

HOW MRS. HARROD GOT RID OF HER STOMACH TROUBLE.

"I suffered with stomach trouble for years and tried everything I ever heard of, but the only relief I got was temporary until last spring I saw Chamberlain's Tablets advertised and procured a bottle of them at our drug store. I got immediate relief from that dreadful heaviness after eating, and from pain in the stomach," writes Mrs. Linda Harrod, Fort Wayne, Ind. Obtainable everywhere.

DR. F. F. YOUNG, JR.

DIED.

Mrs. Mary Theresa Hodson.

Fell asleep in Jesus Wednesday morning, May 5th, 1915, at 1:45, Mary Theresa Hodson, beloved wife of James Buckley, Sr., aged 30 years, a native of New Orleans. For several months Mrs. Buckley has been ill, for months and months a dreadful cough racked her delicate frame, warning those that loved her to be prepared, just as we are warned by the scorching rays of the noon-day sun that our waxen lily and spotless white rose will wither. So, this beautiful flower of womanhood folded the waxen petals of her spotless soul and gently sleeps in our Lord Jesus Christ.

From the time of the death of her child, one year ago, Mrs. Buckley's health failed slowly. Shortly before her pure spirit left its tired paler body the young mother lovingly raised her hands toward heaven and said, "Oh yes, baby darling, mama's coming home," showing how the mother-heart longed for her little one. Mother, how sweet the word, how tenderly our divine Savior must have whispered the name of mother, on the bosom of His own dear mother when yet a tiny child, and later, while suffering the dreadful agony on the cross He tenderly turns His agonized dying eyes to St. John, his beloved, and says, "Son, behold thy mother."

Mrs. Buckley is survived by her devoted young husband and two children, Albert, age 7 years, and Annette, age 5 years, three brothers, Mr. Hy. Hodson, of Slidell, Mr. Wm. Hodson, of Algiers, Mr. R. Hodson, and one sister, Mrs. R. Hall, of Algiers.

To the husband and little ones we extend our deepest sympathy. The funeral took place Thursday evening at 3:30. Interment in Greenwood Cemetery. The large number of people present, the many beautiful floral offerings, bore silent tribute to the high esteem in which the young wife and mother was held.

Gently fold the waxen fingers, lightly round her casket tread; Low, the Master's voice is calling, "I am coming Lord," she said.

Mrs. R. Reed.

Entered into eternal rest Thursday, April 29, 1915, Mrs. R. Reed, aged 73 years, a native of Germany, but a resident of Louisiana for over 60 years. At the close of the Civil War in '64 Mr. and Mrs. Reed were dignitaries of the light house at the Rigolets. All those years Mrs. Reed has known no other home until she was called Thursday to her final home—Heaven.

Mrs. Reed is survived by two sons who still live at the light house. Men whose lives have been spent within the hearing of the splash of the waves of the lake, who daily see the glorious sun rise over the beautiful waters. Men whose lives were devoted in a most loving manner to an aged mother. All that love and devotion could do was done to ease her moments of suffering.

Mrs. Reed's remains were brought to Slidell for interment in the old Gutzman Cemetery. To her sons we extend our deepest sympathy.

SON OF SENATOR PLATT TESTIFIES FOR ROUGH RIDER.

Colonel Takes Stand to Correct Errors in Court Record of Case.

Syracuse, N. Y., May 4.—Theodore Roosevelt again went on the witness stand in the supreme court here today, after many witnesses, including a son of a former secretary of the late Thomas C. Platt, and Franklin D. Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy, had testified in his behalf.

The former president intended to offer testimony designed to show that he harbored no malice for Wm. Barnes, and also to tell about certain things not specified in the pleading which originally were excluded. But errors committed in transcribing his testimony under direct and cross-examination were pointed out. So the colonel used up nearly an hour and a half of the afternoon session in correcting them. His counsel planned to have him resume the stand in the morning.

Edward T. Platt, son of the former senator, who testified, produced letters that passed between his father and Mr. Barnes in which the printing business and politics appeared to be more or less linked. In these letters Mr. Barnes denounced Lemuel E. Quigg, who, he wrote, was interested in a contract for legislative printing. He also wrote that he was against the establishment of another printing plant in Albany and complained that Archibald Baxter, clerk of the assembly of 1894, was about to "deprive him of a legitimate piece

HEALTH PROMOTES HAPPINESS.

