Sharp and two daughters, Misses Delphine and Zella Sharp, were visitors at Evans' Creek Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Mattie Williams, one of our eighth grade pupils, left us to join the Bogalusa school.

Mr. Frank Brown was the guest of friends Sunday.

Miss Cora Williams visited her sister Sunday.

Miss Myra Fauntleroy was the guest of the Williams family Sunday.

Miss Edith Fauntleroy visited her cousin Sunday.

Miss Lillie Fauntleroy visited her grandfather and mother Sunday.

Misses Bessie, Adelaide and her brother DREWETT Fauntleroy, visited their brother Leonard Fauntleroy at Slidell Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Bud Parker and Miss Jennie Jenkins were married on February 6, 1914. They have many friends who wish them well.

UNION GROVE SCHOOL NOTES.
Our school was visited by Dr. G. B. Adams last week and gave us a talk on the eradication of hookworm. Although the weather was threatening we had a goodly number of citizens out to hear the Doctor.
The teachers, as well as a number of the patrons, are giving their hearty cooperation to Dr. Adams' work and we hope that all those infected will profit by the opportunity at hand.
