

SACKS WANTED

Oat Sacks 11 cents, Hull Sacks 10c, Corn Sacks 8c, Mixed Feed Sacks 5c, Cotton Seed Meal Sacks 5c, Sacks with holes 3c, Small Sacks 5c.

COVINGTON GROCERY AND GRAIN COMPANY.

When the whole city is Westinghouse Mazda Lighted and we are making every effort to have it so even to the extent of making application to furnish WESTING HOUSE MAZDA LAMPS to the St. Tammany Ice & Manufacturing Company, for street lighting use. At the present time we are supplying Westinghouse Mazda Lamps to a majority of the homes in Covington using electric current.

When all are supplied

All will see clearly

Our store is the store of Covington and for Covington.

It ranks with the best class of stores in the large cities, and the quality and variety of the stock will not disappoint you.

Despite war conditions we urge that you compare our prices with those asked by the other stores. Our assertions are backed up with correct weights and satisfactory service.

We ask that you inspect our candy counter.

We are exclusive handlers of E. J. Brach & Sons Popular Quality Candies—10 cents a half pound.

Stock now includes:

CREAM MINTS, PEANUT ICES, CHOCOLATE PRALINES, CRYSTALIZED CREAM WAFERS, JELLY BEANS, COCOA-NUT AND VANILLA FUDGE, AND MARSHMALLOWS.

GROCERIES — FEED — STOCK REMEDIES — AUTO SUPPLIES — ELECTRICAL GOODS.

F. C. FitzSimons Grocery Company

Covington : : : Louisiana

Corner Drug Store

is proving to be one of the most popular places in Covington, after having been doing business for only a few weeks.

We attribute this to our prompt service and courteous treatment to one and all.

Come and see us at "Corner Drug Store," now located in the Badon Building, at corner of Gibson and Columbia Streets, where you will find us ready to serve your every want in the drug line.

At our Soda Fountain you get the finest cold drinks

CORNER DRUG STORE

PHONE 25

L. J. NICOLLE, Ph. G., Manager

Personal and Local News

Miss Boudousquie By Society Editors Miss R. Moses

Mr. Henry Hebert spent a few days at his home in New Iberia.

Mr. Clay Hebert spent last week in Covington.

Mrs. R. L. Minuet spent a few days of this week with Mrs. T. M. Burns. She left Monday with her niece, Miss Katherine Wilson, who has been visiting Mrs. Burns.

Mrs. A. V. Smith has returned after a two weeks' visit in New Orleans as the guest of Mrs. Dryden Williams.

Mrs. W. R. Townsey, of New Orleans, will spend several weeks in Covington as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Schonberg.

Mrs. T. M. Burns and little daughter, Kathrine, left Monday for Asheville, N. C., where they will spend the remainder of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Bear returned Sunday after ten days spent at Pass Christian.

Mrs. Sauter and daughter, Miss Elizabeth, are spending a few weeks on Military Road.

Mrs. A. H. Clement left last week for California to visit her mother who is very ill.

Miss Henrietta Stevenson, of New Orleans, is spending two weeks in Covington as the guest of her aunt, Mrs. W. L. Stevenson.

Miss Thelma Stroble returned Sunday from a visit to Meridian, Miss.

Miss Rosalie Sonfield will leave Sunday for New Orleans, after a month's stay in Covington.

The Double T. G's. met last week at the home of Miss Norma Weaver. Prizes were won by Misses Grace Blossman and Alice Ostendorf. Miss Grace Blossman was hostess this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Samuel will spend a few days in New Orleans this week.

Mr. E. Barton White, now of Garyville, La., spent last Wednesday in Covington, having come over to be examined for the selective draft.

Mrs. L. A. Perreand writes from Fort Worth, Texas, that Miss Adele is now doing nicely and is entirely out of danger. This will be good news to her friends here.

Mr. C. M. Liddle, of Slidell, is spending a while in Chicago. He writes to The Farmer that three hundred thousand people were on the municipal bathing beach in one day.

One of the most enjoyable affairs of the week was the Five Hundred and Heart games last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. F. Bouquet, in honor of her cousin, Mrs. Felix J. Samson, of Abbeville. The prize at Five Hundred was awarded Mrs. W. J. Warren, while Mrs. H. E. Gautreaux carried off the honors at Hearts. The consolation prize was awarded Mrs. R. H. Dutsch. After the games delicious refreshments were served the guests. Mrs. Samson, who has a beautiful soprano voice, delighted those present with many vocal selections.

