

FRANCIS LYNDE

Francis Lynde is another example of "When a Man Comes to Himself," the title of an excellent little book which ex-President Wilson wrote for young men some years ago.

He was born at Lewiston, N. Y., in 1856, went to Denver as a young man, got him a job on a railroad, married a nice young woman and sailed along in obscurity until he was thirty-seven years old.

Then he woke up and took his pen in hand. What he had to say didn't stir the nation appreciably during the first five years. In 1898 he wrote three novels within 12 months, each one of which was a ten-strike. After that it was easy.

Mr. Lynde has romanticized the railroads of the West and written many other fascinating tales of that region. We have been fortunate enough to secure his late story, "The Girl, a Horse and a Dog," as interesting as its title implies, for serial reproduction in this publication. You must read it!

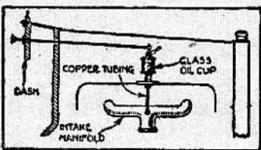

SURE-ACTING PRIMER SAVES AUTO BATTERY

Device Causes Engine to Start Firing at Once.

Means Found for Injecting into Cylinders Sufficient Amount of Gasoline to Vaporize and Mix With Air.

Many automobiles require a sure-acting priming device to cause the engine to start firing at once, instead of compelling the starting motor to whirl for long periods, which puts a heavy drain on the storage battery. Therefore, some means must be found of injecting into the cylinders a sufficient amount of gasoline so that enough will vaporize and mix with the air in the combustion chamber to form an ignitable mixture. The best of these is one that can be operated from the driver's seat.

Obtain an ordinary sight-feed oil cup, as shown in the illustration. Attach it to a suitable part of the car, such as the dash, or mount it on the engine block, above the carburetor. By the use of one-eighth-inch copper pipe, like that for the gasoline line, the cup should be connected with the intake manifold directly above the vertical tube to the carburetor. Then, by the adjustment of the feed-valve on the cup, the correct amount of gasoline is admitted to the manifold in the right place. In this way all cylinders will receive the same mixture, and of course will develop maximum power. After the engine has started well, the feed-valve cup can be closed. This method is far more reliable than prim-

L. Prindle, in Popular Science Monthly.

TRICK YOU MAY NOT KNOW

Simple Little Trick to Make the Hub Cap Do Its Own Loosening When It Sticks.

In case the ordinary method of placing a wrench on a sticking hub cap and then tapping the wrench with a hammer, fails, try this: Place a small box or horse of very nearly the height of the hub from the floor, alongside the wheel, so that when the latter is turned the end of the wrench will strike the box, the force of the blow loosening the cap.

The engine of a car that has been on the road for two or three years will be apt to give better service and more efficient delivery of power if an oil is used that is heavier than the quality which was originally indicated for it.

REV. SPARKS GOES TO FRANKLIN, LA.

The appointment of Rev. L. R. Sparks to the pastorate at Franklin, La., will take from the Methodist Church a man who has done much to improve it while in Covington. While he goes to a larger field and will have opportunities opened up to him that he would not have here, yet there will be many who regret that he could not remain with us. Mr. Sparks' place will be filled by

WHAT A HUNTER MAY GET FOR ONE DOLLAR

New Orleans.—The regular hunting season in Louisiana began Nov. 1 and will continue for three months. For two or three weeks now sportsmen have been oiling their guns, laying in supplies of ammunition and food and patching up their progress, but few of them have thought what the State, through the Conservation Department, offers them for the one dollar license they pay for the privilege of hunting.

If the sportsman takes full advantage of the opportunities offered him by the department, he can not only provide food during the open season for his family, but for the families of a number of his friends. Stated briefly, he will be permitted to kill during the three months 11,953 birds, 1,155 squirrels, five deer and an unlimited number of rabbits and bear. True, the department does not guarantee that he will get all of this game for the dollar license he pays the State, but it opens the opportunity for him and leaves the issue to his skill and activity.

This is what he may kill during the 92 days of the hunting season: Rabbits, bears and alligators, an unlimited number; deer, 5 a day, 5 a season; ducks, 25; poule d'eau, gaitheules and marsh hens; 25 altogether; snipe, 25; yellow legs and plovers, 15 altogether; turkeys, 1; quail, 15. The open season for turkeys and quail begins Nov. 15. This list does not take account of the outlaw animals and birds which may be slaughtered at any time, and which include such sporting propositions as the fox, wolf, wildcat and panther.

When oversize tires are to be used the car owner should be certain that there is enough clearance between all of the tires and the nearest parts of the car.

Hold your hand over the breathing tube occasionally while the engine is running to see if air is passing over. If the breathing tube gets clogged it puts a back pressure on the pistons that reduces the power of the motor.

SOUTHERN WOMEN AND THE NEGRO.

The women's boards of the Southern Presbyterian, the Southern Baptist and the Southern Methodist churches have endorsed the program of the women members of the Inter-Racial Commission, and have set in motion the machinery to carry it out in the local communities throughout the South, through their local church societies.

The plan calls for three committees in each auxiliary to study the negro homes, school and churches of the community with the aid of the colored women who are locally leaders among their people. From these studies a concerted plan of action is to be prepared, differing according to local needs, upon which the women of both races can unite, in cooperation with the county inter-racial committee.

In the opinion of many Southern students of public questions no more important or hopeful action than this has ever been taken in the wide and tangled field of race relations.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to express our heartfelt and most sincere thanks to our relatives, friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy shown us in our recent deep sorrow occasioned by the passing away of our beloved son, Lawrence Quave, on Sunday, Nov. 20, 1921.

We wish especially to thank Rev. Father John Burger for prayers and services at the house, church and grave, the Boy Scouts of Covington, and those who sent floral offerings—all have the everlasting gratitude of MR. and MRS. SEYMOUR QUAVE and SON, EDWARD.

LA-LOUTRE HUNTING GROUNDS

New Orleans.—The Pass-a-Loutre Public Hunting Grounds, opened Nov. 1, have already demonstrated the wisdom of the Louisiana Department of Conservation in dedicating this immense tract of marsh land to the recreation and pleasure of citizens of the State who are enamored of outdoor life and the sport of the gun. Hunters returning after the first week were enthusiastic in respect of the accommodations furnished in the lodge provided for those hunters who do not wish to look out for themselves. The lodge is mosquito and storm proof and has accommodations for twenty guests, the charge being a nominal one, to cover cost only. Reservation for quarters in this lodge must be made in advance, to prevent overcrowding, and to assure the comfort of those who have quarters there. The grounds are open to any one having a hunting license and stopping at the lodge is entirely optional, though all hunters who use the tract of 60,000 acres must register there before beginning the hunt.
