THE COMMUNITY KITCHEN.

When I came here as your Home Demonstration Agent I found that there was no demonstration kitchen in town so after discussing the matter with several we finally arrived at the conclusion that the Community House would be the place for a kitchen that would be of service to the whole town in a number of ways.
The people gave money for the cause readily and I am now publishing the amount received on this kitchen, who from, and just how the amount received was spent. I ask that any time you can call and look over the kitchen.
Respectfully,
MRS. W. J. DAVIS,
Home Demonstration Agent.

CO-OPERATIVE FARMERS FAIL TO GET AGENTS BACK

The town of Covington and the St. Tammany Ice & Manufacturing Company have just signed up a new five-year contract. While this may have a very simple sound, it means much to the people of Covington as well as to the lighting company.
During the war public utility companies all over the United States had a hard time of it. High cost of labor and material fixed a price on profitable service that made the public dollar look like fifty cents. Then came the thrift campaign and the "save-the-penny" slogan that made lights go out early and brought shoe leather into competition with street railways. The public could economize, but some of the public utilities had reached the bottom of economy and there was a loud cry for assistance from the Government.
The St. Tammany Ice & Manufacturing Company held a franchise from Covington and under its contract could not raise the rates to the town. On the other hand, it did not raise its rates to the general public because it had mapped out reconstructive plans for a service that would place Covington in the front ranks of the up-to-date towns of the state. But to accomplish this object required the installation of new machinery and equipment at a cost that was almost prohibitive in view of the returns for service, unless the field could be extended. In the face of this came the question of the extension of the franchise with the chairman, Chas. H. Sheffield, A. R.
Smith and consistent co-operation of the town and company worked out a plan that will conserve public interests and at the same time enable the company to develop a profitable service.
The committee appointed by the town council to work out this problem is to be commended for its energy, for its broad and liberal policy and for the thoroughness with which it entered into all the details associated with a contract of this kind.
It is composed of C. E. Schonberg, chairman, Chas. H. Sheffield, A. R.
Smith. Its investigations included a compilation of statistics relative to franchises in various towns of the state and a personal visit to Hammond. All facts in the case were traced and sifted out in their bearings upon the cost, conditions and field here, and in working out their adaptation to Covington, Mr. Frederick and Mr. Planche laid all the cards face up on the table and played the game fair and squarely. The result is a contract that will give the public electricity at from 16 to 25 per cent cheaper than under the old franchise, with a decreased minimum rate for business places and the canceling of the moon-light schedule.
Mr. C. E. Schonberg, chairman of the committee, is especially entitled to credit and thanks for the time and hard work he has devoted to accomplishing these results, and the public will no doubt appreciate the liberality and fairness with which Mr.
Frederick and Mr. Planche met the suggestions of the committee. It is also worthy of comment to note that the St. Tammany Ice & Manufacturing Company is widening its field by taking in the towns of Mandeville, Madisonville and Abita Springs, and that by improvement in its equipment and extension of its service will soon be in a position to make the use of electricity profitable in the domestic service of the household as well as for power for the manufacturer. It has so many uses, from running the sewing machine to cooking the dinner, that cost of production is the only thing that stands between it and general use.
The town council has accomplished many things for Covington not visible to the untrained. On a much reduced revenue, it is clearing away old debts, meeting current expenses and keeping the town morally clean as far as possible. The mayor has impartially enforced the law in his court and is using what

It was hoped that the Police Jury would see its way clear to continuing the work of the farm and club agents at its meeting last Tuesday, but the only members who voted for it were Theo. Dendinger, Jr., Emile Burkenstock and H. N. Fenderson.
Mr. Hopwe, chairman, did not vote but he stated he was in favor of it and would try to get a reconsideration of the vote at the afternoon session, but nothing came of it.
Dr. Wilkinson, Agent for the Southern District of the State, made a very strong plea for the work.
Miss Flavia Gleason, district home demonstration agent, pleaded earnestly for it and afterwards wept tears of disappointment. Mrs. J. C. Burns in addressing the members stated that she represented 97 women voters who were all anxious for the work to continue. Mrs. J. D. Mc-Lain, of Polson, and Mrs. Frank Dulsch, of Waldheim, came with petitions and requests for keeping up the work. Mr. U. G. Neuhauer, of Sildell, spoke earnestly in support of the work. Mr. Galloway and a large number from the second ward were strong supporters, and there were many outside who could not get into the Police Jury room who listened anxiously in the hope that the tide would turn and that favorable action would finally be taken.
Postmaster Seller announced that Judge Carter had offered to adjourn court to another room so the court room could be used to admit all to a hearing of the proceedings, but no action was taken on this suggestion.
The club and farm agents, Mrs. Davis and Mr. Bachemin, both spoke, and Mr. Bachemin stated that if his work was not satisfactory he would resign, but asked that the work be not discontinued.
Mr. Dendinger said that he thought money enough could be raised by subscription to carry the work on until July 1, when some arrangement might be made to continue it.
It was thought that the School Board should pay for the club work. Mr.
Dendinger said he would give $50.00 and then Mr. Davis, of the Seventh Ward, said he would give $25.00.
It was finally decided by those interested to carry out the plan of public subscription. This list has been started and will be found on this page.