Mrs. J. C. Burns spent a few days in New Orleans this week.

The young men of the town entertained at a subscription dance last Saturday evening at the New Southern Hotel, in honor of the home and visiting girls.

Misses Amanda and Jeanette Pierce and Mr. R. N. Duran, of Bogalusa, spent last Friday here.

Mr. Joseph Collins, after having spent his two weeks' vacation at his home here, left Monday for New Orleans, where he is now employed.

Miss Letitia Delery returned Sunday from New Orleans where she spent several days at her home.

Miss Nellie Barrett, of New Orleans, arrived Wednesday morning to spend some time here as the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. J. Ostendorf.

Misses Ferdie and Anna Cole, of New Orleans, are spending some time at their home here.

Miss Alma Smith, who has been studying in New Orleans to become a trained nurse, completed her course at the Presbyterian Hospital this week, being one of the highest graded in the class.

Miss Ruby Anderson, who is a student at the Charity Hospital Training School, arrived Wednesday with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Anderson, and sister, Miss Ethel Anderson.

Miss Margaret McCormack, of New Orleans, is spending some time here as the guest of Miss Ruby Teele.

Miss Rita Boudousquie, of Mobile, Ala., arrived Wednesday to be the guest of Mrs. C. E. Boudousquie for several weeks.

Mrs. Felix J. Samson and two daughters have returned to their home in Abbeville, La., after two weeks spent here as the guest of Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Bouquet.

PLANCHARD—LANSING.

The marriage of Miss Olga Planchard to Mr. Sam S. Lansing, now located at Sylvan, Ga., was quietly celebrated on Monday, August 6, 1917, in the presence of their immediate families and a few friends, Rev. J. M. Boykin officiating. The bride was attended by Miss Ruth Burns and the groom by his brother, Mr. Albert Lansing. The bride and her bridesmaids were becomingly gowned in white organdy dresses, made in this year's youthful fashion. The bride was a recent graduate of the Covington High School, and Mr. Lansing is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Lansing, of Covington. Mr. and Mrs. Lansing left the same afternoon amid a shower of rice and good wishes, for Savannah, Ga., before leaving for a week's visit to relatives in Savannah, Ga., where they will reside. Mr. Lansing holds a position with the railroad at that place.

Hon. Delos R. Johnson, of Franklinton, was a business visitor here Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Faclane, of Slidell, spent Monday and Tuesday here as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Delery.

Miss Marie Kronenberger was a New Orleans visitor Wednesday.

Mr. Hayden Wren, of New Orleans, is spending a while in Covington on his vacation.

Miss Virgie Dossat, who has been attending the L. S. U. Summer Normal, arrived Tuesday night to spend the remainder of her vacation at home.

Mrs. R. C. Bell, of New Orleans, is spending some time here as the guest of Mrs. S. D. Anderson.

Dr. Carl Young, a student of medicine at the Galveston college, arrived Wednesday for a few weeks visit to his father and mother, Dr. and Mrs. F. F. Young.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Schonberg, at Covington, La. a girl.

Hon. Hayden W. Wren is spending a short time in Covington. No politics. Just a rest up and to breathe some of our ozone, to put a keener edge on his guardianship of the Port.

Miss Elizabeth Lancaster, of New Orleans, spent last Sunday here as the guest of Mrs. Jos. B. Lancaster and family.

Mrs. M. Diendorf has returned to her home in New Orleans after some time spent here as the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. Molloy.

Mr. Anthony Moran, of New Orleans, spent the week-end here as the guest of friends.

Mr. Rollo Schwartz, of New Orleans, spent several days here during the past week with his family, who are summering at the home of Mr. A. D. Schwartz.

YOU'LL FIND IT A TREAT to visit this meat market. When you become acquainted with our sanitary methods and learn of the double barreled inspection our meat undergoes before we accept it you'll know that this is the meat store de Luxe.

A. J. PLANCHE, Covington, La.

BAPTIST CHURCH.

Sunday School every Sunday, 9:30 a. m. Preaching on first and third Sundays, 11 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. Prayer meeting Tuesday, 7:45 p. m. We earnestly request all Christians to co-operate with us as far as possible.

F. H. BANCROFT, Pastor.

Mrs. L. C. Moise and little daughter, Rita, have returned from Beaumont and other Texas points, after having spent several weeks there with her daughter, Mrs. Bernard D'Aurive.

Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Salter and sons, Messrs. Noble and Will, arrived Saturday night to spend the remainder of the summer at "The Oaks."

Miss Ruth Warner, who has charge of a hospital at Austin, Texas, arrived last Friday for a visit of two weeks to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Warner.

Dr. and Mrs. Wm. Pett and family, of New Orleans, arrived Sunday for a month's stay at the home of their grandmother, Mrs. L. B. Barrell.

Mrs. Robt. Pollock returned Sunday from New Orleans where she spent several days.

Mrs. J. E. Nilson returned Sunday morning from New Orleans, after several days spent there as the guest of Mrs. H. R. McLeod.

Miss Clarice Frederick, now of Bogalusa, spent the week-end at her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Edw. F. Marrero and little son spent several days during the past week in New Orleans.

Mr. August McCormack left Sunday for New Orleans for a visit of several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Gerard and little son, of New Orleans, spent last Sunday here as the guests of Miss Louise LeBlanc.

Mrs. F. Salmen, Mrs. W. T. Tippin and Misses Ella Salmen and Hazel Martin and Beulah Bourgeois, of Slidell, spent Saturday here in the interest of the Red Cross work.

Mrs. R. H. Leonard and children left Saturday for Horatton, Ark., where they will spend six weeks.

Miss Anals Boudousquie returned Sunday from New Orleans where she spent ten days with relatives and friends.

With large resources (over $800,000), an elegantly appointed office, attentive and intelligent employees, we feel that we offer to the banking public the best facilities that can be found in a country bank. Our funds are in such condition that we are at all times in position to meet the legitimate requirements of our customers.

If you have not already an account with us, we invite you to open one.

COVINGTON BANK & TRUST COMPANY

ST. TAMMANY'S BIG BANK

L. M. BOURGEOIS HOME FURNISHER

Plant a War Garden

Reduce your cost of living and help Uncle Sam to fight the scarcity of food. Have nice, fresh, crisp, nutritious vegetables from your own garden.

Reuter's Peerless Seeds

are the best to plant, for they're tried and tested for this section. The best market gardeners plant them exclusively. Write for new FREE booklet, "How to Grow a War Garden."

Chris Reuter SOUTH'S FOREMOST SEEDSMAN NEW ORLEANS, LA.

Miss Myra Melancon, of New Orleans, arrived Sunday morning to spend two weeks here as the guest of Mrs. Julia Boudousquie.

Miss Lucy Glass has returned to her home in Slidell, after a week spent here as the guest of Miss Judith Hamilton.

Mrs. C. M. Tracy has returned to her home in Vicksburg, Miss., after having spent some time here as the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Evans.

Miss Janie Whitlow, of New Orleans, is spending some time here as the guest of Rev. and Mrs. E. A. Rennie.

Miss Mae Poole arrived last Friday afternoon for a visit of several days to her brother and sister-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Poole.

Mrs. Marvin Poole and children returned Wednesday from New Orleans where they spent a week.

Judge and Mrs. Stephen D. Ellis, of Amite City, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey E. Ellis. The Judge always feels at home in Covington, because it was his first home, and Covington is always proud to have him here.

SOAPS are getting scarce and high. We have a large stock on hand at old prices.

Buy now and save money.

Schonberg's Pharmacy

JULIUS DAVIS.

The eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Davis, of Waldheim, was called home Thursday, August 2, 1917, and the same day his body laid to rest in the Davis Cemetery, waiting the call of the Trumpet. The funeral address given by Rev. O. W. Luecke, was based on Christ's words, "Suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of God."

The bereaved parents, sisters and brothers are grateful to all friends for all kindnesses shown during this time of sorrow.

There will be a penny party under the auspices of the B. Y. P. U. of the Baptist Church, Saturday, Aug. 11, from 4 to 6 p. m. Childrens games and refreshments.

Miss Eleanor Anouille has returned to her home in Covington, after three weeks pleasantly spent in Houma, La., as the guest of Misses Lydia and Olive Lajaunie.

Watch the next issue of the Farmer for the announcement of a big general sale by Jones & Pickett, Ltd. the 18th.

CARD OF THANKS.

The Exemption Board of St. Tammany Parish desires to extend their fervent thanks to Drs. Gautreaux, Maylie and Tolson for their services for the past few days in connection with the examination of men called for service.

DR. H. D. BULLOCK, E. J. FREDERICK, T. E. BREWSTER, Exemption Board.