IN MEMORIAM.

(Composed by Mrs. C. H. Sheffield)

A tribute of loving remembrance to our beloved friend, Elmira LeBlanc who departed this life on Saturday August 28, 1920.

Dear Elmira,
Ye birds that sing a joyous song
Sing ye of dear Elmira,
A form more fair, a face more sweet
Had none than dear Elmira,
Ye roses, violets, lilies, daisies,
All come and join and sing your praises.

And every pansy at our feet
Will join and this tale repeat.
She was as lovely as a rose,
With hair that was so fair
And her smile was like sunshine
With never a shadow there.

Now in that land of pure delight
Where saints immortal reign,
With grace, sweet grace celestial,
Does dear Elmira reign.
And we'll think of her as the roses
blow,
And the song birds sing so soft and low.

ESCAIG-STRAIN.

Solemnization of the wedding of Miss Edna Strain, of Abita Springs, to Mr. Louis Escalg, of New Orleans, took place Tuesday morning at 5:45 o'clock in Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church of Abita Springs. Rev. O. W. Leucke officiating.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Strain, was becomingly dressed in a blue crepe de chine traveling dress, and carried a handsome bouquet of tube roses. He sole attendant was her twin sister, Miss Lydia Strain, who wore a tasteful brown georgette crepe dress. The bride, on the arm of her father, entered to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by Charles Bazajou, violinist, accompanied by the organ. The greater part of the ceremony was intoned by violin and organ, playing a selection from Hearts and Flowers. The Recessional was played during the signing of the register and while the large gathering of friends came forward to shower the bride and groom with felicitations. Friends accompanied the couple to the depot where amidst showers of rice the happy pair took leave for New Orleans, their future home.

Washington, Sept. 8.—The Federal quarantine for cattle-fever tick has been replaced on the parishes of Beauregard, Caldwell, Grant, Jackson, Winn, Red River, Union, Franklin, Pointe Coupe, and Washington, in Louisiana, and Ouachita County, Arkansas, by order of the United States Department of Agriculture, effective September 15, 1920. The effect of the quarantine is that cattle can not be shipped inter-state from these regions except under the regulations promulgated by the Secretary of Agriculture.

The first five parishes named were released from quarantine on December 1, 1918, and the remaining four parishes named and Ouachita County were released December 1, 1917, but the cattle men and local authorities in these regions have failed to co-operate in the "mopping-up" work and ticks have multiplied until they now constitute a menace to near-by parishes and counties that are tick-free or that are eradicating ticks.

QUARANTINE PARTS OF LOUISIANA AND ARKANSAS AGAINST THE CATTLE TICK.

Cattle Men and Local Authorities Fail to Co-operate in Clean-Up Activities.

All other released regions in Louisiana and Arkansas are doing satisfactory "mopping-up" work, and it is believed that no other replacement of quarantine will be found necessary.

MADISONVILLE DEFEATS ALCO'S.

In a very interesting game last Sunday Madisonville defeated the Alco's by a score of 3 to 1. The feature of the game was the pitching of "Speck" Ragan, he striking out eight batsmen and allowing but two hits. On two different occasions he pulled himself out of the hole when there were three men on bases and only one man down. The batteries were: Alco's, Bing and Schurman; Madisonville, Ragan and Stein.

BUILDING ORDINANCE.

Be it ordained that hereafter it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to erect, build or cause to be built within the corporate limits of the town of Covington, any building, shed or structure of whatsoever nature without a permit from this board, provided that repairs to existing buildings to cost not more than $25.00, and that do not include a water closet, shall be legal without a permit.

2. Applicants shall state in writing the nature and location of the building, the purposes for which it is intended, whether or not a water closet is to be included, and the contract price.

3. If the proposed ventilation, sewerage, water and fire hazards meet ordinary requirements, a permit, revocable for cause, shall be issued. The fee for permits is fixed at 50 cents for every $500.00 of the contract price, or fraction thereof, provided that the maximum fee shall not exceed two ($2) dollars.

4. It shall be unlawful to allow any undue accumulation of waste, or to permit water to stagnate, or to commit any other unlawful act that would encourage the breeding of rats or disease germs or mosquitoes during the progress of the building.

5. It shall be unlawful for the holder of a permit to alter the buildings plans for which a permit was issued without the approval of this board.

6. The penalty for violation of any provision of this ordinance shall be a fine of $10 to $25 or imprisonment for not more than 30 days, or both, at the discretion of any competent court of jurisdiction.

Adopted Sept. 7, 1920.

ORDINANCE SEGREGATING CONSUMPTIVES.

Be it ordained that after October 1, 1920, it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to house for pay any consumptive within 1500 feet of the parish court building, nearest measurements.

2. Consumptives or attendants who knowingly misrepresent the disease in order to secure housing shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and be liable to the penalties provided hereunder.

3. It shall be the duty of any person who knowingly houses a consumptive to notify this board as soon as the truth is revealed, and to remove the patient as soon as consistent with safety to the patient.

4. It shall be obligatory upon any person or persons within the restricted zone who shall house a person having a persistent cough and fever, and who is emaciated, to consider such person a suspect, and to immediately report to this board.

5. This ordinance shall not infringe the housing of consumptives in private homes, provided that there is no compensation therefor; nor the use of offices or business places not used as living apartments, but the occupants and owners of such places shall be amenable to all other health ordinances.

6. Any regulation conflicting with this ordinance is hereby repealed.

7. The penalty for violation of any provision of this ordinance shall be a fine of $10 to $25, or imprisonment for not more than 30 days, or both, at the discretion of any competent court of jurisdiction.

Adopted Sept. 7, 1920.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Inasmuch as we have received numerous complaints of late as to the water service, and upon investigation of these complaints have frequently found the trouble to be caused by the neglect of leaky faucets, baths, etc., we make this appeal to the public with the object of obtaining their co-operation in order to improve the water service.

REPAIR YOUR LEAKY FAUCETS. DON'T LET THE WATER RUN TO WASTE, and help us to give good service.
