IT CAN'T BE DONE.

The slogan, "It can't be done," would lock any man within the narrow confines of impossibilities all his life. It would shut out the light of progress from any community. It would leave the ripened wheat to be gathered with a sickle and push the flivver into the eternal and everlasting future. Yet this is the slogan that gets nearest to the heart of a great many people. The overcoming of difficulties, the solving of hard problems and the sacrifices that must be made in doing the extraordinary things of life do not appeal to the average man, and the great accomplishments of human endeavor result from the imagination and vision of some one who is a crank until he becomes a success. Then he is a genius or a great man.

We believe investigation would show that every city that has become great was started on its road to success by one or a very few men. And some of these cities had no more natural advantages than Covington has to-day.

If every man and woman in Covington would say, "It shall be a greater city," and pledge their energy to its growth, to administrative support, sanitation, beautification and enforcement of laws, and would cheerfully give such financial assistance to good movements as they could afford, not only would they be astonished by the growth of the town, but they would realize greater individual prosperity through the new opportunities afforded.

The following clipping from a daily paper will illustrate this. It is a good lesson for those who are inclined to believe it can't be done:

"The town of Warrenton, which has only 927 population by this year's census, holds the North Carolina record for 'owning itself.' The assessed value of its property is $1,800,000. Some thirty-five years ago it built a railway three miles long connecting it with Warren Plains on the Seaboard Air Line, and has ever since operated the road, which gives the town an average net profit above all expenses of $2,000 a year.

"The town owns a water plant and sewerage system which cost $112,000; an ice plant of forty tons daily capacity, with a cold storage section; a power and light plant which cost $40,000, and is building a $120,000 hotel, with laundry, bakery and refrigerating plant. Recently a $100,000 bond issue for a public school building was voted and this will be in readiness for the autumn opening of the schools next year. The women voters, who put through the school bond issue in very handsome style, will now take steps to have a laundry built by the town, this also to be ready in 1921."

CHARTER OF THE COVINGTON MOSS & MATTRESS WORKS, INC.

Miss clerks, managers and other employees of the corporation as the interests and business of same may require; any of the Directors shall have the right to appoint, by written instrument, another Director as his proxy, to act in his stead, at any and all meetings of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VI.
Until the election of officers to be held the first Monday in January, 1921, the following named persons shall constitute the first Board of Directors:

George H. Koepf, postoffice Ramsay, Louisiana,
John J. Posey, postoffice Covington Louisiana,
Frederick L. Alexander, postoffice Covington, Louisiana, with George H. Koepf as president; John J. Posey as vice-president, and Frederick L. Alexander as secretary-treasurer.

ARTICLE VII.
No stockholder shall be liable or responsible for the contracts, faults and debts of said corporation, nor shall any mere informality in its organization have the effect of rendering this charter null or of exposing a stockholder to any liability beyond the unpaid balance due on the shares owned by him.

ARTICLE VIII.

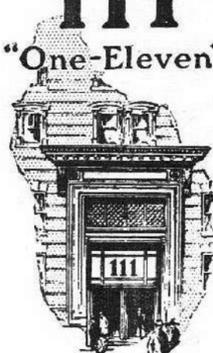

This Act of Incorporation may be changed, modified or altered, or this corporation may be dissolved with the assent of the stockholders, owning two-thirds of the stock of the corporation, at a general meeting convened for that purpose, and after at least fifteen (15) days written notice of the meeting having been given through mail, addressed to each stockholder, at his last known place of residence.

In case of dissolution by the expiration of this charter, or otherwise, the stockholders shall elect two (2) liquidators from among their number, to liquidate and settle the business and affairs of the corporation. In case of disability of any of the said commissioners or liquidators the survivors or the remaining liquidators, shall appoint a successor to him.

Thus done and passed at my office on the day, month and year first above written, in the presence of Gable Boudousquie and Cecile Warren, competent witnesses, who have signed with said appearers and me, said Notary, after reading of the whole.

Original signed:
George H. Koepf, Ramsay, Louisiana, 320 shares.
Frederick L. Alexander, Covington, Louisiana, 31 shares.
John J. Posey, Covington, Louisiana, 16 shares.

IT TAKES THE STARCH OUT OF A FELLOW.
Working Hard Every Day Without Let-Up Wears You Out in Time.

SOMETIMES YOU NEED A TONIC
Pepto-Mangan Makes Rich Red Blood and Lifts You Out of Bad-Health Ruts.

There are days when you feel downright sick. You think you couldn't feel any worse. Yet, as far as you know, there's nothing the matter with you. From the time you get up in the morning till you go to bed at night you are tired. You feel as though you'd like to sit down and do nothing. You look tired and pale and haggard. You get careless about your dress.

No wonder! Your blood is all clogged up with poison. Your power of resistance is at a low ebb. Your blood needs food. It needs the help that the vitalizing tonic, Pepto-Mangan, will give it. Instead of feeling exhausted and tired out for months, you will soon pick right up and feel well and strong again. And with good red blood you are able to fight off ailments.

Pepto-Mangan is widely and heartily endorsed by physicians. It is effective and easy to take. It is prepared in both liquid and tablet form, and you can take one or the other and receive the same benefits.

Sold at any drug store. But be sure you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan—"Gude's." Ask for it by the full name and be sure the full name, "Gude's Pepto-Mangan," is on the package.—Advertisement.
