MAY PARTY AT BOGUE FALAYA PARK.

Under the Auspices of the Children of Mary. Proceeds to be Devoted to Charity and Catholic School Library Fund.

The general public is cordially invited to attend our May Party, next Thursday, May 21, between 2 and 5 p. m. Every one, and especially our Catholic friends, should feel intensely interested in this worthy cause. Therefore, kindly manifest your interest by attending largely and patronizing our little booths generously.

All we ask you to do is to come with all your children, friends and neighbors, and we assure you you will never regret it, but will pronounce it one of the most enjoyable affairs of the season. With St. Paul's excellent band to help us entertain you, how can you resist the temptation?

The little contests for the children will begin about 2:30, followed by a short program which is certainly worth the price of admission—five pennies.

CHARTER OF THE ABITA SPRINGS BASEBALL AND ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION.

United States of America, State of Louisiana, Parish of St. Tammany.

Be it known and remembered that on this 1st day of February, in the year one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, before me, Anthony O. Pons, a notary public in and for the parish of St. Tammany, State of Louisiana, therein residing, duly commissioned and qualified, and in the presence of the witnesses hereinafter named, personally called and appeared the several persons whose names are hereunto subscribed, all of the full age of majority, who declared that, availing themselves of the provisions of the laws of the state of Louisiana, relative to the organization of corporations, they do hereby form themselves into and organize a corporation for the objects and purposes, and under the stipulations hereinafter set forth.

ARTICLE I.

The name and title of this corporation shall be the Abita Springs Baseball and Athletic Association, and by that name it shall have and enjoy succession for the term of ninety nine years from the date hereof, unless sooner dissolved. It shall have the power to sue and be sued, to borrow money, hold, purchase, lease, sell and hypothecate real and personal property; to make and use a corporate seal; to elect, name and appoint managers, officers and agents, and to establish such by-laws, rules and regulations for the management of the business and affairs of the said corporation as may be necessary, the same to alter at pleasure; also to make and issue bonds and other evidences of debt, and to secure by mortgage or otherwise.

ARTICLE II.

The domicile of this corporation shall be in the town of Abita Springs, parish of St. Tammany, State of Louisiana, and all citations or other legal process shall be served on the president, and in his absence on the vice president, and in the absence of both on the secretary-treasurer.

ARTICLE III.

The objects and purposes of this corporation shall be to promote social and physical culture; to encourage the many art and to engage, for profit or pleasure, in all sports such as baseball, foot ball, boxing, exhibitions and athletics of all kinds; billiards, pools, bowling alley and all kinds of games and for these purposes it shall have the power to buy, sell, lease, receive donations, and lay out grounds, erect buildings, platforms and grandstands; to make enclosures and to charge admission to such games or exhibitions, or rent privileges for same; to provide for the comfort or pleasure of its patrons, and generally to do all things necessary, requisite or convenient to carry out the response above set forth.

ARTICLE IV.

The capital stock of this corporation shall be $25,000 dollars, divided into twenty-five thousand shares of the par value of one ($1) dollar each, payable either in cash or for property, leases, rights, franchises or labor or services rendered to said corporation, and on such terms and conditions as the board of directors may deem proper. This corporation shall become a going concern when three thousand ($3,000) dollars are subscribed to its capital stock.

ARTICLE V.

All the powers of this corporation shall be vested in a board of directors composed of not more than five (5) directors, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business. The first board of directors shall be composed of Steve Vaccaro, Chas Biggio and F. P. Vaccaro, with Steve Vaccaro, president; F. P. Vaccaro, vice president; and Chas. Biggio, secretary-treasurer. They shall hold office until the second Wednesday in January, 1915, or until their successors shall have been duly elected. Any failure to hold an annual meeting shall not cause a forfeiture of the act of incorporation, and any act occurring in the board of directors from any cause, or to increase the members thereof to the maximum number, shall be filled by the remaining or present directors. After the expiration of the tenure of office of the here above named directors the board of directors shall elect from their number a president and a vice president, and from their number or otherwise a secretary-treasurer, and all boards of directors shall appoint such agents and managers as may be necessary, and shall fix their compensation, and shall have the right to dismiss them at pleasure. All acts of sale, purchase, lease or others shall be signed by the president, or in case of his absence or inability to act, by the vice president. On the second Wednesday in January, 1915, and annually thereafter there shall be held a meeting of stockholders to elect directors for the ensuing year, which said meeting shall be called after ten days' notice; said notice shall be deposited in the mail postage prepaid and directed to each stockholder at his or her own address. At said meeting directors shall be elected by ballot, and a majority of votes cast shall be necessary to elect. Each share of stock shall be entitled to one vote. The shareholders shall vote in person or by written proxy. Only shareholders shall be eligible as directors.

ARTICLE VI.
No stock shall be transferred except upon the books of the corporation, on surrender of the original certificate. No stockholder shall ever be held liable for any contracts or debts of this corporation in any further sum than the unpaid balance due on his respective shares.

ARTICLE VII.

Any stockholder may sell, assign, or transfer his stock provided thirty (30) days prior notice of such intention to sell, assign or dispose, or transfer the same be given to this association and the other stockholders thereof shall have the first privilege of purchasing same, after which thirty (30) days notice the said stock may be sold in open market.

ARTICLE VIII.

This act of incorporation may be changed, modified or amended, or this corporation may be dissolved by a vote of three-fourths of the stock represented at a general meeting held for that purpose, after due notice shall have been given in the manner provided for in Article V; and in case of dissolution or termination of this act of incorporation, two commissioners shall wind up and settle the affairs of this corporation, who may be stockholders or otherwise, and elected at said general meeting by a majority vote, and in the event of a disagreement between them, they shall select an umpire whose decision shall be final.

Thus done and passed in my office in the town of Abita Springs, on the day month and year hereinabove first written, in the presence of Richard Fruthaler and John J. Finn, competent witnesses, who hereunto sign their names, together with the said appearers and me, Notary, and the said appearers in addition have set opposite their names the number of shares subscribed by them so that this act shall also serve as the original subscription list, all after due reading of the whole.

Steve Vaccaro, 1500 shares, $1500.
Chas. Biggio, 1490 shares, $1490.
Felix Vaccaro, per E. Vaccaro, 10 shares, $10.
Witnesses:
Richard Fruthaler,
John J. Finn.

A. O. PONS, Notary Public.

I certify that this instrument was filed for record February 18, 1914, at 11 a. m. Recorded February 18, 1914, in Mortgage Book "U", page 166 of the official records.
