SLIDELL COUNCIL DEFENSE AND RED CROSS MATTERS

Council of Defense Tenders
Funds for Civilian and Home Service Relief

F. F. WIGGINTON MADE SECRETARY

Slidell Branch Red Cross
Reorganized and Meeting Called Thursday.

Slidell, Aug. 24.—At a business meeting of the Slidell Council of Defense, held Thursday evening, several important matters were considered.

It was decided to make a tender of funds now on hand for Home Service and Civilian Relief to the Local Branch American Red Cross, to be administered by them. A committee is also to be appointed to investigate local conditions, that the Council of Defense may be fully informed in regard to any slackers, now registrants, evaders or others who are not doing their full duty, and cases will be handled promptly and decisively as may develop.

Owing to pressure of business, Mr. G. A. Bailey resigned as secretary and F. F. Wigginton elected. All citizens are requested to lend their co-operation that the Council of Defense may continue to be an effective body, in which our community may feel confidence and which will uphold in every way possible all laws enacted for war welfare and community interests.

The Slidell Branch St. Tammany Chapter of American Red Cross is now thoroughly reorganized and a general meeting is called for August 29th at the Slidell high school auditorium, when it is expected definite information will be had as to the new distribution of finances for our Branch, and the amount available for all purposes will probably be known at this time.

The investigation of the trouble which developed last Sunday proved that, while the town and people of Slidell were not at fault, it is the opinion of the officers who investigated that the trouble was caused by unruly characters, who, themselves, declared that they were deservedly hurt, and in the future there will be assigned sufficient Military Police and commissioned Military Police to take charge of any trouble which may arise. This arrangement having been made through the Honorable Mayor, who greatly deprecates the incidents of last Sunday, but feels assured with this arrangement, as stated, no further trouble of this nature will occur in the future.

War Savings Stamp Committee To Push Sales

The National War Savings Committee has inaugurated a sale of War Savings Stamps to begin immediately and to end September 15th, to show honor to General Pershing and the boys who are overseas. Every resident of the State is asked to show their appreciation of the work of General Pershing and the boys "over there" by buying War Savings Stamps, these stamps being included in those pledged during the June campaign.

The boys are pushing ahead overseas. The stay-at-home army is expected to push ahead over here, and Louisiana will show her loyalty to her fighting troops by purchasing War Savings Stamps between now and September 15th.

On Sunday, September 1, every clergyman in the State of Louisiana has been asked to preach on the victories of the boys, and Louisiana's duty to them; or to say a prayer for the boys and incorporate in that the duties of the stay-at-home army.

All banks, merchants, and post offices in the State have been asked to have on sale a full supply of the Stamps.

September 13th is General Pershing's birthday, and it sales of Stamps are large enough a cable will be sent to the General telling him that these sales were in his honor and in the honor of the Louisiana men in France.

Louisiana wants to match up to the record of her boys and the other American boys who are fighting in the trenches. Everyone in Louisiana is on tiptoes for the boys "over there," and as they cannot help except in a financial way, it is an assured fact that everyone will buy War Savings Stamps.

War Savings Stamps are supposed to represent money saved through sacrifice. What better way is there for those at home to show the boys how we stand?

ANN'L RETREAT CONDUCTED AT SCHOLASTICA CONVENT

The Impressive Ceremonies
Took Place at Convent
Chapel, Tuesday.

RENUNCIATION OF WORLD'S PLEASURES

Abbot Paul, Revs. Koegerl,
Basil and Krieger
Take Part.

The annual retreat for the Sisters affiliated with St. Scholastica's Convent, in Covington, was conducted by Rev. Father Krieger, a Redemptorist from New Orleans. His sound practical exhortations were highly appreciated, and should be productive of the most gratifying results.

Tuesday morning, at 8 o'clock, impressive ceremonies of an unusually serious character took place in the Convent Chapel, during the solemn High Mass, which was celebrated by Rev. Father John Berger, O. S. B., pastor of St. Peter's Church, Right Rev. Abbot Paul, of St. Joseph's Abbey, assisted by Rev. Fr. Basil, O. S. B., Rev. Fr. Koegerl and Rev. Fr. Krieger, C. S. S. R., officiated at the various ceremonies. The Right Rev. Abbot, the orator of the day, did justice to the ceremonies of the occasion, by depicting, in eloquent terms, the significance of the impressive ceremonies, and explaining in a masterful manner the three religious vows, poverty, chastity and obedience—the essence of the religious life.

