Some people say that the business done by Covington and vicinity is not what it used to be. The above figures, which show the growth of this bank, tell a different tale. There is a great deal more business done in Covington now than before. During this time business has increased, but the nature of it has changed. It is only those concerns which have changed and grown with the change and growth of business that have lived and prospered. Ours is one of them.

We are ready, willing and able to meet the needs of our friends.

All other notices required by law, and that at said meeting there were a total of sixty-one (61) shares present, being all the stock issued of said corporation.

And appraisers declared that at such meeting of such stockholders a resolution was adopted by the unanimous vote of all the stockholders that Articles I and III of the articles of incorporation of said corporation should be amended, and said articles were duly amended so as to read as follows:

ARTICLE I. "The name and style of this corporation shall be Southern Naval Stores Warehouse Co., Inc., and said corporation name it shall have succession and enjoy existence for a period of ninety-nine years, unless sooner dissolved, in the manner provided by law, and the articles of this charter; and under said corporate name it shall have power and authority to contract, sue and be sued, to make and use a corporate seal, the same to alter or break at pleasure; to make all necessary rules and regulations for its corporate management and control, and shall have and enjoy all the rights, privileges and immunities which are now conferred upon, or may hereafter be conferred to corporations of the same kind and character."

ARTICLE III. "The objects and purposes for which this corporation is organized are hereby declared to be engaged in and carry on the business of public warehouses in general and the warehousing of naval stores in particular, and for this purpose to issue warehouse receipts in conformity with the laws of Louisiana, both negotiable and non-negotiable, to persons warehousing goods, and to make reasonable charges therefor, and to make advances or loans upon the security of such goods, or otherwise to acquire and own by purchase, lease, or otherwise, buildings, tracks, bridges, steamboats and other water craft."

And said appraisers declared that they were authorized and instructed by said stockholders' meeting to execute the proper notarial act amending the charter of said corporation in accordance with the vote of said stockholders. And said appraisers thereupon declared that the articles of incorporation of said Picayune Turpentine Co. have been duly and legally amended by the vote of the stockholders of said corporation, and they make this declaration and execute this notarial act in accordance therewith. Thus done and signed at my office in Covington, La., in the presence of Edward V. Richard and Karl J. Kohnke, competent witnesses, who sign the same with said appraisers, and me, Notary, after the reading of the whole.

Signed: HUBERT C. BAILEY, E. JONES.

Witnesses: EDW. V. RICHARD, KARL J. KOHNKE, HARVEY E. ELLIS, Notary Public.

I hereby certify that the above and foregoing articles of amendment to the charter of the Picayune Turpentine Company were filed for record on the 13th day of July, A. D., 1917, and recorded on said date in Charter Book No. 1 folios 120 et seq. W. E. BLOSSMAN, Dy. Clerk & Ex-Officio Recorder. July 14-17
