MRS. MARIE FENWICK PRAGUE.

Mrs. Marie Fenwick Prague, aged 82 years, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. C. Williams at 1239 Carrollton avenue, New Orleans, on Thursday, May 16, 1918.

For the past ten years she has spent her summers here in Covington with her son, Edw. Lancaster Prague. She was the widow of the late James Brice Prague, who had held important public offices in New Orleans and was often urged to become mayor of that city, but each time declined to allow his name to stand.

Mrs. Prague was always an ardent advocate of the nature of Covington and wonderful climate of the Ozene Belt and attributed its invigorating atmosphere as largely due to her long life.

The devoted and christian life of this sainted follower of her Master will long be remembered in this community.

She leaves four children, one son, Edw. Lancaster Prague, and three daughters, Mrs. W. C. Williams, Mrs. S. F. Wells and Mrs. G. F. Bodfish, also one brother and sister, E. L. Watkins, of Los Angeles, and Brenda Behan, of New York City.

TO THE BAKERS.

John M. Parker, State Food Administrator, has issued the following letter to the bakers of Louisiana:

At the conference of bakers recently held in Washington, it was brought out with clearness that the consumption of wheat in this country for the three months period ending August 1, 1918, would ordinarily be at the rate of nearly 50 million bushels a month, while all figures available go to show that for this period there is only enough to supply about 14-12 million bushels a month.

Now this means that the baker must do one thing. He must under no circumstances increase his output in the slightest. Rather should he cut it down from the present figures.

Therefore, it is suggested that taking into consideration all circumstances, the baker shall take as a basis his flour consumption for April, 1918, and at no time in the period ahead of us, up to August 1, shall he allow his monthly output to exceed the figures shown for the month mentioned.

Surely it is possible for the bakers of this land to rise to the necessity of their country and do this, and we are sure the bakers of Louisiana will do their part. It is asking but little. For only a little more than sixty days, you are asked not to hurt your business in the least, but merely to do just one thing: Hold your output to a level.

A NEW CHANCE TO GET ALL THE THRILLS OF ARMY LIFE.

A new chance to get all the thrills of the army life "over there" is afforded in Uncle Sam's latest call. Through the American Red Cross, hundreds of male stenographers and male clerks are wanted to go with the troops on service in France.

The Gulf Division, A. R. C., 225 Post Office Building, New Orleans, is seeking recruits. Applications can be made in mail to the Bureau of Personnel there. Details of pay, service, etc., are told in this telegram from Washington:

"France cables: 'Send male stenographers to accompany troops. Duties too arduous for women. Enroll all you can. Increasing need for bright male clerks competent to fill good positions requiring ability and enterprise. No objection men under draft age.' Will accept applications only from men 18 to 19 years ten months, and pay six hundred francs. Uniform and all expenses when necessary."

Typists and clerks who can read or write French are desired particularly, and the Gulf Division is expected to furnish a great number due to the large French-speaking population.

SOUTHERN DARKIES PLAY BIG PART IN RED CROSS DRIVE.

New Orleans, June 7.—Southern darkies played a big part in the second Red Cross war fund campaign, according to belated reports to the Gulf Division, American Red Cross.

Several chapters reported they set an example for the "white folks" to follow.

"Old Jasper" Thompson, so old his age is calculated anywhere between 70 and 110, works in a grain elevator in New Orleans as "porter."

The pledge cards were sent around and "Old Jasper," a $2-a-day employee, signed for $4. A day or two later he called for his card.

"I wants to give mo," explained Jasper. He signed for $12, proudly exhibiting a letter from a nephew, Robert Thompson, who is a stevedore "somewhere in France." Robert wrote of the Red Cross' treatment when he was injured.

OVER THE 'PHONE.

The following is sent in by E. J. Domergue, president of the Covington Grocery & Grain Co.:

The Kaiser called the Devil up On the telephone one day The girl at Central listened to All they had to say.

"Hello," she heard the Kaiser say, "Is old man Satan home? Just tell him this is Kaiser Bill That wants him on the phone."