On the report of the Finance Committee the Police Jury has decided that the funds are not adequate to continuing the office of club and farm agents, at this time. It may be that something can be done in July. The question now is, "Can this money be raised by citizens who believe the work is absolutely necessary?" We believe it can. In support of this belief, we ask all those who are willing to contribute to send check or money order to Wm. P. Minkler, secretary of the Parish Fair Association, Covington, La. President Warner expresses the opinion that it will be almost impossible to hold a creditable fair without the help of these agents, and the farmers need them.
Following is a list of those who have announced that they will contribute. Let us put your name in that list:

CO-OPERATIVE FARMERS FAIL TO GET AGENTS BACK

THEIR 50TH WEDDING ANNI-VERSARY.
The many friends and acquaintances of Dr. and Mrs. N. M. Hebert will next Sunday, April 17, 1921, at St. Peter's Catholic Church in Covington, at 11 a. m., have the opportunity of congratulating them on the occasion of their golden wedding.
Rev. John Burger will officiate.
Covington does not often witness a golden wedding, and in this instance the ceremony will awaken more than passing interest. Dr.
Hebert is a physician of the old school and the organizer of the State Medical Society. He has endeared himself to the people of Covington, in his capacity as a physician, in his loyalty to the ethics of his profession and his sound qualities as a citizen.
He and Mrs. Hebert will receive the hearty congratulations and good wishes of all.
Dr. and Mrs. Hebert request us to announce that they will be glad to receive all their friends and acquaintances at St. Peter's Church, this to be in lieu of a formal invitation. ever power and influence he has to make the town law abiding, wholesome and clean. Altogether, municipal management has been such as to create public confidence in the future of Covington. There are many problems to be worked out, but we believe all members are working in sympathy and harmony, with the one object of doing the best that can be done for the town.

THE PARISH MEDICAL SOCIETY.
The members of the Parish Medical Society enjoyed themselves at a dinner at Gabe's Tavern last Thursday, the occasion being the regular annual luncheon. After the transaction of business, quite a number spoke. Dr. Maylie quoted Dr. N. M.
Hebert on his fiftieth wedding anniversary, which will be celebrated at St. Peter's Catholic Church Sunday.
Dr. Durel, in response, paid a glowing tribute to Dr. Hebert, calling him the Nestor of the profession.
All joined in words of congratulation and Dr. Hebert gave a very humorous picture of the physician in the pioneer days of the practice of medicine. The occasion was greatly enjoyed—the dinner also.
There were present: Judge P. B.
Carter, D. H. Mason and the following M. D.'s: N. M. Hebert, R. B.
Paine, F. R. Jones, B. B. Warren, H. D. Bulloch, H. E. Gautreaux, J. F.
Bouquet, Wallace J. Durel, F. E.
Young, Jr., A. C. Maylie.
The following resolutions were adopted: Whereas, the Almighty God in His infinite wisdom has seen fit to allow the celebration of the Golden Anniversary of Dr. and Mrs. N. M. Hebert on the 50th year of their married life.
The St. Tammany Parish Medical Society extends to Dr. and Mrs.
Hebert hearty congratulations and felicitations and expresses the sincere wish that the family will have for many more years the guidance and wisdom of these beloved parents.
Dr. Hebert, as a doctor, as a citizen and father of a family is a living example to the rank and file of the medical profession. Therefore, the Society in executive session moves that a copy of these resolutions be sent to Dr. Hebert, be printed in the minutes, a copy sent to the State Medical Journal and published in The St. Tammany Farmer.

COVINGTON PEOPLE BEHIND IN REGISTERING.

There are only 204 men and 134 women registered in Covington up to date. This is about one-third of the number who are entitled to register.
As there are only about 20 days more time in which to register to vote in the town election, it is anticipated that there will soon be a rush on the registrar's office in the courthouse.

CONVENTION OF FEDERATED WOMEN'S CLUBS

Business Is Completed and Covington Praised By Delegates.

