

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

$545 f. o. b. Detroit

If you are doubtful whether it will pay you to buy a Ford Truck for your farm, go to the man who owns one and ask him. Or we will come and tell you what dozens of Ford Truck owners have told us--that the Ford Truck is positively a paying proposition.

It brings the best markets to your very door. It solves the hauling problem on the farm and between the farm and the city. It does a dozen different jobs every day and stands the wear and tear of farm work under all conditions.

A post card will bring you further information.

BLOOMERETTES FOR LITTLE GIRLS PLAY

Dorothy's suffragette mother figured it out! So here it is, done in mercerized poplin with Harding Blue collar which is outlined and finished in a blanket-stitch of heavy rope silk. The blouse is laced at the neck with a ribbon of red silk, which, with the red on the collar, adds a bit of color to the whole.

INDIANA WOMAN GARDENS AND TENDS BABY

Mrs. Perry Crane of Lebanon, Ind., loved to work in the family garden, still she found it hard with baby to watch—until she thought of the plan, as pictured above. It is a play box on wheels for baby, which can easily be hauled to any part of the garden where her work may take her meeting, too.

All regular appointments will be filled on schedule time next Sunday.

Some are responding kindly with subscriptions for our new church. We rejoice to see our fellow-townsmen showing a spirit of town pride in this matter, and trust still more will assist, whether they have been solicited for funds or not.

Mr. Robt. Dutsch, at the Covington Bank, is treasurer of the church building fund.

L. R. SPARKS, Pastor.

A TRIBUTE.

That you are there, dear John, they say, where the flowers bloom and the shadows play, where the grasses wave o'er your quiet grave, and the wood-dove cooes its pleasant song to its distant mate through the hours long; where the roses bloom in early spring, and the violets scatter their sweet perfume on the scented air. Oh, love, they tell me of your grave, where sighing pine trees softly wave above your head. It is not true, I know, my love, your soul is safe with God above, for how could I live and move, dear heart, and know you were sleeping there—you who are my life a part. What sunlight is to the flowers fair. It was ten years ago, in April, we were wed, and now they whisper in flattering tones that John, my love, is dead. Not dead, ah, no, my precious love, for the soul doth never die, but simply gone to our home above to dwell with Christ on high. Only a few more lonely years adown life's weary track, and my own soul will cross the bars and meet my sweet heart—Jack.

MRS. JOHN DEX. Lacombe, May 11, 1921.

SMALL TOWN GIRL TRIUMPHS IN NATIONAL ESSAY CONTEST

Again the small town girl has triumphed. This time it is Miss Katherine Butterfield, 17 years old, of Weiser, Idaho. In national competition against 225,000 high school students from all over the nation, her essay was awarded first prize—a four-year university course valued at $5,000. This is an annual event, the award being from H. S. Firestone. The pictures of Miss Butterfield were made at Washington, where Dr. P. P. Claxton, Commissioner of Education, presented her to President Harding.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES.

We are in the midst of an excellent revival with Rev. Hildebrandt, at Bogalusa. At this writing (Tuesday) about fourteen have professed conversion, and a real revival spirit prevails.

We are glad our folks appreciated Rev. Blaynie's services, in our stead, last Sunday, at Covington, and trust that he, his good wife and sister and baby may come again. These same good folks are rendering excellent revival assistance at the Bogalusa.