Sister M. Loba Burk and Sister M. Hildegard Moser, of New Orleans, celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their religious profession. After a solemn renunciation of their vows, they were crowned with a silver wreath. Both of these Sisters have spent a quarter of a century in the observance of their vows, and renewed them with ever greater joy and fervor than they did the first time. They have also spent these twenty-five years in teaching in the various schools connected with St. Scholastica's Convent. They will return to New Orleans to resume their former tasks at Holy Trinity School.

Five sisters, Sister Mary Benedict, Sister Mary Rita, Sister Mary Editha and Sister Mary Kungunda, having completed the three years' probation, made their perpetual, or vows for life. The most impressive feature of this ceremony is the black pall, which represents death, or complete renunciation of the world, and all its honors and pleasures. After these Sisters, one by one, knelt before the Right Rev. Abbot, who was seated before the altar, answered the questions relative to their volition to renounce the world forever, they read their vows in a loud, clear voice.

They signed the black cloth, and then proceeded to the middle of the chapel, and knelt upon a black cloth, where with extended arms, they sang thrice, and were likewise responded by the choir, "Uphold me, O Lord, according to Thy word and I shall live; and let me not be confounded in my expectations." The Gloria followed, during which these Sisters prostrated themselves and were completely covered by a black cloth bearing a large white cross. Burning candles were placed at each corner in the same manner as they are placed around a bier. In the meantime the Reverend Clergy sang the prayers and recited the Psalm "Misereere" the same as though they were performing a funeral service. At the conclusion the black cloth was removed, and the Sisters returned to the altar to receive from the Right Rev. Abbot their ecclesiastical or choir mantles, black veil, epousal ring and crown.

Sister Mary Aloysia, Sister Mary Alice and Sister Mary Philippine Sweet, of New Orleans, pronounced their tri-annual vows.

The ceremonies concluded with benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather, many friends and acquaintances were unable to witness these beautiful ceremonies. The chapel was tastefully decorated with ferns, natural flowers and garlands of silver.

CONFESSED, BUT WERE TURNED LOOSE.

Juvenile Officer F. J. Heintz took charge of Sebora and Linda Jenkins, who came from Laurel, Miss., to Slidell, Wednesday, for living together as man and wife. The case was reported by a lady from Slidell, the girl being but 16 years of age. Both made confessions. Bass was charged with violating the State law and the Federal Mann Act. The couple stated they were willing to marry but did not have money enough at present, and would marry as soon as they did. Mr. Heintz took Bass to New Orleans and turned him over to the Federal authorities. Subsequently he was released, and returned here, when Mr. Heintz again took charge of him. The proper action will be taken under the State laws.

OTHER ROAD DIST. PROBABLY BE FORMED

Washington Parish Also Carries Good Roads
Election 2 to 1.

The good roads election carried in Road District No. 1, including the first, third, fourth and tenth wards almost unanimously. It has proven the most popular measure that has ever been before the people. Already there is talk of organizing other districts; in fact, the rest of the parish will have to organize if it expects to keep pace with District No. 1.

The bond issue is for $150,000.00. The vote was as follows: For—Number, 375; amount of property, $865,785.90. Against—Number, 6; amount, $18,801.00.

The good roads proposition in Washington parish, election held on same day (Aug. 27), carried by about two to one. The whole parish was organized as a road district and $500,000.00 was voted for roads.

Covington Schools Begin Session Monday

Pupils who will attend the Covington public school the coming session will convene at the schoolhouse on Monday, September 2, at ten o'clock for the purpose of receiving assignments, lists of books, etc. On Tuesday morning at 9:30 will be the formal opening to which patrons and friends of education are invited. Addresses will be made by local people.

