Expert on Community Problems to Lecture Here Chautauqua Week

"Loyalty to the Home Town" will be discussed by Charles Howard Plattburg on the fourth night of the Chautauqua. Mr. Plattburg, who was for many years a successful newspaper editor and has traveled widely, is an authority on community problems.

So vital to the public did the Retail Merchants' Association of Kentucky consider this addition that they printed several hundred thousand copies and scattered them broadcast throughout the state.

In 6,956 towns and cities in the nine leading states, including 215 county seats, there was an actual loss in population from 1900 to 1910. At least 7,000 more towns in these nine states barely held their own, meaning that in those 20 years nearly 14,000 towns either stood still or lost ground.

Mr. Plattburg shows that this tremendous loss in population, and the enormous depreciation in real estate values resulting therefrom were brought about: (1) By lack of civic pride, community loyalty and local co-operation; (2) by the tremendous inroads made by the mail order houses; (3) by the constant stream of young men and women from the smaller towns to the great centers. After showing these tendencies in the average town, he discusses means and methods that have been successfully used to counteract them.

Sunday, May 26, there will be a dance at the Abita Springs pavilion for the benefit of the Red Cross. The admission will be 10 cents.

The Abita committee is working hard to make up her allotment in the drive. The money is badly needed and every body who can is asked to attend, with the assurance that their presence will be appreciated and that as pleasant a time as possible will be given them. There will be good music.

Mr. Clarence R. Domergue has enlisted in the Navy. This makes two stars in the service flag of Mr. E. J. Domergue's family, he being the second son to volunteer in the service.

Misses Ida and Agnes White, who have spent several weeks in Covington at the Pharis Cottage, returned to their home in New Orleans, Sunday afternoon. Mr. E. J. Domergue has been elected a member of the board of directors of the Southern Wholesale Grocers Association. The board has made a wise selection. Mr. Domergue is one of the hustlers of St. Tammany parish and a man of great ability.

LOCAL NOTES FROM LACOMBE.

Mr. W. P. Dinkins spent several days last week at his former home in St. Mary Parish and was also present at the graduation of his nephew at Franklin.

A large and enthusiastic crowd was out to hear the speaking at the opening of the Red Cross drive in this place, Sunday. Messrs. Harvey E. Ellis and Adrian D. Schwartz presented some plain facts in a forceful manner. The presence of the Military Band and the excellent music with which they favored us added very much to the enthusiasm and enjoyment of the occasion. Before Monday night the full quota had been over subscribed and Lacombe is again well "over the top."

Miss Rosemary Villars had as her guests Sunday the Misses Frazier and Land, two of her fellow-teachers in Slidell.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Todd and daughter, Mandane, left Thursday morning for Biloxi, by auto, for a short visit to relatives and friends. They will be accompanied on their return by Messrs. John and Walter Todd who have been attending school at Seashore Camp Grounds for the past year.

Mr. Julius C. Foretich, of Biloxi, now a member of the Military Band at the Naval Training Station at West End, New Orleans, came over Sunday and spent the day with his cousin, J. A. Todd, and other relatives here. An invitation had been extended to the whole band to accompany him, a large number of whom accepted and spent a delightful day here enjoying a bit of home life. They were practically guests of the town, which was very much awake in their home and as a result of the opening of the Red Cross drive. We appreciate very highly the music which they furnished us for the parade and speaking and hope they will visit us again.

We were pleased to receive a nice, big box of beans, potatoes and beets from our friend, T. A. Slatery, at Ramsay, last Saturday. The lot is some of the finest we have seen this season, and only adds proof that St. Tammany can grow the best truck in the country.

To illustrate how a good thing advertises itself, when Mr. Ward of the Redpath Chautauqua was in Virginia he gave a sample of Mackie's Pine Oil to a gentleman to be used for something it was recommended for. Mr. Ward was presented with the pine oil when he was here with the Chautauqua last year. A few weeks ago Mr. Mackie received a letter from this gentleman asking for more of the oil to be sent to him. Wanted it bad.

THE NAION IS LOOKING AT US.

There has not been a call from the Government since the war commenced which St. Tammany parish has not fully answered. In the sale of Liberty Bonds, contributions for Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., K. of C., the parish has shown what mettle it is made of by going over the top in every instance. For the second time the Nation is calling for funds for use of the Red Cross and the parish of St. Tammany is asked to raise $15,000, and the town of Covington $3500. Are we going to fail to respond to this call? We think not.

We recommend your next investment to be in the nature of a stiff contribution to the Red Cross. It will not pay you in dollars and cents, but it will give you what is far more valuable—the satisfaction of having done your duty to your fellow-man, your country and your God.

GENTS FURNISHINGS
COVINGTON, LA.

MRS. CAROLINE WILSON.

Wednesday, May 8th, marked the passing away of one of the best known and best beloved citizens in the Second Ward, Mrs. Caroline Jenkins Wilson.

While alone with her little grandchildren on the Saturday before, Mrs. Wilson was smitten with a paralytic stroke and never regained consciousness. Having left her a few moments before in perfect health, the shock was a severe one to her family who remained at her bedside until the end hoping vainly for one word or look of recognition.

All that mortal hands could do was done, and the bereaved family feel very grateful to the friends who so kindly assisted during this time of trial.

Mrs. Wilson leaves a devoted husband, a large number of children and grandchildren, and a large number of friends to mourn her loss.

Never absent where she could offer help or loving service in time of trouble, she will be long remembered in the neighborhood which knew and loved her so many years.

A FRIEND.

The Misses E. and A. Kuntz and Miss L. Ward, of New Orleans, were guests at the Pharis Cottage, Sunday.

MR. LIMONGI TO LECTURE AT LACOMBE, JUNE 9.

The Limongi lecture at Bayou La-combe on the 9th of June will draw a large crowd and will be a great help for the Red Cross. The great speaker comes from France; he saw your boys in the trenches and his experiences will prove very interesting.

Following is the program:

3:35 p. m.—Nearer, My God to Thee. Address by Rev. Placide, O. S. B. Blessing of the Flag. Procession. America.

4:30 p. m.—Lecture by Mr. Felix Limongi, Le Marsellaise. Presentation of Service Flag, by Rev. Fr. Francis, O. S. B. Flag of the Free. Response to presentation, by Mr. Felix Limongi. Star Spangled Banner.

All are heartily invited to the Catholic school.

REV. FRANCIS, O. S. B.

CONSTIPATION AND INDIGESTION.

These are twin evils. Persons suffering from indigestion are often troubled with constipation. Mrs. Robert Allison, Mattoon, Ill., writes that when she first moved to Mattoon she was a great sufferer from indigestion and constipation. Food distressed her and there was a feeling like a heavy weight pressing on her stomach and chest. She did not rest well at night, and felt worn out a good part of the time. One bottle of Chamberlain's Tablets corrected this trouble so that she has since felt like a different person.

SOUR STOMACH.

Eat slowly, masticate your food thoroughly, abstain from meat for a few days and in most cases the sour stomach will disappear. If it does not, take one of Chamberlain's Tablets immediately after supper. Red meals are most likely to cause sour stomach and you may find it best to eat them out.

ROAD TO HAPPINESS.

Be amiable, cheerful and good natured and you are much more likely to be happy. You will find this difficult, if not impossible, however, when you are constantly troubled with constipation. Take Chamberlain's Tablets and get rid of them and it will be easy. These tablets not only move the bowels, but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion.
