THE MERINO SHEEP.

Baton Rouge, La., Sept. 15.—Only within the last week or two has the wool market shown any signs of revival. The indications are that the finer wools will be the ones most easily sold. There has been a greater tendency than for many years in Texas and the range states to use Rambouillet and Delaine Merino rams this season. It is likely that finer wool will be in more favor from now on for American use.

I believe the Louisiana sheep owner should make a point to produce nothing coarser than 3-8. Our 1-4 blood wool will sell slow this year, and very likely for several years unless wool shortage shows up on account of general discouragement over wool prices.

Fine Delaine and half-blood wool is going to sell more easily and at a much higher price than 3-8. On account of the general neglect of the Merino breeds (now much improved) Louisiana has no fine wool to offer.

The Merino is a hardier sheep under our conditions than any of the Down breeds; the Merino shears a much heavier clip and a fine quality the market demands. It seems very regrettable that our farmers have so generally tabooed the Merino. Three Delaine Merinos owned by L. Simpson, of Lincoln parish, have done unusually well.

Two years ago there was a movement on foot in St. Tammany parish to get a few new rams. If even two pure bred Delaines had been bought then, now we would have a good start of half blood ewes and bucks too if we cared to use them. February is a good time to bring down rams; they come off dry feed up North and get to our first spring grass. At that season young rams can be bought as low as $35. Isn't there a farmer or two in St. Tammany parish who could see the advantage of starting us off with some Delaine Merino blood? Texas is getting them by the carload.

If we expect to stay in the wool business, a little outlay for a fine Delaine Merino ram right now may make a great difference in the way the wool market looks at our wool two years from now.
Yours truly,
G. P. WILLIAMS,
Extension Sheep Specialist.

DECIDE YOURSELF.

The Opportunity Is Here, Backed By Covington Testimony.

Don't take our word for it. Don't depend on a stranger's statement. Read Covington endorsement. Read the statements of Covington citizens. And decide for yourself. Here is one case of it. Ask your neighbor!

E. E. Dutsch, Florida and First streets, Covington, says: "My back became lame quite suddenly and often twitched something awful. My kidneys were weak and disordered, and whenever I caught a cold it was sure to settle on my kidneys. I began to use Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at the City Drug Store, and they helped me very quickly. When I used about a box of them I was entirely cured of the trouble and my kidneys acted perfectly normal again. I have never had the least sign of the trouble since and I am confident Doan's do all that is claimed for them."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—lot Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Dutsch had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Inasmuch as we have received numerous complaints of late as to the water service, and upon investigation of these complaints have frequently found the trouble to be caused by the neglect of leaky faucets, baths, etc., we make this appeal to the public with the object of obtaining their co-operation in order to improve the water service. REPAIR YOUR LEAKY FAUCETS. DON'T LET THE WATER RUN TO WASTE, and help us to give good service.

Respectfully,
