It affords us pleasure to announce the consolidation of the Madisonville Bank with this bank. We have taken over the business and good-will of that institution and will hereafter conduct the business at that place as a Branch of "St. Tammany's Big Bank," giving the patrons of that office the same facilities enjoyed by the patrons of the Home Office. By this enlargement we expect to be even more useful to the people of the Parish than we have been in the past, but continuing our well known policy of CONSTRUCTIVE CONSERVATISM.
