CHARTER OF THE MADISONVILLE DEVELOPMENT COMPANY.

United States of America, State of Louisiana, a Parish of St. Tammany.

Be it known, on this 30th day of the month of March in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, (1914) before me, William E. Wood, a Notary Public, duly commissioned and sworn in and for the parish of St. Tammany, therein residing, personally came and appeared the parties whose names are hereunto subscribed, all of full age, who declare that, alling themselves of the provisions of the laws of this State, relative to corporations, and particularly of Act 78 of 1904, they have covenanted and agreed, and by these presents covenant and agree and bind themselves as well as such other persons as may hereafter become associated with them, to form and constitute a corporation and body politic in law, for the purpose and objects, and under the stipulations, articles and conditions following, to-wit:

ARTICLE I.
The name and title of the said corporation shall be MADISONVILLE DEVELOPMENT COMPANY, and its domicile is hereby established in Madisonville, St. Tammany parish, State of Louisiana, and under its corporate name, said corporation shall have power and authority to contract, sue and be sued; to make and use a corporate seal, and the same to break and alter at pleasure; to hold, receive, have, purchase, improve, alienate, convey, sell, borrow, pledge, mortgage and hypothecate, under its said corporate name, property, real, personal and mixed; to name and appoint such officers, directors, agents and managers, or employees as the interest or convenience of said corporation may require; to make and establish by-laws, rules and regulations for the proper management and regulation of its affairs, as may be deemed necessary and proper, and the same to change and alter at pleasure; and to do all other acts and things permitted by law, or shall or may be necessary and proper, to carry out the objects and purposes of said corporation.

Said corporation, unless sooner dissolved in accordance with its charter, shall exist and continue for the period of ninety-nine (99) years from and after the date hereof.

The president, or in his absence, the vice president, shall be the proper person upon whom citation or other legal process shall be served.

ARTICLE II.
The objects and purposes for which this corporation is organized and the nature of the business to be carried on by it, are declared to be the following, to-wit: The purchase and sale of lands, and the operation of saloons and general merchandise stores, and generally to engage in any and all business permitted under Act 78 of 1904, which may promote the successful operation of this corporation subject to the prohibition contained in said act against corporations organized thereunder from conducting insurance or banking business, or any business which shall entitle the corporation to exercise the power of eminent domain; and generally to do all things necessary for the successful operation of the business undertaken by this corporation.

ARTICLE III.
The capital stock of the said corporation shall be twenty-five thousand ($25,000) dollars, divided into and represented by two hundred and fifty (250) shares of the sum of one hundred ($100) dollars each, which said stock may be issued, not less than par, in payment or exchange for property or rights actually received or purchased by said corporation, or the same may be issued, full paid for money advanced, or for such other valuable considerations or services, or upon such terms as the board of directors of said corporation may determine; provided that no stock shall be issued until the consideration therefor has been received by the said corporation.

Any stockholder may sell, assign or transfer his stock in this corporation, provided thirty (30) days prior notice of such intention to sell, assign or transfer the same be given the company, and the other stockholders thereof shall have the first privilege of purchasing same, after which thirty days notice the said stock may be sold in open market.

The stock of said corporation may be transferred under the above conditions, provided such transfer thereof be made on the books of said company, at its office, and on surrender of the certificate therefor. No transfer of any fractional part of a share shall be made.

This corporation shall commence doing business as soon as seven thousand ($7,000) dollars of the capital stock shall have been subscribed for.

ARTICLE IV.
The corporate powers of this company shall be vested in and exercised by a board of seven directors, which shall consist of the president, vice president, secretary and treasurer and three stockholders. Five of said board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and their decisions shall be valid corporate acts.

Said board shall continue in office until the second Monday of April, 1915, on which date and thereafter annually, a board of directors shall be elected on the second Monday of April each year.

Notice of election and of stockholders meeting shall be given by at least ten (10) days notice immediately preceding election or meeting, addressed by mail to each stockholder at his last known address. Any failure from any cause whatever to elect directors the day named for that purpose shall not dissolve the corporation, but the directors then in office, as well as the officers of said company, shall hold over until their successors are chosen.

In such event the president shall cause another election to be held within thirty (30) days, and shall give notice thereof as hereinbefore provided.

At every election and meeting each stockholder shall be entitled to vote for each share of stock registered in his name and may vote by proxy.

The election of directors shall be by ballot, and the majority in amount of votes cast, each share of stock voted upon to be counted for one vote shall elect the person or persons for whom they have been cast.

After each election the board of directors shall elect from their own number the officers of said company.

ARTICLE V.
The board of directors shall have full power to fill vacancies in the number caused by death, resignation or otherwise, from among the stockholders of the corporation.

The said board shall have full control of the property of this company, and shall so conduct, manage and use the same as in their discretion they deem fit, and consistent with the objects of this company, or the welfare of the same.

The said board is further authorized to frame and adopt such by-laws, rules and regulations as the affairs and business of the corporation may require, and as it may deem necessary for the conduct and management thereof; provided the same shall not conflict with this charter, or with the laws of the State, or of the United States.

The said board shall elect or appoint a manager and such other officers, agents, employees, servants and clerks as it may deem necessary for the conducting of the business of the corporation; fix their compensation, term of service, and the right to dismiss them at said board's pleasure, and said board shall have the right to fix and determine the salaries of the several officers herein provided for.

ARTICLE VI.
This charter may be amended, modified, or amended, the capital stock increased or decreased, or this corporation may be dissolved, at a general meeting of the stockholders convened for the purpose, with the assent of three-fourths of the entire capital stock present or actually represented at such meeting.

In case of dissolution or termination of this corporation, either by limitation of its charter, or from any other cause, the liquidation of its affairs shall be conducted by two (2) liquidators, selected from the stockholders, with like assent, and at a meeting called for that purpose, as above set forth in this article.

Said liquidators shall remain in office until the affairs of said corporation shall have been fully liquidated. In case of the death of any of said liquidators, the survivor shall continue to act.

ARTICLE VII.
No stockholder of this corporation shall ever be held liable or responsible for the contracts or debts thereof, or in any further sum than the unpaid balance due the company on the shares of stock subscribed for or owned by him, nor shall any informality in organization have the effect of rendering this charter null, or of exposing a stockholder to any liability, beyond the unpaid balance, if any, of his stock.

Thus done and passed in my office in Madisonville, Louisiana, on the 20th day, month and year herein first above written, in the presence of Messrs. J. A. Stanga, Jr., and J. A. Peter, competent witnesses, who have herewith signed with the said applicants, and me, Notary, after due reading of the whole.
