

BOGALUSA TO NAME PROMOTION OFFICER.

Step Is Taken Following Enthusiastic Meeting of Mothers' Honor Commission.

Bogalusa, Sept. 10. One of the best attended public meetings was held Saturday night at the Y. M. C. A. under the auspices of the Mothers' Honor Commission, to discuss the organization of a juvenile court in Bogalusa.

Fred. J. Heintz, of Covington, member of the Legislature from St. Tammany parish, and who has given a great deal of thought to the Juvenile Court work of the State, was the first speaker, and delivered a very impressive address on the subject, which was well received by the citizens present.

Thos. H. Agnew, of New Orleans, and superintendent of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, was the next speaker. Mr. Agnew's remarks covering the complete operation of a Juvenile Court, were very interesting. Mr. Agnew, having devoted most of his life to the subject, was able to make a most interesting address. He said that he considered it the greatest duty to try to reach the delinquent children, to leave them to the care of their parents or to some relative rather than send them to the state reformatory at Monroe.

Judge Jos. B. Lancaster, district judge, followed Mr. Agnew, and delivered a splendid address on children, which delighted the large audience. Nearing his conclusion, Judge Lancaster advised the Mothers' Honor Commission that after making a careful investigation of the law he had reached the conclusion that it would be perfectly proper for him to act as juvenile judge in the city of Bogalusa, and he would be very glad to do so.

Judge Lancaster suggested that the first thing for the commission to do was to appoint a probation officer. The Mothers' Honor Commission has this under consideration. All of the speakers urged that the officer be a woman.

As soon as the probation officer is selected, the city will be carefully canvassed, and all delinquents will receive attention.

This splendid work on the part of the Mothers' Honor Commission and the women of the city is considered remarkable, and through their efforts Bogalusa will be the only city in the state of Louisiana, outside New Orleans, that will have a Juvenile Court.

WHERE'S HE GOING NEXT.

I knew him fifteen years ago When he came to America to dodge conscription; He was a sentimental boob, And blubbered with gratitude when he got work; He finally got a job as helper in a delicatessen store, And saved his coin, And after five years was a partner in the shop; The business prospered, And he built a house and married a good, thick girl; For thirteen years his favorite line of talk to his trade Was slobbering appreciation Of what America had done for him and his.

Yesterday I saw, and heard, the man again. His broad, flat peasant feet spread wide apart, His chest and stomach thrust for ward, And his head wagging with a sense of his own importance, He was cursing America, Insulting the American flag, Boasting of the sinking of the Lusitania, And because no one in the crowd about him Thought it worth while to risk getting pinched, For poking him in the slats, He thought his hearers all were cowards.

This thought made him braver, And he expatiated at length on just how greatly he felt oppressed at being an American citizen.

He got into his skull, He was merely a sort of obdurate show, That right Americans look at in wonder— The kind of phenomenon that men observe, say little of and little to And pass on pushing about. Perhaps you can understand his mental processes, if any— I can't.

I have a theory, though, that his comparative prosperity Has gone to his head, And he thinks he is the Kaiser, Just as the Kaiser thinks himself God.

Don't burbling slob, Don't come from a Prussian officer, Would cut him down if he looked cross-eyed at said officer, Come away— Now this country isn't good enough for him.

Don't go, then, I wonder? Why doesn't he shut up and be on his way? Don't Marquis in The Evening Sun.

WHY IS WOMAN RESTLESS?

DESTINY OF NATIONS DEPENDS UPON CONTENTED HOMES.

By W. D. Lewis, President Texas Farmers' Union.

Why is woman discontented? Why does she grow restless under the crown of womanhood? Why is she weary of the God-given jewel of motherhood? Is it not a sufficient political achievement for woman that future rulers arise at her breast, laugh in her arms and kneel at her feet? Can ambition leap to more glorious heights than to sing lullabies to the world's greatest geniuses, chant melodies to madder minds and rock the cradle of human destiny?

God pity our country when the hand-shake of the politician is more gratifying to woman's heart than the patter of children's feet.

Woman is Ruler Over All.

Why does woman chafe under restraint of sex? Why revile the hand of nature? Why discard the skirts that civilization has clung to since the beginning of time? Why lay aside this hallowed garment that has wiped the tears of sorrow from the face of childhood? In its sacred embrace every generation has hidden its face in shame; clinging to its motherly folds, tottering children have learned to play hide and seek and from its youth learned to reverence and respect womanhood. Can man think of his mother without this consecrated garment?

Why this inordinate thirst for power? Is not woman all powerful? Man cannot enter this world without her consent, he cannot remain in peace without her blessing and unless she sheds tears of regret over his departure, he has lived in vain. Why this longing for civic power when God has made her ruler over all? Why crave authority when man bows down and worships her? Man has given woman his heart, his name and his money. What more does she want?

Can man find it in his heart to look with pride upon the statement that his honorable mother-in-law was one of the most powerful political bosses in the country, that his distinguished grandmother was one of the ablest filibusters in the Senate or that his mother was a noted warrior and her name a terror to the enemy? Whether she is drifting and where will we land?

God Save Us From a Non-Poisoned Nation.

I follow the plow for a living and my views may have in them the smell of the soil; my hair is turning white under the frost of many winters and perhaps I am a little old-fashioned, but I believe there is more moral influence in the dress of woman than in all the statute books of the land. As an agency for morality, I wouldn't give my good old mother's homestead gowns for all the suffragette constitutions and by-laws in the world. As a power for purifying society, I wouldn't give one prayer of my saintly mother for all the women's votes in Christendom. As an agency for good government, I wouldn't give the plea of a mother's heart for righteousness for all the oaths of office in the land.

There is more power in the smile of woman than in an act of congress. There are greater possibilities for good government in her family of laughing children than in the cabinet of the president of the United States.

The destiny of this nation lies in the home and not in the legislative halls. The hearthstone and the family Bible will ever remain the source of our inspiration and the Acts of the Apostles will ever shine brighter than the acts of Congress.

A DIVINE COVENANT.

God Almighty gave Eve to Adam with the pledge that she would be his helpmeet and with this order of companionship, civilization has towed to its greatest heights. In this relationship, God has blessed woman and man has honored her and after four thousand years of progress, she now proposes to provoke God to decoy man by asking for suffrage, thereby by amending an agreement to which she was not a party.

Woman, remember that the Israelite secured a divine covenant, and as a result wandered forty years in the wilderness without God. Likewise man should remember that it is a dangerous thing to debase woman by the standard and an outraged civilization wear the clothes of the backs of the human race and turned them out to roam in the world naked and unclothed.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Came Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Catron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I did have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good. I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first use, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without stopping me, and am doing my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, and is 50 per cent of the world's success, and should surely help you, too. You can get it at any drug store for 50c. He has won't it will do. Ask him.
