MANDEVILLE NOTES.

The death of Mrs. Charlotte Lovering Band, which occurred last Tuesday, cast a gloom of sorrow over her many friends in Mandeville. Mrs. Band was the mother of Hon. Lewis Lovering Morgan, our Congressman. Her death was that of a true Christian and was in keeping with her pure life, a loving and devoted mother, showed and manifested her noble qualities. To her only son, Hon. L. L. Morgan, and her sisters, Mrs. Wm. Morgan and Mrs. Philip Smith, and her step-daughter, Mrs. Robert Smith and other members of her family, her friends extend their deepest sympathy.

Mrs. Robert Kelly, of New Orleans, attended her aunt's funeral here. Among the many from Covington who attended Mrs. A. Band's funeral were Hon. Harvey E. Ellis, Sheriff T. E. Brewster, Atty. A. L. Bear and Dr. Hebert.

Mr. Wm. Griffin spent Thursday in New Orleans. Dr. Maylie left Wednesday for England.

Mrs. Thibodeaux has recovered from an attack of la grippe.

Mrs. Artus returned from New Orleans last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Grout moved last week to the Broom place. They were married last month. Mrs. Grout was Mrs. Stratton, from New Orleans. She is a sister to Mrs. Marks.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hayne were visitors to Mandeville last Sunday, the guests of Mrs. and Mrs. E. Poitevent.

Mr. Cavaroc spent the day in Mandeville last Sunday.

Miss Myrie Crawford, of Simons Creek, threw a baseball furthest. Takshook and Ben Williams were close behind with their throws.

There were other contests but we could not see all.

In the afternoon State Supt. Harris made a short address which was very much appreciated. He urged the people to vote the special tax row.

It is that those men who have bought your turpentine and your timber cheaply can help bear the burden of educating your children.

MUTUAL FRIEND. (Rally matters and school notes forced out this week by late advertising will appear next week.)

SLIDELL NOTES. Mr. Louis Goldstein visited Slidell Thursday.

Miss Alice Swinson visited in Picayune Thursday.

Mr. John Sheldon was a Slidell visitor Wednesday.

Mrs. P. R. Outlaw entertained the Ladies Circle of the W. O. W. Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Chas. Fogg has returned from New Orleans, having recovered from a serious operation.

Mr. Lavinghouse and family are spending a few days with his sister, Mrs. Dr. Polk.

Mr. Harry Gish visited his friends here Sunday.

Mrs. Sam Sollberger visited New Orleans Thursday.

Mr. E. J. Perilloux visited in New Orleans last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Hand spent a few days in New Orleans last week.

Mrs. Tom Arnold visited Bogalusa, Tuesday.

Mrs. Mabel Cleveland has gone to New Orleans for medical treatment.

Mrs. Ella Hickman has returned to New Orleans, after a few days visit to her brother, Mr. Jim Hickman.

Mrs. Tom Arnold has gone to New Orleans for medical treatment.

Mrs. Hastings, of New Orleans, spent Sunday here as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. J. L. Newman.

Miss Marie Garcia was a Slidell visitor Sunday, the guest of Miss Ruth McCoy.

Entered into eternal rest on Wednesday, March 24, at 1:00 a. m., Bernard C. Pinschnat, aged 39 years, a native of New Hammbury, Canada, but a resident of Slidell for the past 18 years.

During all those years Mr. Pinschnat has been a trusted employee of the firm of Pickle & Hand.

About 16 years ago Mr. Pinschnat married Miss Otilie Carr. Nine years ago, March 19th, the Angel of Death visited the little home claiming the fair young mother, leaving two little children, a boy and girl. Three years later Mr. Pinschnat married Miss Mattie Powers. Again four years later a visit from the Angel of Death left motherless the little home.

Of this union one little boy remains. To the orphan children the hearts of the people go out in deepest sympathy. They will make their home with their grandmother, Mrs. J. Carr, of Laurel.

Of a bright and sunny disposition Barney Pinschnat made many friends and to many indeed his death will bring a heartache. His remains were interred in the Catholic Cemetery, Rev. Bernard Keating officiating.

A beautiful christian death was his surrounded by those that loved him. His soul was ushered out to meet his Maker in the wings of prayer. God rest his soul.

Yes, Barney, the pain and fever is all over. The long weary hours of suffering are past. To use your own expression, "A flash of the lightning, a break in the wave."

Man passeth from life to rest, in the grave, and beyond the grave lies heaven, Barney, and your friends hope and feel that that heaven is now yours. God rest your soul.

MARGARET McDANIEL.

A called meeting of the Women's Progressive Union was held to make plans for our annual clean-up day. In co-operation with the inspector of the Board of Health and the mayor and council, we expect to give Covington a good clean-up. In next week's issue of the Farmer the date and divisions of the town will be published and all householders and landlors are requested to respond to this work.

MISS KATE EASTMAN, President

MRS. J. C. BURNS, Cor. Secretary.