School will open each day during the school term at 8:50, as it did last year and close at 3 p. m. Please see to it that your children get to school on time. This is one of the chief factors upon which the success or failure of your boy or girl depends. This, with regular attendance, seems to form the foundation for efficient work.

Following are the teachers who will teach in the Covington school this year: Principal A. J. Park, Miss Mayme Paysinger, Miss Lois Musick, Miss Helen Taylor, Miss Mary Suggs, Miss Maxie Ewell, Miss Edna Close, Mrs. V. Z. Young, Miss Christine FitzSimons, Miss May Toney, Miss Eliza Stockton, Mrs. M. L. Evans.

Catholic Schools Open.
All classes will be resumed at St. Peter's Parochial School and St. Scholastica's Academy, on Monday, Sept. 2. The shorthand classes however, will not be resumed until the following Wednesday, Sept. 4.

Parents and guardians are earnestly requested to enter their children at the beginning of the session, in order to secure good scholarship and the full benefit of the year's instruction.

Every Catholic child is entitled to a Catholic education, and since all Catholic children are received regardless of their financial circumstances, no parent can claim a lawful cause for depriving their children of this inestimable heritage.

Motor Line Sold To St. Louis Firm for $86,900

The motor line was bought, last Saturday at public sale by the Walter Zelnicker Co., of St. Louis, Mo., for $86,900.00.

It is said that this company would gladly put the line into Madisonville, if the people would become interested in such a proposition. It was generally considered unfortunate that the line should be lost to this community after having paid so much taxes to maintain it, and it may be that such a proposition will be taken up if it is put in concrete shape and presented.

U.S. ARMY CHAPLAIN FROM ST. TAMMANY PARISH, LA.

Lieut. P. T. L. Dobyms.

Some of the best Southern fighting blood runs in the veins of Lieutenant P. T. L. Dobyms, assigned as Chaplain to Camp Arthur, Waco, Texas. A grandfather of the Chaplain was a son of General Scott at the taking of Mexico City; his father enjoyed the reputation of a gallant Confederate soldier, and two brothers are fighting under the colors some where in France.

Father Dobyms is a member of St. Joseph's Abbey, three miles north of Covington, but until recently was stationed at St. Paul's College, at Covington, where he made himself a host of friends. His genial disposition and kindly interest in everything that concerns the welfare of young men will prove of good stead to the "boys" whom he reports to be a "good and lively bunch." Father Dobyms speaks several languages and is an enthusiastic athlete. Like the soldier boys in his spiritual charge, Father Dobyms is justly anticipated orders to embark for "somewhere" across the seas.

There will be a meeting of the School Improvement League, Monday, Sept. 2, at 8 o'clock p. m. MRS. CHAS. SHEFFIELD.

Caught In Act

Night Marshal Eddie Jones and Tony Gabriel did some good detective work, Tuesday, that resulted in the capture of a man said to be a deputy sheriff of St. Helena parish, named Clarence Burton, in the act of giving a soldier in uniform whisky. The man had been watched, and when he took the soldier in the toilet of the Warren Saloon, taking his grip with him, Marshal Jones pushed the door open and entered. The soldier was in the act of drinking, quickly dropped the bottle in the toilet, from which it was afterward recovered. The label showed it came from Baton Rouge.

Burton was taken to the parish jail and searched. He made a hard fight, tearing Mr. Jones' clothing in an attempt to take his gun from him. Burton was fighting drunk. He told Marshal Jones that he would kill him before the next night. He was taken to New Orleans and turned over to Federal authorities by Detective Wood of the Secret Service. The soldier's name was Homer Tracy, from Camp Beauregard.

Thirteen million men between the ages of 18 and 45 for war service will be raised in the United States immediately. It is requested by the War Department that every flag be raised and that every band be utilized at every point of registration.

Provost Marshal General Crowder says: "In this task of reaching every community and every individual within the new age, I shall have to rely upon the assistance of those agencies of the Government which have an organization calculated to be effective in accomplishing that purpose. The Council of National Defense is undoubtedly one of the most important of those agencies. Its nation-wide organization, and its direct touch with each community, will enable it to carry this appeal so emphatically that the response on Registration Day will be completely assured."