Without health, genuine joy is impossible; without good digestion and regular bowel movement you cannot have health. Why neglect keeping bowels open and risk being sick and ailing? You don't have to. Take one small Dr. King's New Life Pill at night, in the morning you will have a full, free bowel movement and feel much better. Helps your appetite and digestion. Try one tonight.

For prickly heat, insect bites, mosquitoes and flies, try BLUE LABEL ANTISEPTIC, ask DR. J. L. WATKINS, drug store.

Mrs. M. Joffron is the guest of Mrs. Dyer.

SPLENDID FOR RHEUMATISM.

"I think Chamberlain's Liniment is just splendid for rheumatism," writes Mrs. Dunburgh, Eldridge, N. Y. "It has been used by myself and other members of my family and has always given the best of satisfaction." The quick relief from pain which Chamberlain's Liniment affords is alone worth many times the cost. Obtainable everywhere.

WE WOULD SERVE YOU

Do not think of the St. Tammany Bank as being merely a place to deposit your money. While the primary function of a Bank is to safeguard the public's funds we feel that our obligation to the community requires a good deal more of this bank. It is our desire to render to our patrons every service and accommodation that can reasonably be expected from us.

CORONER'S VERDICT ANGERS HUSBAND OF SLAIN WOMAN.

Shreveport, La., May 4.—Bitterly denouncing a verdict of the coroner's jury of Red River parish that the killing of his wife by Dr. Otis Edgerton at Crichton Monday was a case of accidental homicide, C. W. Lang, oil driller and rooming house proprietor, left Shreveport this afternoon for Batesville, Miss., accompanying the body to its last resting place. The coroner's jury declared Mrs. Lang ran between them and received her death wound.

LAUNDERING.

Dixie Laundry, Caterers to Appearance and Comfort.

Your clothes laundered, your dresses and suits cleaned or dyed. Bring them on Monday and get them on Saturday from H. J. Ostendorf Agent Covington Bank Building.

CHICKEN LIVERS.

An old hen has a much larger liver than you in proportion to weight or food eaten. Then it follows that they get bilious just like you do. They are grouchy, cross, unhappy. Start her liver and make her happy. Then she will lay eggs all winter. Come and get a package of B. A. Thomas Poultry Powder. Feed it occasionally. See your hens perk up—hear the missing—look for eggs. Your money back if it fails.

CAPT. SAMUEL VANDERGRAFT.

Known by Hundreds Here for Service With "New Camelia."

New Orleans, May 3.—The funeral of the late Capt. Samuel Vandergraff, veteran steamboat man, who died Sunday, will be held from the residence of his son-in-law, Captain Wm. Hanover, 81 Morgan Boulevard, at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon.

Capt. Vandergraff was born in Pittsburg in 1857. Under the tuition of his father he took to steamboating at an early age and soon rose to prominence on the upper Mississippi river. Coming to New Orleans with W. G. Coyle. In addition to looking after the interests of the late steamer, New Camelia, he also took care of Mr. Coyle's coal industry and remained in active business until Mr. Coyle's death.

He is survived by his daughter, Mrs. Hanover, and two grandchildren.

DON'T DRENCH HORSES.

PROPER TREATMENT FOR BILIOUSNESS.

For a long time Miss Lula Skelton, Churchville, N. Y., was bilious and had sick headache and dizzy spells. Chamberlain's Tablets were the only thing that gave her permanent relief. Obtainable everywhere.

AN APPEAL TO THE PUBLIC.

As the people of Covington already know, the colored Methodist recently lost their church and parsonage. Being without insurance, this loss leaves the congregation with absolutely nothing to begin with except their faith in God, which is all powerful, and their willingness and determination to do anything that will help to reconstruct the church. In this undertaking, as in all others the colored people need the assistance of their white brethren and they now appeal to the entire community to come to their aid in this time of great need. This does not mean that we will depend entirely on what the white people do for us, for what we are going to do everything that is in our power to help ourselves, but the task that now lies before us is greater than we can accomplish by ourselves and we, therefore, are compelled to call for this aid. If there ever was a time when we needed your assistance, now is that time.

There are now ten clubs or committees composed of members who are collecting donations from our own people.

Faithfully, REV. BENJ. J. BELL, Pastor in Charge.
