CHARTERS. Mackie Pine Oil Specialty Company, Incorporated, and its domicile is hereby established at Covington, St. Tammany parish, Louisiana; and under its corporate name said corporation shall have power and authority to contract, sue and be sued; to make and use a corporate seal, the same to break and alter at pleasure; to hold, receive, have, purchase, improve, alienate, convey, sell, borrow, pledge, mortgage and hypothecate, under its said corporate name, property, real, personal and mixed; to name and appoint such officers, directors, agents and managers or employees as the interests or convenience of said corporation may require; to make and establish by-laws, rules and regulations for the proper management and regulation of its affairs, as may be deemed necessary and proper, and the same to change and alter at pleasure; and to do all other acts and things permitted by law, or as shall be necessary and proper to carry out the objects and purposes of said corporation.

Said corporation unless sooner dissolved, in accordance with its charter, shall exist and continue for a period of ninety-nine years from and after the date hereof.

ARTICLE II. The objects and purposes for which this corporation is organized and the nature of the business to be carried on by it, are hereby declared to be: To produce, manufacture, buy and sell pine oils, turpentine, rosin and wood derivatives of all kinds, disinfectants, proprietary medicinal preparations, essential oils and chemicals; to operate advertising agencies; to own and operate tram roads, and other means of transportation; to own, buy and sell real estate in connection with the carrying on of its business; and in general to engage in any business incidental to or connected with the operations of the business above mentioned.

ARTICLE III. The capital stock of this corporation is hereby fixed at the sum of Twenty-Five Thousand ($25,000.00) Dollars, divided into twenty-five hundred (2500) shares of the par value of Ten ($10.00) Dollars each, provided that the amount to which the capital stock of this corporation may be increased, shall be One Hundred Thousand ($100,000) Dollars.

Which stock may be issued at no less than par for cash, at the time it is subscribed for, or at such time as may be deemed proper by the Board of Directors, provided that said stock shall be paid for in full within twelve months after same shall have been subscribed for, or in payment or exchange for property or rights actually received or purchased by said corporation, provided that all stock certificates shall be signed by the President and Secretary of said corporation and no stock shall be issued unless the consideration therefor has been received by said corporation. All transfers of stock shall be made on the books of said company at its office, on the surrender of the certificate therefor.

ARTICLE IV. The corporate powers of this corporation shall be vested in and exercised by a Board of Directors, which shall consist of five (5) stockholders, a majority of three (3) of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Said Directors shall be elected annually from among the stockholders on the second Monday in January of each year, commencing on the second Monday in January, 1918, as provided by law.

Within one week of their election, as above provided for, the Board of Directors shall elect from among their number, a President, a Vice President, and a Secretary-Treasurer, provided that one person may hold the office of both Secretary and Treasurer, and all of said officers and directors shall hold their respective offices for a period of one year from the date of their election, or until their successors are elected and qualified. But the failure to hold an annual election, or to elect the officers as above provided for, shall not result in a dissolution of this corporation, but the then Board of Directors and officers shall hold their offices until their successors are duly elected and qualified.

Any vacancies occurring in said Board of Directors shall be filled by the remaining members of the board, for the unexpired term, at a meeting called for that purpose after five (5) days notice in writing, sent by mail to said Directors at their last known residence.

The said Board of Directors shall have the power to make all by-laws, rules and regulations for the proper management and conduct of the affairs of this corporation, and to change, alter, abolish and amend same at pleasure, and shall have and exercise all the powers conferred by and under this corporation, and as set forth generally above, and the said Board of Directors may also delegate any of said powers in the transaction of the business of this corporation to committees of their own body, or to the officers and agents of this corporation.

The first Board of Directors of this corporation are hereby declared to be: Frank W. Mackie, New Orleans, La.; Fred A. Earhart, New Orleans, La.; C. E. Schonberg, Covington, La.; William F. Young, Covington, La.; and J. H. Warner, Covington, La. With Fred A. Earhart, as president; Frank W. Mackie, as vice-president, and J. H. Warner, as secretary-treasurer; who shall hold their respective offices until the second Monday in January, 1918, or until their successors are elected and qualified.

ARTICLE V. No stockholder shall be held liable or responsible for the contracts or debts of this corporation in any further sum than the unpaid balance due the company on shares of stock owned by him, nor shall any informality in the organization herein have the effect of rendering any stockholder to any liability beyond the unpaid balance due on his stock.

ARTICLE VI.
