LITTLE CARROL CAULFIELD TO BE QUEEN OF MAY FESTIVAL

Little Miss Carrol Caulfield has been chosen for Queen at the May Festival to be given by the Presbyterian ladies on May 6th. Misses Elizabeth Ickes, Olevia Shortridge, Mabel Cardozo and Norma Depriest are to be maids to the Queen, while the pages are Misses James Ellis, Earl Levy, Woodrow Blossman, Harvey Skrr and Thomas Talmage.

The pretty little maids who will entertain the Queen and her court with a May-pole Dance are Mercia and Elvira Lacroix, Eunice Kelly, Dolly Riggs, Jack Coney, Althea Heintz, Mabel Talmage, Winifred Fathree, Helen and Elsa Warner, Edna Blossman and Margaret Smith.

All who love children should see these merry lads and lassies at their May-day frolic on the 6th of May.

COVINGTON SELECTED AS TRAINING CAMP FOR PRIZE FIGHTERS

At Parkview Theatre next Monday night, April 25, will be staged a six round bout between Johnnie Mays and Dick Adams, two welter-weight contenders. Both boys are spending three weeks in Covington training for bouts to take place in New Orleans within the next few weeks. Adams has just fought Jake Abels a draw and Jake has already pulled a draw fight with Brittan, champion welter-weight. John Mays whipped "Knockout" Morris some time recently. Both boys are working out on the stage at Parkview Theatre every afternoon at 2:30. The bout Monday night will start after the picture performance, at 10 o'clock. The ladies are invited.

LAWRENCE REIF.
Lawrence Reif was born in New Orleans, August 22, 1899. After suffering for about a year with tuberculosis he died at Abita Springs, La., April 11, 1921, where he spent part of that year. Lawrence was a bright and promising young man, well liked by all who knew him. He was united with the Episcopal Church early in life. The funeral rites were conducted at Covington April 13, and were attended by a loving and faithful mother, sisters, aunt and friends.

DR. AND MRS. HEBERT CELEBRATE 50TH ANNIVERSARY

Last Sunday, April 17, 1921, St. Peter's Catholic Church was crowded to capacity with friends who witnessed the renewal of the marriage vows of Dr. and Mrs. N. M. Hebert, after fifty years of wedded happiness.

At the appointed hour, to the strains of Loehengrin's Wedding March the venerable couple walked in, preceded by Little Miss Hebert as ring bearer and Little Miss Harriet Hebert as flower girl. Mr. and Mrs. Rodolph Hebert, of New Orleans, who have also recently celebrated their fiftieth anniversary, being the other attendants.

Mrs. Hebert wore a handsome black gown of crepe de chine, with hat to match, and carried a shower bouquet of golden colored daisies tied with a bow of golden colored tulle.

Preceding the ceremony the Ave Maria was beautifully rendered by Mr. Holger Koenicke.

The church was decorated in gold and potted plants, the celebrant, Dr. Hebert, having as his boutonniere a gold rose leaf, as also did his sons and grandsons.

After receiving the congratulations of their many friends the party went to their home at Claiborne, where they had a family dinner, followed in the afternoon by an informal reception to their many friends, the fees and punch being served by Misses Elma, Helen and Harriet Hebert.

All of Dr. and Mrs. Hebert's children, who are living, were present, besides Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hebert and children of Bogalusa, Mr. Raoul Hebert of Green Bay, Ala., and Mr. N. M. Hebert, Jr., of New Orleans, and their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Rodolph Hebert and Mr. and Mrs. Rodolph Bernard, of New Orleans.

An evidence of the friendship and esteem of their many friends, Dr. and Mrs. Hebert were showered with useful and costly presents.

NOTICE TO BIDDERS

Public notice is hereby given that the St. Tammany Parish School Board will receive sealed bids for the construction of a two-story frame building to be erected according to plans and specifications now on file in the office of the Superintendent, for a Parish Training School for Negroes in the town of Slidell on a site donated by the Salmen Brick & Lumber Company.

Notice is also given that a duly authorized building committee will meet in the office of the School Board in the town of Covington, on Friday, May 6, 1921, and proceed to open the bids and award the contract to the lowest responsible bidder. Reserving the right to accept or reject a deposit of a certified check, or cash, to the amount of $100 must accompany the bid, which will be returned to the unsuccessful bidder and held for the successful bidder as liquidated damages if he does not furnish good and solvent bond, satisfactory to the board.

HON. ROBT. D. CAREY

Governor of State of Wyoming, says:

"While the cost of living has been greater than at any time in our history, still many people are enjoying larger incomes than ever before and in many instances have a better opportunity to save money—not only by starting a bank account but buying homes. There is no question that if more Americans owned their own homes there would be less unrest in the country, as a man who owns his home feels that he is a part of the community and is directly interested in its upbuilding."
