have the right to appoint and dismiss the clerks, managers, secretary and other employees of the corporation as the interests and business of the same may require. Any of the Directors shall have the right to appoint by written instrument another Director as his proxy, to act in his stead at any and all meetings of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VI.

Until the election to be held on the second Tuesday in January, 1917, the following named persons shall constitute the first Board of Directors, viz: Kenneth P. Piche, postoffice Hammond, La.; Edward J. Frederick, postoffice Covington, La.; and Maurice P. Planche, postoffice Covington, La., with said Kenneth P. Piche as president, Maurice P. Planche as vice-president, and Edward J. Frederick as secretary-treasurer.

ARTICLE VII.

No stockholder shall be liable or responsible for the contracts, faults and debts of said corporation, nor shall any mere informality in its organization have the effect of rendering this charter null or of exposing a stockholder to any liability beyond the unpaid balance due on the shares owned by him.

ARTICLE VIII.

This act of incorporation may be changed, modified or altered or this corporation may be dissolved with the assent of the stockholders owning two-thirds of the stock of the corporation, at a general meeting convened for that purpose and after at least fifteen (15) days written notice to each shareholder at his last known place of residence.

In case of a dissolution by the expiration of this charter or otherwise, the stockholders shall elect two (2) liquidators from among their number to liquidate and settle the business and affairs of the company.

In case of death or disability of any of said commissioners or liquidators, the survivors or the remaining liquidators shall appoint a successor to him.

Thus done and passed in my office on the day, month and year first above written, and in the presence of T. E. Brewster and A. D. Crawford competent witnesses, who have signed with said appellants and me, said Notary, after due reading of the whole.

Kenneth P. Piche, Hammond La. per E. J. Frederick, 11 shares.
E. J. Frederick, Covington, La. 11 shares.
M. P. Planche, Covington, La. 3 shares.

CHARTER
BEDICO LUMBER COMPANY,
INCORPORATED.

United States of America, State of Louisiana, Parish of St. Tammany.

Be it known, That on this 11th day of July, A. D., 1916, before me, Thos. M. Burns, a Notary Public, duly commissioned and sworn in and for the parish of St. Tammany, State of Louisiana, therein residing, personally came and appeared the persons whose names are hereunto subscribed, who declared that, availing themselves of the law of the State of Louisiana, relative to the organization of corporations, they have covenanted and agreed, and by these presents do covenant and agree, bind and form themselves, as well as such other persons who may hereafter join or become associated with them, into a corporation and body politic in law, for the objects and purposes and under the agreements and stipulations, to-wit:

ARTICLE I.
The name and style of this corporation shall be "Bedico Lumber Company, Inc.," and under that name it shall have and enjoy all rights and privileges granted by law to corporations; it shall exist for a period of ninety-nine years from this day; it shall have power to contract, sue and be sued in its corporate name; to make and use a corporate seal and the same to alter at pleasure; to hold, receive, purchase, convey, mortgage hypothecate or pledge, property, both real and personal; to issue bonds, notes and other obligations; to have and employ such managers, directors, officers, agents and other employees as the interests and convenience of said corporation may require; to make and to establish such by-laws, rules and regulations for the proper management and control of the affairs of the corporation as may be reasonable and expedient.

ARTICLE II.

The domicile of said corporation shall be in the town of Covington Parish of St. Tammany, State of Louisiana; all citations and other legal process shall be served on the president, and in his absence on the vice president, and in the absence of both on the Secretary-Treasurer.

ARTICLE III.

The purpose for which this corporation is established and the nature of the business to be carried on by it are declared to be: To construct work and maintain saw mills, planing mills, dry kilns, commissaries and other buildings, railroads, canals, telegraph and telephone lines and other works of public improvement; to construct, own, lease, hire, purchase and operate schooners, steamboats, towboats, barges, dredge boats, pull boats and other water craft, for dredging canals, pulling logs, for transportation of freight and passengers; to manufacture lumber, and other building materials, buy and sell on commission, lumber and all kinds of building materials and generally to do and perform any and every act and thing pertaining to the business above enumerated, connected therewith or arising therefrom, in this State and elsewhere.

ARTICLE IV.

The capital stock of this corporation is hereby fixed at the sum of Five Thousand ($5,000.00) Dollars divided into and represented by fifty (50) shares of stock of the par value of One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars each, which shall be paid for in cash when subscribed for, or in such manner as the Board of Directors may designate or shall be issued for labor performed, services rendered, or for the purchase of property, as said Board may elect, all of which shall be common stock.

That this corporation shall be a going concern when Twenty-Five Thousand ($25,000.00) Dollars of its capital stock is actually paid for in cash. All shares of stock shall be full paid and non-assessable, which capital stock may be increased to a sum not to exceed Twenty-Five Thousand ($25,000.00) Dollars, in which event, during the period between the call for the meeting for such increase and the meeting, the person holding the stock at the time shall have the right to take shares of the additional or increased stock, proportionate to the number of shares owned by them, and any shares not taken at the expiration of said period may be disposed of by the Board of Directors, for the benefit of the corporation at not less than their par value. No transfer of stock shall be binding upon the corporation unless recorded upon the books.

ARTICLE V.

All the corporate powers of this corporation and the management and control of its affairs shall be vested in and exercised by a Board of Directors composed of three (3) stockholders, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all of the business. The Directors shall be elected annually, by ballot by the stockholders, on the second Monday in January of each year. Each person shall be entitled in person or by proxy to a vote for every share owned by him, and all elections shall be held under such rules and regulations as may be determined by the Board of Directors; the Directors thus elected shall continue in office for one year, or until their successors have been duly elected and qualified. No failure to elect shall be regarded as a forfeiture of this charter. Any vacancy occurring on said Board shall be filled by the remaining Directors for the unexpired term.

The Board of Directors shall, at its first meeting after its election nominate out of its number a President, a Vice-President and a Secretary-Treasurer; said Board shall have the right to divide the office of Secretary and Treasurer and may elect a Secretary who need not be a stockholder, but whose tenure of office shall be during the pleasure of the Board. And said Board shall
