

DON'T YOU NEED SHOES & HOSE?

WITHIN THE LAST YEAR THE "SHOE BUSINESS" HAS UNDERGONE A GREAT CHANGE. SHOES ARE NO LONGER A THING OF UTILITY, BUT OF "ORNAMENT." THE SHOE BUSINESS HAS REDUCED ITSELF TO HAVING "MILLINERY" FOR THE FEET.

THIS MAKES IT ALL THE MORE IMPERATIVE THAT YOU COME TO THE "STYLE STORE" FOR YOUR SHOES.

OUR HOSIERY DEPARTMENT IS AS BRIGHT AS A FLOWER GARDEN, AND "OUR" HOSE IS LONG WEARING AS WELL AS FINE APPEARING.

WE CAN "SHOE" AND "HOSE" EVERY MEMBER OF THE HOUSEHOLD FROM BABY UP. COME IN AND LET US DO IT.

HOW A TICKET AGENT'S "THANK YOU" WON THE DAY FOR Y. AND M. V. EMPLOYEES.

thousand and one other things that passengers want to know, his services are invaluable to the railway. Other employees might be mentioned, but those will suffice. Frequently patrons, for one reason and another, become irritated over seemingly trivial matters. In dealing with this class it is important that every employee remember that "a sort answer turneth away wrath."

The Baton Rouge gathering of friends might have been a failure for the employees of the Y. & M. V. Railroad Company, and the management, too, had it not been for the "Thank you" of the New Orleans ticket agent. With that "Thank you" the ticket agent won Mrs. Doherty, and with the same "Thank you" she won the gathering to her position that the employees of the Y. & M. V. are courteous to the public.

A "Thank you" uttered with the right inflection of voice by a railway employee travels swift, far, and wide. It goes without saying that if every employee of the Illinois Central System would say "thank you" to a patron every time he or she has the opportunity, it would add increased strength and popularity to the railway.

It is true that most of the employees of the Illinois Central System are courteous to the public, but it may also be true that they could be more courteous. Employees affect different standards of courtesy. There are those who are passively courteous, those who are actively courteous, and those who practice their courtesy in between the two extremes—those who do not say "Thank you" often enough.

How many of our ticket agents, gatemen, conductors, brakemen, engineers, firemen, section foremen, officers and employees generally will agree to say "Thank you" to patrons every time the opportunity is presented, and endeavor to make a few opportunities just for the privilege of saying those two effective words? The writer believes that every one who reads this story will respond to this question with a vigorous "I will."

ALL LOUISIANA HEALTH WEEK FOR NEGROES.

Thursday, April 7th, is Tuberculosis Day in Health Week. Even one whole day is very little to give to this matter of tuberculosis.

In Louisiana there are seven hundred thousand colored people. In 1919 nearly seventeen hundred of them died of tuberculosis, or consumption. Because we negroes have not been able to get information, and because we often did not make use of the information we did get, this disease is spreading among the people of our race. It must stop.

There is hardly one of us that has not a relative or a friend die of this disease. See the long weeks and months people have to suffer—unable to support themselves or their families because of it.

For every person who dies of tuberculosis there are nine living people who have it. That means there are nearly twenty thousand negroes in Louisiana who have it. Many who have it don't even know it. Sometimes they feel weak and tired, they lose their appetites, fall off in weight and have other complaints, but they never think that those are many times caused by tuberculosis starting in its dreadful work.

Are you not willing to do something to keep yourself and your family from getting tuberculosis? Whatever you do to keep yourself strong will help others. In the same way whatever you do to help others, protects you too.

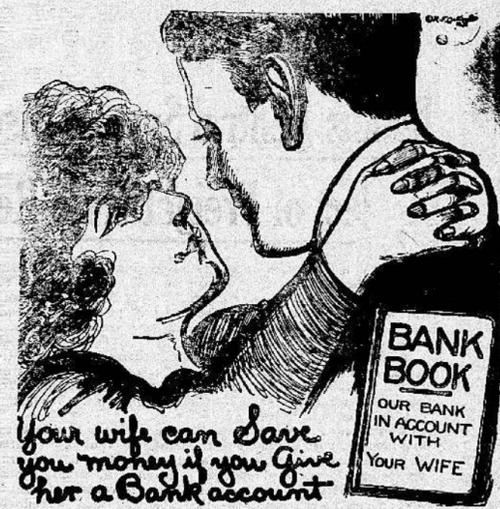

Nearly every parish in Louisiana now has an organized tuberculosis league. These are formed of white people. But they know that they cannot fight tuberculosis if the colored people do not help. Go to the secretary of your parish league and get information. Ask if they will give you something to read that will tell you just what tuberculosis is; how it spreads; how you can find out if you have it; how and when you should be examined; how and what to eat, how to sleep, work, rest and all the other things you can find out.

Every one of these parish leagues would be glad to have a committee of colored citizens to help with the work of fighting tuberculosis among the negroes.

Don't sit back waiting for the other fellow to get first. You start. The others will follow.

A sanatorium for tuberculosis negroes was opened in Shreveport the first of the year. It was started by the Shreveport Tuberculosis League—white people. We must help them.

Mrs. Moyses Anderson, a trained colored nurse, is in charge. This is the first place in Louisiana to be opened for negro consumptives, and Mrs. Anderson is the first colored sanatorium superintendent in the State.

We colored people all over the State must help her because we must have some place to which we can send some of the tuberculosis negroes for care, so that they may get well and earn a living for their families. And if this sanatorium (mini-you, the only one in the State for negroes) is to be able to take patients from outside of Shreveport then the rest of the State must help.

Negro Health Week is close at hand. Every day of it should be made to count for something in learning how to improve the condition of our homes, our health, our surroundings.

This article is to call your special attention to Tuberculosis Day. On that day there should be a talk in every negro school room; in every negro church, lodge, club or other organization, by some one who can tell us something about this dreadful plague.

Get busy with your local committee. Go to your pastor and find out who has charge of Tuberculosis Day in your community. Then help make a program.

Get the doctors to give talks in the daytime to the children; at night to the grown folks who could not get out during the day. Go to the president or the secretary of the parish tuberculosis league and ask them to co-operate. The State League is helping all it can.

Surely in Louisiana we are not going to sit down and say "aw, it's too much trouble." Or "I ain't got the time." Take the time. It may save you weeks or months time by helping to prevent tuberculosis.

Remember, you may feel well and strong to-day, but even so, tuberculosis moves quietly, but sometimes swiftly, and who knows, but he or she may be the next to have to go.

HON. O. H. SHOUP

Governor of State of Colorado, says:

"Most Americans are good earners; only a few are good savers. To be a money-maker may be a gift, but to be thrifty requires special effort on the part of most of us. If success is worth anything it is worth the sacrifice of a few pleasures. 'SPENT' dollars never draw interest."
