NATIONAL PROHIBITION.

Washington, Dec. 23.—While few Congressmen dispute the charge that the proposed amendment to the Constitution to prevent the manufacture and sale of intoxicants was introduced because it was "good politics," it has been many a day since such a morsel of food for thought has been thrown into the pit of the House.

At a meeting of the directors of the Covington Bank & Trust Co., held last Tuesday, a semi-annual dividend of five per cent was declared, payable on the first of January.

Louisianians Against.

With the exception of Judge Watkins, the Louisiana delegation voted solidly against the resolutions. There is telegraphic evidence today that this met with the disapproval of some of their constituents.

NOTICE.

I am applying for a pardon. M. WILLIAMS.

THE LIVER REGULATES THE BODY—A SLUGGISH LIVER NEEDS CARE.

Someone has said that people with chronic liver complaint should be shut up away from humanity, for they are pessimists and see through a "glass darkly."

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Egler and their youngest son, of Ferdinand, Ind., visited their son, Rev. Father Aemilian, professor of St. Paul's College, of Covington, La. They were accompanied by Mrs. Conrad Kofchiner and grandson Emory, of Louisville, Ky.

The happy group are delighted with their trip to the sunny South. They left the snow and ice of Indiana for the balmy piney woods of Covington, where everything is so green and spring-like.

Nothing Succeeds Like Success.

The year of 1914 has been another successful year for our bank. Our depositors have been very liberal and kind to us in trusting us with their money in large amounts, and while some of our borrowing friends may not think we have been so liberal with them, we have managed to loan out on good collateral a greater amount than ever before in the history of the bank.