(By Anna Morrell Smith)
The Sixth District Convention of the Federation of Women's Clubs of Louisiana was a large success.
From the time the delegates entered into the beautifully decorated Community House and were so cordially welcomed to our community by Mayor Badon and to our clubs by Mrs. Sheffield, up to the end of the program by the serving of a delicious luncheon by our two hour clubs, the sessions were instructive, uplifting and really marvelous in the presentation of the work accomplished and the work planned for the coming year.
The president of the Sixth District,
Mrs. A. G. Reed, of Baton Rouge, conducted the meeting in a most able and easy manner. Mrs. A. F. Storm, state president of the Federation, and Mrs. W. M. Lamb, state chairman of industrial and social work, were both with us. They both spoke on Wednesday night, and to those whom the inclement weather kept at home, we say that they missed a treat in not hearing these two very interesting women.
The musical numbers were beautiful. Covington has much to be proud of in the possession of considerable talent in that art. In Mrs. Unglesby and Mrs. Menetre we have two splendid accompanists, while the vocalists, Mrs. R. A. McCormack, Mr.
Donald Dunn, Miss Laurence Stevenson, Mrs. Warren Smith and Mrs. C.
M. Poole displayed their accomplishments and talents to a great advantage.
In the literary line, our district chairman on thrift, Mrs. J. C. Burns, covered herself with glory.
There were many reports from the clubs in the district which showed the diversified fields of endeavor which all of our club women have gone into and wherein they have been successful. It would take much more space than can be allotted to the subject in this paper to comment upon the entire program. Suffice it to say that there was not a moment which dragged and not a number on the program but left with the listeners some point of information and inspiration.
Our committee on arrangements, headed by Mrs. E. R. Moses, started the ball rolling in the right direction; Mr. John Haller and Mrs. H.
H. Smith gave it a good push onward when they so beautifully decorated our meeting place; our Mayor added impetus to this ball of success when he, in his big-hearted and frank manner, presented the key of the city to the ladies; Mrs. Sheffield pushed it on as spokesman for the clubs; and so it kept on and on with each speaker and each number until at the end the convention was pronounced a grand success by all, home folk and visitors alike.
adopted unanimously at the final session:
Be it resolved, That the officers and members of the Sixth District wish to express their appreciation and thanks to the Mayor of Covington for his generous welcome to the city and for the key to city during our stay; and to Mrs. Sheffield for the key to the hearts of the people, and also for the privilege of meeting in this beautiful Community House.
Be it further resolved, That we extend our hearty thanks to the Women's Progressive Union and School Improvement League for the many courtesies and personal kindnesses shown us, and especially to those members who conveyed us to and from the depot and to from the sessions of this convention; and to Mrs.
E. R. Moses and her committee who have looked after our comforts and pleasures in every way, all the way through.
Be it further resolved, That this convention do extend our thanks to the committee on entertainment for the nicely arranged program, and we assure those who rendered the splendid musical selections that they afforded much pleasure to those present.
Be it further resolved, That we desire to thank our state president, Mrs. Storm, for her presence among us, for the valuable suggestions and helpful talks which she made during this convention, and we assure her each one of us will return to our homes much benefitted.
Be it further resolved, That the Sixth District Convention of the L.
F. W. C. has obtained much good from the talks given at our meeting by Mrs. Lamb, Mr. Forbes and Mr.
Bacot, and to the officers and members for their untiring efforts in our behalf.
delegates of this convention extend their thanks and appreciation to Mr.
A. B. Morgan for her charming manner in caring for us while in Covington, and to the city as a whole for their untiring and unanimous effort in making us feel at home and feel their brotherly love.

Business Is Completed and Covington Praised By Delegates.

(By Anna Morrell Smith)
the Federation of Women's Clubs of Louisiana was a large success.
Community House and were so cordi-
by Mayor Badon and to our clubs
clubs, the sessions were instructive,
presentation of the work accomplish-
coming year.
The president of the Sixth District,
Mrs. A. G. Reed, of Baton Rouge,
and easy manner. Mrs. A. F. Storm,
Mrs. W. M. Lamb, state chairman of
with us. They both spoke on Wednesday night, and to those whom the
women.
The musical numbers were beautiful. Covington has much to be proud
vocalists, Mrs. R. A. McCormack, Mr.
Donald Dunn, Miss Laurence Steven-
son, Mrs. Warren Smith and Mrs. C.
M. Poole displayed their accomplishments and talents to a great advantage.
In the literary line, our district
chairman on thrift, Mrs. J. C. Burns,
covered herself with glory.
the subject in this paper to comment
inspiration.
Our committee on arrangements,
the ball rolling in the right direction; Mr. John Haller and Mrs. H.
H. Smith gave it a good push on-
on as spokesman for the clubs; and
visitors alike.
adopted unanimously at the final session:
Be it resolved, That the officers
the city and for the key to city during our stay; and to Mrs. Sheffield
for the key to the hearts of the people,
in this beautiful Community House.
extend our hearty thanks to the Wo-
from the depot and to from the sessions of this convention; and to Mrs.
E. R. Moses and her committee who
through.
present.
Be it further resolved, That we
desire to thank our state president, Mrs. Storm, for her presence among
homes much benefitted.
Sixth District Convention of the L.
F. W. C. has obtained much good
by Mrs. Lamb, Mr. Forbes and Mr.
Bacot, and to the officers and mem-
behalf.
their thanks and appreciation to Mr.
A. B. Morgan for her charming manner in caring for us while in Cov-
feel their brotherly love.
