TRAVELING MAN'S EXPERIENCE. "About three months ago when I was suffering from indigestion which caused headache and dizzy spells and made me feel tired and despondent, I began taking Chamberlain's Tablets," writes Mrs. Geo. Hon. Macdon, N. Y. "This medicine proved to be the very thing I needed, as one day's treatment relieved me greatly. I used two bottles of Chamberlain's Tablets and they rid me of this trouble." Obtainable everywhere.

AN ORDINANCE Prohibiting the dumping of trash, garbage, and other refuse along any public highway in the parish of St. Tammany, Louisiana, within sight of said highway, or close enough to create offensive odors. Section 1. Be it ordained by the police jury in regular session convened, That it shall be unlawful for any person or persons hereafter to dump or cause to be dumped along any public highway in this parish, within sight of said highway, or close enough to create offensive odors, or other nuisance. Section 2. Be it further ordained, That any person violating this ordinance shall be liable to a fine in the sum of not more than $25.00, or to be imprisoned for a period of not more than 30 days in the parish jail, or both at the discretion of the court. Adopted Dec. 15, 1915. HERMAN SCHULTZ, President. S. D. KENTZEL, Secretary. PROCLAMATION OF ELECTION. Town of Covington, Parish of St. Tammany, State of Louisiana. Pursuant to an ordinance passed by the Mayor and Board of Aldermen of the town of Covington, State of Louisiana, at a lawful meeting held in Covington, La., on December 7th, 1915, I, P. J. Lacroix, Mayor of the town of Covington hereby give notice that in compliance with said ordinance a special election will be held in the town of Covington, State of Louisiana, on the 15th day of January, 1916, for the purpose of submitting to the property taxpayers qualified to vote under the constitution and laws of the State of Louisiana, at such election, the following proposition: "To incur debt and issue bonds for the town of Covington, Parish of St. Tammany, State of Louisiana, to the amount of seventy-one ($71,000) thousand dollars, to run for a period of thirty-one years from the 1st day of February, 1916, to bear interest at the rate of five per cent per annum from the 1st day of February, 1916, payable semi-annually on the 1st day of August of each year, and issued in such denominations, payable at such time and in such installments, with such other details relating thereto as shall be determined by the Mayor and Board of Aldermen and authorized by law, for the purpose of erecting, constructing and equipping a system of waterworks and sewerage for supplying the inhabitants of the town of Covington with water and sewers, the title to such waterworks and sewer system shall vest in the town of Covington, Louisiana." For the purpose of the election the polling place will be the courthouse on Boston street in the town of Covington, and E. J. Martindale, Ben Fontan and G. L. Smith have been appointed as commissioners, and R. L. Aubert clerk. At said election the polls will open at 7 o'clock a. m., and close at 5 o'clock p. m., and the election will be conducted in accordance with the laws of the State of Louisiana applicable thereto. Notice is also hereby given that on the 12th day of January, 1916 at 10 o'clock a. m., at the Mayor's office in the town of Covington, the Mayor and Board of Aldermen will convene and will proceed in open session to open the ballot boxes, examine and count the ballots in number and amount, examine and canvass the returns and declare the result of the election. Witness my hand at Covington Louisiana, on this 7th day of December, A. D., 1915. PAUL J. LACROIX, Mayor of Town of Covington, La.
