EQUAL TO ALL EXCEPT BOOSTING AND DEVELOPMENT.

J. P. Rauch and Frank Mangham, both gentlemen of close observation, have just returned from the Panama Exposition at San Francisco.

These two gentlemen, although one resides at Abita Springs and the other near Covington, never came in contact during their visit to the fair and did not know that each had taken the trip.

The people of California are boosters from the start. They brag about their country, their business, the money they are making and the money everybody else may make if they come there.

There is one suggestion made by Mr. Rauch that it seems to us might be adopted with advantage here. All the towns he visited have places of interest where visitors may go to pass away time and be amused.

We also have some places of interest right in St. Tammany parish that are seldom even spoken of. You do not hear taxi men at the depot on arrival of trains offering to take people to any place, except a hotel, and there is no regular line of conveyances to any point of interest.

Education is greatly assisted by travel, and we will never know what advantages we possess until we compare them with those of other places. Our smaller towns will compare favorably with those of any other State, and there are few prettier or better situated than Covington and few that have better streets.

MISREPRESENTATIONS OF THE TIMES-PICTURE.

An editorial in last Saturday's Times-Picayune contains the following statement:

"In Assumption, Texas, St. Tammany, Concordia and a number of other parishes the papers are calling flat-footedly on the voters to vote down the convention, and in others they have gone so far as to discuss the advisability of doing so."

If all the other statements in this editorial are as far from the truth as this sentence it is misleading and of little value. Both papers in St. Tammany parish are heartily in favor of the convention and wish to see it a success.

We gladly make the correction and place Franklinton in the list of progressive towns. Franklinton postoffice has been increased to $1500.

INTERESTING FIGURES

In answer to the call from the State Bank Examiner for reports under date of June 23rd, 1915, the four banks of the parish of St. Tammany reported having deposits on hand aggregating $843,827.52 and loans aggregating $788,166.90. Of these amounts the Covington Bank & Trust Co. reported $418,609.67 in deposits, or nearly fifty per cent of the total amount, and $411,711.57 in loans, or about fifty-three per cent of the loans carried in the parish.

This would indicate that our bank is doing even more than its share in the way of financing the parish. We are always in position to finance our customers, be their requirements small or large.
