CHARTERS. CHARTER of the SOUTHERN HOTEL, INC. United States of America, State of Louisiana, Parish of St. Tammany.

Be it known that before me, Karl J. Kohne, a Notary Public, duly commissioned and qualified in and for the parish of St. Tammany, State of Louisiana, personally came and appeared the persons whose names are hereunto subscribed, who declared to me, Notary, that availing themselves of the provisions of the laws of this State relative to the organization of corporations, and more particularly of Act 267 of the Acts of the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana for the year 1914, they have covenanted and agreed, and by these presents do covenant and agree for themselves, their successors and assigns, to form themselves into a corporation and body politic, for the objects and purposes, and under the stipulations hereinafter set forth, to-wit:

ARTICLE I. The name and title of this corporation shall be Southern Hotel Incorporated, and under its said corporate name it shall have the right power and authority to have and enjoy corporate existence and succession for the full term and period of ninety-nine (99) years from and after the date hereof; to contract, to sue and be sued; to make and use a corporate seal, if desired, and the same to hold, break or alter at pleasure; to receive, lease, purchase and convey, as well as mortgage and hypothecate property, real, personal and mixed, corporate or incorporeal; to name and appoint such managers, agents, directors and officers as its business interests and conveniences may require, and to make and establish, as well as alter and amend, from time to time, such by-laws, rules and regulations for the government of the affairs of said corporation, as may be necessary and proper.

ARTICLE II. The domicile of said corporation shall be in the town of Covington, parish of St. Tammany, State of Louisiana, and all citations, or other legal process, shall be served upon the President of said corporation, or, in the event of his absence, upon the Vice-President, and in the absence of both of said officers, as the law directs.

ARTICLE III. The objects and purposes for which this corporation is formed, and the nature of the business to be carried on by it, are hereby declared to be: To acquire, purchase or lease, lands, buildings and improvements, to conduct, carry on and operate a hotel or hotels in Covington, Louisiana, or in any other locality in the State of Louisiana and in connection with the operation of the same to acquire and purchase furniture, fixtures and all necessary paraphernalia and appurtenances necessary to conduct the same; to operate in connection therewith dining rooms, cafe or cafes, billiard and pool rooms and all other complements for the convenience and comfort of the guests as may be deemed advisable, and especially to acquire the New Southern Hotel of Covington, La.

ARTICLE IV. The capital stock of this corporation is hereby fixed at the sum of Fifteen Thousand ($15,000.00) Dollars, divided into and represented by one hundred and fifty shares of stock of the par value of One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars each. The corporation shall have the right to increase its said capital stock to Fifty Thousand ($50,000) Dollars, divided into shares of One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars each, if authorized by a meeting of the stockholders duly called and voted for according to law. The capital stock may be increased or diminished, as provided by law. All shares of stock shall be issued as full paid and non-assessable, and a transfer of stock shall be binding on the corporation unless recorded on its books. No stockholder shall be liable for any amount, beyond the amount of stock subscribed for by him in this corporation.

ARTICLE V. All of the corporate powers of this corporation shall be exercised by a Board of Directors consisting of five (5) stockholders, of whom three (3) shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The Board of Directors shall elect, annually, from their number, a president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer, or may combine the said two latter officers in one person. The Board shall appoint, from time to time, such officers, agents, clerks and employees, as they may deem necessary for the purpose of carrying on the business of this corporation, who shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board, or may employ a manager or other designated official with power to employ and discharge such agents and employees as may be deemed necessary and proper. Said Board may make, alter and amend, any and all by-laws and regulations proper for the conduct and management of the business and affairs of the corporation. The following persons shall compose and constitute the first Board of Directors: L. J. Bourgeois, President, Hammond, La. Harvey E. Ellis, Vice-President, Covington, La. Clarence E. Schonberg, Secretary and Treasurer, Covington, La. John P. Rausch, Abita Springs, La., and Herman H. Levy, Mandeville, La., Directors.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of this corporation for the election of officers shall be held on the first Monday in March of each year, and the Directors now chosen to represent this corporation shall hold their offices until that date or until their successors are duly elected and qualified. In case vacancies occur during the year, same shall be filled by the remaining Directors or Director.

