St. Tammany Farmer

D. H. MASON Editor and Proprietor
Entered at the Covington postoffice as Second-Class Matter

GREETINGS TO OUR READERS.

The St. Tammany Farmer wishes its readers a Merry Christmas and a Prosperous New Year. The scarcity of paper makes it inadvisable to issue the kind of holiday edition we would like to give our readers, and we are passing up two or three hundred dollars worth of business we could have had.

Let us hope that the year 1920 will give us some relief from the difficulties standing in the way of the immense business that is crying out for opportunity. Congress soon must take some action that will give relief from combines and profiteering. Politics are all right in a way—but politics are now too much in the way. Patience has its limits.

JOHN L. HALLER.

In retiring from the head of the Red Cross of St. Tammany parish Mr. John L. Haller closes a very active career in war service. Probably no man among us has given more time and money to the various undertakings made necessary by conditions arising from the war. Especially is this true of his work for the Red Cross. Mr. Haller may feel that he has earned public approval and appreciation.

THE INVASION.

When the Stubbs forces invaded Slidell, As reported in the Daily States, Stubbs supporters must have run like hell, For as C. M. Liddle the story relates But five Slidell men heard the debates From Covington four Three speakers galore, Making twelve men in all, A real chilly hall, An up-the-stump hall A very poor haul For Stubbs By Gubbs.

PRECIOUS MOMENTS WASTED.

Mrs. Slumm—They're not going to have the Christmas tree at the church tonight. Not till next Friday night, Jimmie! Jimmie—Gosh! Will I have to wash me hands agin nex' week, too?

Get your Christmas Turkeys at L. Levy's Monroe and 21st Street.

Hon. C. M. Liddle, of Slidell, was a business visitor to Covington last Wednesday.