The Devil said "Hello" to Bill, And Bill said "How are you? I'm running here a hell on earth. So tell me what to do."

"What can I do?" the Devil said, "My dear old Kaiser Bill." "If there's a thing that I can do To help you, I sure will."

The Kaiser said, "Now listen, And I'll try to tell The way that I am running On earth a modern hell."

"I've saved for this for many years, And I've started out to kill. That it will be a modern job You leave to Kaiser Bill."

"My army went thru Belgium, Shooting the women and children down; We tore up all her country, And blew up all her towns."

"My Zepps dropped bombs on cities Killing both old and young, And those the Zepps didn't get We've taken out and hung."

"I started out for Paris, With the aid of poisonous gas, The Belgians, darn 'em, stopped us, And would not let us pass."

"My submarines are devils— Why, you should see them fight— They go sneaking thru the sea And sink a ship at sight."

"I was running things to suit me, Till a year or so ago, When a man called Woodrow Wilson Wrote me to go more slow."

"He said to me, 'Dear William, We don't want to make you sore, So be sure to tell your U-boats To sink our ships no more.'"

"We have told you for the last time, So Bill, it's up to you, And if you do not stop it You have got to fight us too."

"I did not listen to him, And he's coming after me With a million Yankee soldiers From their home across the sea."

"Now that's why I called you Satan, For I want advice from you, I know that you would tell me Just what I ought to do."

"My dear old Kaiser William, There's not much for me to tell, For the Yanks will make it hotter Than I can for you in hell."

"I've been a mean old Devil, But not half as mean as you; And the minute I get you here, I will give my job to you."

"I'll be ready for your coming, And I'll keep the fires all bright, And I'll have your room all ready When the Yanks begin to fight."

"For the boys in blue will get you— I have nothing more to tell; Hang up the phone and get your hat And meet me here in hell."

UGH! CALOMEL MAKES YOU DEATHLY SICK

Stop Using Dangerous Drug Before It Salvates You! It's Horrible!

You're bilious, sluggish, constipated and believe you need vile, dangerous calomel to start your liver and clean your bowels.

Here's my guarantee! Ask your druggist for a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone and take a spoonful tonight. If it doesn't start your liver and straighten you right up better than calomel and without making you sick I want you to go back to the store and get your money.

RHEUMATIC PAINS RELIEVED.

"I have used Chamberlain's Liniment for pains in the chest and lameness of the shoulders due to rheumatism, and am pleased to say that this lotion will keep for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan and is the ideal skin softener, whitener and beautifier. Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any drug store and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It is marvelous to smoothen rough, red hands." —Adv.

SOON OVER HIS COLD.

Everyone speaks well of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy after having used it. Mrs. George Lewis, Pittsfield, N. Y., has this to say regarding it: "Last winter my little boy, five years old, was sick with a cold for two or three weeks. I doctored him and used various cough medicines but nothing did him much good until I began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He then improved rapidly and in a few days was over his cold." —Adv.

ROAD TO HAPPINESS.

Be amiable, cheerful and good natured and you are much more likely to be happy. You will find this difficult, if not impossible, however, when you are constantly troubled with constipation. These are twin evils. Persons suffering from indigestion are often troubled with constipation. Mrs. Robert Allison, Mattoon, Ill., writes that when she first moved to Mattoon she was a great sufferer from indigestion and constipation. Food distressed her and there was a feeling like a heavy weight pressing on her stomach and chest. She did not rest well at night, and felt worn out of Chamberlain's Tablets corrected this trouble so that she has since felt like a different person." —Adv.

PREFERS CHAMBERLAIN'S

"In the course of conversation with Chamberlain Medicine Co.'s representative today, we had occasion to discuss in a general way the merits of their different preparations. At his suggestion I take pleasure in expressing my estimation of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I have a family of six children and have used this remedy in my home for years. I consider it the only cough remedy on the market, as I have tried nearly all kinds." —Earl C. Ross, Publisher Hamilton County Republican-News, Syracuse, Kan. —Adv.