ARTICLE VI. This charter may be modified, changed or altered, or said corporation may be dissolved, with the assent of stockholders owning two-thirds of the entire capital stock of this corporation, at a general meeting of its stockholders convened for that purpose, after fifteen (15) days notice shall have been given to each stockholder, mailed to his last known address. In case of liquidation of this corporation, the Board of Directors shall be the liquidators. Stockholders may vote either in person or by proxy.

ARTICLE VII. The subscribers hereto have respectively written opposite their names the amount of stock in this corporation subscribed for by each of them, together with their post-office addresses, so that this act of incorporation shall serve as the original subscription list of said corporation. CHARTER of the STANGA MERCANTILE COMPANY, INCORPORATED. United States of America, State of Louisiana, Parish of St. Tammany.

Before me, Adrian D. Schwartz, a Notary Public, duly commissioned and qualified in and for the parish of St. Tammany, State of Louisiana, personally came and appeared the persons whose names are hereunto subscribed, to me personally known, who declared to me, Notary, that availing themselves of the laws of the State of Louisiana, they do by these presents, form themselves into a body corporate, for the objects and purposes and with the powers and privileges as hereinafter set forth.

ARTICLE I. The name of this corporation shall be the Stanga Mercantile Company, Incorporated. It shall have succession and existence for a period of ninety-nine (99) years from date hereof, unless sooner dissolved as provided by law and the articles of this charter.

ARTICLE II. The domicile of this corporation shall be at Abita Springs, Louisiana, where all citation and other legal process shall be served upon the president, or in case of his absence on the vice-president, or in case of the absence of both such officers, then in the manner provided by law.

ARTICLE III. The objects and purposes for which this corporation is organized, and the nature of the business to be carried on by it, are hereby declared to be: A general business of buying and selling merchandise, retail or wholesale, including all manner of personal property whatsoever; to purchase or otherwise acquire, hold or lease, mortgage and sell real estate of any nature, which may be necessary or incident to the operation of the business above mentioned.

ARTICLE IV. The authorized capital stock is hereby fixed at Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) cash paid in by the subscribers, represented by fifty (50) shares of the par value of One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars each. The parties hereto declare that they hereby subscribe for the number of shares set opposite their respective signatures, in the aggregate sum of Five Thousand ($5,000.00) Dollars. The capital stock of this corporation may be increased to the sum of Ten Thousand ($10,000.00) Dollars, in accordance with the provisions of law pertaining thereto.

ARTICLE V. All the powers of this corporation shall be vested in and exercised by a Board of Directors, to be composed of not less than three (3) stockholders, to be elected at the annual meeting of the stockholders. The officers for the first year shall be as follows: John A. Stanga, Abita Springs, Louisiana, president. J. Elliott Stanga, Covington, Louisiana, Vice-president. M. M. Stanga, Abita Springs, Louisiana, secretary-treasurer.

ARTICLE VI. On the second day of January, 1918, the stockholders shall elect a Board of Directors for the ensuing year. The officers of this corporation shall be selected by the Board of Directors. The said Board of Directors shall have power to make all necessary rules and regulations for the management, operation and control of the business of the corporation.

ARTICLE VII. In the event of dissolution of this corporation for any cause, its affairs shall be liquidated by two liquidators elected from the stockholders at a special meeting held for that purpose. No stockholder shall be held liable or responsible for the contracts or debts of this corporation in any further sum than the unpaid balance due to the corporation on the shares owned by him, nor shall any shares more informally, or heretofore, have the effect of rendering this charter null or exposing a stockholder to liability beyond the unpaid balance due on the stock owned by him.

ARTICLE VIII. Thus done and passed before me at my office on the 29th day of January, 1917, in the presence of F. N. Boudousquie and L. P. Kammer, competent witnesses, who heretofore signed their names together with the said parties and me, Notary, after due reading of the same.
