COULD HARDLY STAND ALONE

Terrible Suffering From Headache, Sideache, Backache, and Weakness, Relieved by Cardui, Says This Texas Lady.

Gonzales, Tex.—Mrs. Minnie Philpot, of this place, writes: "Five years ago I was taken with a pain in my left side. It was right under my left rib. It would commence with an aching and extend up into my left shoulder and on down into my back."

One day a Birthday Almanac was thrown in my yard. After reading its testimonials I decided to try Cardui, and am so thankful that I did, for I began to improve when on the second bottle.

LIFT OFF CORNS!

Apply few drops then lift sore, touchy corns off with fingers

A tiny bottle of Freezone costs but a few cents at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.

Freezone is the sensational discovery of a Cincinnati genius. It is wonderful.

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little Freezone on the aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then you lift it right out. Yes, magic!

parties whose names are hereto subscribed, all of full age, who declare that, availing themselves of the provisions of the laws of the State of Louisiana, relative to corporations, they have covenanted and agreed, and by these presents, covenant and agree, and bind themselves, as well as such other persons as may hereafter become associated with them, to perform and constitute a corporation, and body politic in law, for the purposes and objects, and under the stipulations, articles and conditions following, to-wit:

ARTICLE I. The name and title of said corporation shall be "National Trading Company, Incorporated."

and its domicile is hereby established at Covington, State of Louisiana; and under its corporate name, the said corporation shall have power and authority to contract, sue and be sued; to make and use a corporate seal, and the same to break and alter at pleasure.

Said corporation, unless sooner dissolved in accordance with the stipulations of this charter, shall exist and continue to have succession for a period of ninety-nine (99) years from date hereof.

ARTICLE II. The objects and purposes for which this corporation is organized, and the nature of the business to be carried on by it, are declared to be the following, to-wit:

To purchase and sell lands and timber, and to engage in any enterprise in any wise connected with, or relating to the land and timber business, including the milling and transportation of timber; to sell and export lumber, lumber and all forest products; to build, repair and dock vessels; to acquire, own and operate and to charter or lease, and to sell vessels of every description; to construct, own, operate docks, wharves and warehouses; to buy, have, own, and sell steel, iron and ore; to hold, receive, hire, purchase, lease, sublease, sell, convey or exchange property, both real and personal, and to mortgage and hypothecate the same; to borrow or lend money; to appoint managers, officers, agents and employees in the State of Louisiana and foreign states, as its interests may require; to do and perform all other things requisite, necessary or convenient to enable it to carry out the objects and purposes above set forth.

ARTICLE III. The capital stock of said corporation shall be Twenty Thousand ($20,000) Dollars, divided into and represented by Four Hundred (400) shares of the par value of Fifty (50) Dollars each, which said stock shall be paid for in cash, or the same may be issued, at not less than par, in payment or exchange for property or rights actually received or purchased by said corporation, or the same may be issued, full paid, for money advanced, and for such other valuable considerations or services as the Board of Directors of said corporation may determine.

ARTICLE IV. The corporate powers of this corporation shall be vested in its Board of Directors, to be composed of not less than three nor more than ten, but may be fixed within those limits, all of whom shall be stockholders of this corporation. Said Board of Directors shall be elected annually by the stockholders on the first Tuesday of October in each and every year, which annual meeting of the stockholders shall be held at the office of the company, in Covington, Louisiana, of which meeting notice shall be given at least fifteen (15) days continuous publication immediately preceding such election in a paper published in the Town of Covington, Louisiana, or by ten (10) days written notice to each stockholder. The first election hereunder shall be held on the first Tuesday of October, 1920, until which time the following persons shall be and constitute the Board of Directors of this company, to-wit: John P. Rausch, Ernest J. Domergue and Harry A. Black.

A majority of the members of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and their decisions shall be valid corporate acts.

At each annual meeting of the Board of Directors, hold on the first Tuesday of October, 1919, and annually thereafter, the said board shall elect from among its number a president, who may also be the treasurer of said corporation; a vice-president, a secretary and such other officers as may be necessary, and the said officers shall hold office for one year, or until their successors are elected. Until the first election, the following are declared to be the officers of this corporation, to-wit: John P. Rausch, president and treasurer; E. J. Domergue, vice-president, and Harry A. Black, secretary.

Any failure from any cause whatever to elect directors on the date named for that purpose shall not dissolve this corporation, but the directors then in office, as well as the officers of this company, shall hold over until their successors are chosen. In such event the president shall cause another election to be held in thirty (30) days, and shall give notice thereof as above provided.

During the absence of the president the vice-president shall act and preside. At every election and meeting each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock registered in his name, and may vote by proxy. The election of directors shall be by ballot, and a majority in amount of votes cast, each share of stock voted upon to be counted for one vote, shall elect the person or persons for whom they have been cast.

ARTICLE V. It shall be lawful for the stockholders of this corporation, at a general meeting convened for that purpose, to make any modifications, additions or changes in this act of incorporation, or to dissolve it with the assent of three-fourths of the stock represented at such meetings. Notice of such meeting shall be given as prescribed in Article IV hereof for the election of directors.

ARTICLE VI. No stockholders of this corporation shall ever be held liable or responsible for the contracts or faults thereof in any further sum than the unpaid balance due the company on the shares of stock subscribed for or owned by him, nor shall any informality in organization have the effect of rendering this charter null, or of exposing a stockholder to any liability beyond the unpaid balance, if any, of his stock.

ARTICLE VII. In case of dissolution or termination of this corporation, either by limitation of its charter or from any other cause, the liquidation of its affairs shall be conducted by three (3) liquidators selected from the stockholders of the company by a majority of the votes cast at a meeting called for that purpose after notice shall have been given, as provided in Article IV hereof for the election of directors. Said liquidators shall remain in office until the affairs of the said corporation have been fully liquidated. In case of the death of one or more of said liquidators, the survivor or survivors shall continue to act.
