MADISONVILLE LETTER.

member, I didn't exactly know what was meant by a "musical club" but now I've found out—something on the order of a musical comedy—only more varied. We went to see and hear, and came back home to marvel on the idiosyncrasies of the human mind, and ask our friends how can Vernon play music while others dance.

Miss Althea Bodeaux returned Saturday from New Orleans where she visited Miss Cecile Morgan for several weeks.

Mrs. Felix Currow, with her two sons, James and George, and charming young daughter, Miss Hessie, have returned to their home in Pointe Coupee parish after spending several months here at their summer home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Oulliber, of Slidell, visited friends and relatives here Sunday.
