YOU CAN'T BUILD A HOME WITH RENT RECEIPTS

LIVING IN A "HOUSE" DETRACTS FROM THE PLEASURE OF LIVING, WHILE A HOME OF YOUR OWN MAKES LIFE MORE WORTH WHILE.

A HOME OF YOUR OWN HAS MANY ADVANTAGES. OWNING YOUR HOME GIVES YOU A REAL INTEREST IN YOUR COMMUNITY. IT GIVES YOU A FEELING OF CONFIDENCE, A FREEDOM FROM WORRY ABOUT THE FUTURE.

The foolishness of "I can always earn enough to pay my rent" has been proven many times. You do not know what the future holds for you, and owning your own home is one of the ways of preparing for the future.

Many people hesitate to buy their homes "on account of the taxes." This is foolish, for the taxes are small. They amount to only a small percentage of the rent you would otherwise pay.

How a Savings Account Helps

A SAVINGS ACCOUNT IS A GREAT HELP TOWARD SAVING FOR THE NECESSARY "FIRST PAYMENT." ADD TO A SAVINGS ACCOUNT REGULARLY AND YOU WILL SOON HAVE ENOUGH TO START BUYING THE HOME YOU WANT.

MANY PEOPLE FIND A SAVINGS ACCOUNT A CONVENIENCE IN PAYING TAXES. SUPPOSE THE TAX ON YOUR HOME IS $60.00 A YEAR. BY DEPOSITING $5.00 A MONTH, YOU CAN EASILY SAVE THE $60.00 WITHOUT INCONVENIENCE.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES.

Last Sunday's services were well attended at Lewisburg and Mandeville and excellent attendance and interest in the Covington Sunday School was reported.

We are delighted to find folks in this fine climate so loyal to their church, who won't let little weather changes interfere with His business, appreciating the fact that our Lord's work should be given first place. A few years ago we were greeted by a crowded house (it was a big church, too) every night for a week, while the thermometer registered from 20 to 25 degrees below zero! (Selah)

The "Little Missionary" carried a load of us to the Washington Birthday church entertainment at Mandeville, last Sunday night. There was a full house and the whole affair was a great success. These red-blooded Americans are doing things and will soon have a church every one will be proud of.

Remember, we preach at Covington at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., this Sunday, Feb. 27. Our regular order of worship will be followed at the morning hour and there will be special music at night. 9:30 a. m., Sunday School.

Sunday, Feb. 27, at 3:30 p. m., there will be services at Folsom.

All our Covington churches are planning to help make the lecture "America as Leader in the Campaign for a Dry World," by Dr. George A. Henry, at the School Auditorium, March 8th, a great success.

L. R. SPARKS, Pastor.

Mr. E. R. Cassidy, of Bogalusa, La., was a visitor here Wednesday.

Mrs. H. G. Menetre and Mrs. Ralph Menetre were New Orleans visitors Thursday.

A GOOD WOMAN'S LOVE.

(By Prof. Roland Morgan)
 There's nothing on earth or in heaven above
 More precious to man than a good woman's love.
 One kind word, a glance of her eyes,
 Bids the coward behave, the despondent arise;
 She will ever stand beside you
 To comfort or to guide you;
 When sickness or misfortune overtake you
 She's the friend that won't forsake you.
 Her pure sweet face will wear a smile,
 Though her heart is breaking 'all the while.
 Hunger, cold and sorrow she'll bear,
 Bidding you hope when your heart would despair;
 The love in her heart never ceases to burn,
 The false friendship in scorn aways from you turn,
 Kind, tender, loving, faithful and brave,
 Only parting from you in death at the grave.
 There's nothing in science or craftsman's art
 Can measure the love of a pure woman's heart.
 'Tis a gift to man from angels in Heaven above—
 This priceless treasure—a good woman's love.

MADISONVILLE MOVIES FROM REAL LIFE.

(By Prof. Roland Morgan.)
 I got a valentine from some sweet lil honey gal in Covington, but Oh, shux, she didn't sign her name and love verses without senders' name is like having Worcester sauce and no meat. Write again, Jo.

