

Autumn Weaves a Fabric for Every Style She Favors

You Can Save 50c to $10 on Material Alone on Every Deltor-Made Frock

3263—Can't you imagine this dress in a combination of old-blue charmeuse and Georgette of oriental design. Perhaps, also, with a lemon-yellow taffeta sash, it might equally well exemplify the smart magpie mode of black and white, or be developed in all-black with a touch of jade green, royal blue or scarlet, or a breast-knot or girle decoration of brilliant flowers. Suitable Fall materials: any of the silk or satin crêpes, velvet or duvetyne.

3253—No wardrobe is complete without at least one tailored dress. Rust-red kasha cloth would doubtless be the choice of a Parisian couturier, but the American woman will find it equally smart in twill, tricotine, serge, gabardine, satin, charmeuse or velvet. If the red-browns are not becoming, you can choose from among dark blues, deep reds and the myrtle greens.

GLEAMING velvets or sumptuous brocades for evening—heavy silken crêpes, taffeta and satin for smartly simple afternoon and matinée frocks—and for tailored wear, velours, duvetyne, serge, tricotine and twill. Our Piece-Goods Department is rich with the soft depths and jewel colorings of Autumn fabrics.

This Fall, when fabrics are so beautiful and styles so winsome, isn't it wonderful to be able to say—"I'll have this and I'll have that" as you pore over Butterick Patterns or stroll through our Piece-Goods Department? And you can, you know. You can have more clothes this year than ever before. For every new Butterick Pattern offered at our pattern counter brings with it a wonderful saving—a saving made possible by a marvelous invention which accompanies every Butterick Pattern, and Butterick Patterns only. The Deltor!—an individual picture-guide to dress-making—that shows you how to have more clothes and smarter clothes for less money.

All this the Deltor accomplishes in three simple steps.

First it saves ¼ to 1½ yards of material—50c to $10—because of its professional, individual layout chart.

Next it guides you in putting your garment together so that you attain the elusive fit, drape and finish of an expert.

And Last it gives you Paris' own touch in finish—those all-important things upon which the success of your gown depends.

Baby's Clothes

For washing baby's dainty little garments there are many reasons why you should choose a powdered soap, instead of bar soap. You should not rub baby's clothes as you must rub them when you use bar soap.

With Grandma's Powdered Soap you just squeeze out the pretty little things he wears.

Soak baby's clothes with Grandma. You do not need to rub them nor boil them. Grandma is a powdered soap which you use without wasting. You haven't the work of chipping and slicing bar soap.

You get a big, generous sized package for 5c.

The most economical soap you can use.
