THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION. While there has been a bitter fight against the constitutional convention and politics has caused considerable hindrance to speedy and economical work, it seems probable that most of the important provisions of the administration bill will pass, and New Orleans may finally get the convention. The fight now is on delegates at large and place of holding convention. Ratification by the people is an assured thing. Appropriation bills for State needs, while exceeding available revenues, gives the auditor discretionary power in paying those accounts he may deem advisable, as long as funds are not exhausted. The Convention will be looked to for provision of revenues.

BILIOUS ATTACKS. When you have a bilious attack your liver fails to perform its functions. You become constipated. The food you eat ferments in your stomach instead of digesting. They only cost a quarter. Obtainable everywhere. Adv.