Wildwood's lumble bee froze to death Saturday night—a fitting end for all flatterers.

Beware, g'ris! He Vamps, you can tell 'em easy.

Last Saturday while waiting for the mail to open I caught a nice bunch of fish in that pond on the sidewalk. A franchise should be let for a ferry on this sidewalk. Ah, Mr. Editor, I told you so. Get busy.
 Mr. Editor, I was told if you are pretty when you are young you get ugly when you grow older. Now, if dem is facts, dair sho muster bin er epperdimick er ugly babies in Covington er about 18 years ago, judging from all dem pretty girls I seed up there last Sunday, en I couldn't see all of them cause I couldn't bet at der postoffice, der ralerod depo and der church all at onced. Never mind, I'm coming back and bring my friend to help me see them all.

I am a birdologist and for the benefit of my inexperienced friends contemplating securing young mocking birds to cage, give below a safe method to distinguish male from female as female doesn't sing in cage. Watch closely now. It male jumps up and eats first that is the male, and if the female jumps up and eats first, why that's the female. Simple, isn't it.

Spring must be close now. Saw a beautiful cow-slip on a banana peel and a daisy girl with a peach-bloom complexion, violet eyes, and roses in her cheeks.

Dear Reader, if my dope ain't all you expect don't be hard on me. I had so much trouble last week. I got a shave Saturday morning and that cold snap came on and my beard was frost-bitten and I got rheumatism in my chin and it went up and settled in my think tank—lots of room there for something to settle. Then my horse stood all night in the rain and died next morning from a complication of floating kidneys and water on the brain and I went out to buy me a good family mule and right there, beloved brothers and sisters, I got trouble, a double dose, thirty-third degree, when a fellow sold me a glass-eyed, rubber-lipped, whale-bone head, son-of-Satan, and told me he guaranteed him to be a family mule. O, boy! he was a family mule, all right. It took the whole family and two big nigger women to get him in the stable. The first day I had him he kicked me 47 times with his front feet. I could not count his hind legs, but they sounded like a machine-gun gone crazy. The only way I could get close enough to that mule to put a bridle on him, I had to blind-fold him and was making a noise like a hole of hay sneak up on his deaf side. I thought I'd work him yesterday, but I didn't, he worked me. Whenever I let him out of the stable the only way to catch him again is to set traps for him. He is so tough lightning struck him and he got mad and kicked that lightning back up in the air like a sky-rocket. I hitched him to a rubber-tired run-about and he run about 40 yards and kicked that run-about in about 40 million pieces in about ten seconds. The reason I bought that ungrateful critter was that I got stuck on his beautiful color. He was a greivous brown with large unfortunate colored spot in his forehead, front fore legs a light holiday red, hind legs disagreeable white, his mane and tail miserable yellow, spurs on his hind legs like a rooster. The reason that mule kicked me the first morning I had him was being used to a Ford car, and absent minded, went in the stable and poured gasoline in his car to prime him and grabbed his tail and started to crank him up. Now he always starts kicking as soon as he sees me coming, so I wout prime and crank him. Whenever I let this mule out the town marshal makes me hang a red flag on him in day-time and red lantern at night as danger signals. That mule could kick the sweetening out of a ginger-snap and dare the crust to move. His pedigree shows him half brother to satan and first cousin to a pilot-driver. There is more hell in that mule than in a barrel of white lightning. He is simply hell with a hide on. He is so contrary he has kinks in his tail and his hair grows backwards. A hornet stung him one day and in kicking at the hornet he kicked himself in the head and knocked himself unconscious. I found him lying there and started to dig a hole to bury him and he regained consciousness and kicked me in the hole and pawed the dirt on top of me and stomped it down. The fellow I got him from told me his christening name was "Surprise," but I find him a sad disappointment and poor investment. I want to sell him now as I can't keep up my insurance policy any longer. Prospective suicides, here is your opportunity. Address any offers to Mule, Box 453, Madisonville, La. Amen.
