COVINGTON HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

The seventh grade was represented at the entertainment Friday night by Hattie Cook. She read a composition on Thomas Jefferson. The composition was composed by Lillian Brewster.

We will give a penny party at the school house Friday, October 23, for the benefit of the library.

Following is the roll of honor for the first grade: James Champagne, Bert Helms, Jarred Helms, Joe Rabb, Joe Sermon, Scallan Welsh, Jim Kahl, Joe Cooper, Irma Cooper, Doris, Gillis, Helen Greer, Ora Mae Kramer, L. E. Page, Irene Reeder, Alice Sawaya, Angely Bole, Francis Lloyd.

Louis and Angely Bole, both in the first grade, have resigned and will leave for New Orleans.

Four pupils entered the first grade this week, Jack and Anna Garrison, of Memphis, and Berdett Bradley and Clyde King, of Covington.

Honor roll of fifth grade: E. G. Davis, Percy Theriot.

We are glad to welcome Kathrine Dickenson, a new pupil, and we hope all other children ready to enter this grade will do so at once, so as to be in line with the work. Nothing is gained by putting off.

Parents, will you please give your attention to your children preparing their home work, for this will be a means to their promotion at the end of the school year.

The Glee Club, which is composed of girls of the high school, aided by several boys, rendered a musical selection at our entertainment Friday night.

The tenth grade now numbers thirteen, Alma Frederick having entered Wednesday.

Athletics have been making rapid progress since the arrival of our new coach, Mr. Smith. Basketball teams have been organized by both the boys and the girls.

The tenth and eleventh grades are making rapid progress this year, and we think that we are a far advanced in such a short time as any school in the State.

Our laboratory is now being completed. By the early part of next week we expect to start upon our experiment work. Under Miss Parsinger, as instructor, there is no doubt but that the work will be thoroughly enjoyed, as well as instructive.

All in all, school life in our room is very interesting and pleasant.
