THE SCHOOL RALLY EDITION.

The date of the School Rally edition of the Farmer has been changed to March 31, 1914, instead of the 28th, in order to give advertisers an opportunity to reap the benefit of the distribution of papers during the rally, March 26 and 27. We ask that all copy be sent in as soon as possible. Also that photographs from which cuts are to be made be sent in at the very earliest moment possible.

The idea of a "Rally Edition" is meeting with great public favor. The educational question is of the greatest importance to-day, and we believe that St. Tammany parish is marching in the very front ranks in the army of conquest. She is DOING THINGS in this line, and no subject appeals more strongly to the people. The "Rally Edition" will be a great strengthener of this sentiment, and it will contain statistics that will give an insight into the rapid progress that has been made, the causes of this progress and the sowing of the first seed that has been so productive of advancement. Everybody will want a copy of this edition, and everybody who is enlisted in it, so that the people may become better acquainted with photograph in it, so that the people may become better acquainted with the FORCE THAT IS MAKING A RECORD for St. Tammany parish. This movement is in the interest of the WHOLE PARISH, not any particular section of it, and we wish the whole parish to be represented.

"THE ESCAPE OF JIM DOLAN."

A Western Picture of Real Merit, at Parkview Theatre, Saturday Night February 14th.

It has been quite a while since Parkview Theatre has had the pleasure of an opportunity to present to its patrons a two reel feature of the western type. The fact that it being such a seldom occurrence makes it without question a feature to be looked forward to. Quite a number of interesting feats of ingenuity are introduced in this picture which makes it a splendid entertainer from beginning to end.

The program for next week includes five two reel features and are as follows: Monday, Feb. 16th, "The Express Car Mystery," Kalem Drama, Wednesday, Feb. 18, "The End of the Circle," Essanay drama, Thursday, Feb. 19, "Alexia's Strategy," Edison drama, Saturday, Feb. 21, "The Quality of Mercy," Selig drama. There will be two reel features on Sunday, Feb. 22, but as yet we are unable to give the title.

The management of the Parkview Theatre wishes to announce that beginning with Monday, Feb. 16, there will be a series of matinees during each week, in order to give the people who are living in the outskirts of the town a better opportunity to take in the motion pictures. It will also give those who have a large family of children more time to witness the performance by taking in the early show which is a great advantage when there are children to care for.

The matinees will be on Mondays, Thursdays and Saturdays, and will be at 5 o'clock as usual.

MRS. L. JENKINS.

THE LATE JOHN L. JENKINS.

REMEMBRANCE OF MY BROTHER, JOHN L. JENKINS.

It is a little over three years ago since we left him—saw him last. He rests in peace, sweet, eternal sleep, and we hope to join him in the everlasting home, where there is no parting, sorrow, or death.

The Master has called him home and when he entered the kingdom of God, to abide there forever.

He was a dear, kind brother and uncle, and far away in the north is a little band who will always hold his memory most sacred.

Love was torn in God and there it finds rest, but God had no beginning, therefore, no ending, and love cannot die.

GEO. E. JENKINS, LILLIE JENKINS.

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 28, 1914. The above letter is from the little nephew and niece of Mr. Jenkins, who live in Chicago, and who sent it with a request for its publication in the home paper of their dear uncle, whom they loved fondly.
