PREPAREDNESS

A great deal is being said and written about the preparedness of our Country for this War. In a sense we are not prepared for it. Neither were we prepared for the Revolutionary War, in which America won its freedom, nor for the War of 1812, nor for the Mexican Wars, nor for the Spanish-American War. In all of her Wars, America, though unprepared, has been victorious, as she will be in this one. Americans are the most resourceful and ingenious people on earth, and her soldiers, man for man, are the best soldiers.

The stockholders and depositors of our bank rest secure in the knowledge that our affairs are in excellent condition and that we are also well prepared for any emergency which the war may bring, though it is already established that this war will not cause anything like a money panic, in fact there is more money in the country than ever before. We are in position to finance the entire parish, if necessary.

CARD OF THANKS.

We take this method of expressing our appreciation for the kindnesses shown us by our friends and neighbors during the time of illness and death of our dear son and brother. We especially thank Mrs. Farmer and Polk for their untiring efforts. Respectfully,
MR. and Mrs. R. W. EZZELL and FAMILY.

The Covington Bank & Trust Company has received the first deposit from the earnings of some one who has joined the U. S. Navy and is putting something in the bank for future use. It simply comes from "Somewhere on the Atlantic."

There is comment on the streets as to the fact that the American flag is not floating regularly from the flag staff on the courthouse. The people want to see "Old Glory" as long as the sun shines.

Miss Maddern, of the Redpath Chautauqua Company, is here assisting Miss Ethel Bougere in the sale of tickets. We don't ask you to buy a ticket of her. We only ask you to look at her and listen to her. You'll buy the ticket, alright!

Lieut. McGibney, from the French front, with the Redpath Chautauqua, was offered one dollar a minute by the citizens of Lake Charles if he would repeat his address the next night. Worth while hearing somebody like that talk. Get a season ticket for $2.00.
