COVINGTON HI DEFEATS EAST AMERICAN LEGION TEAM.

Last Friday night the Covington Hi basketball team went up against the American Legion team that defeated the fast Alpha team, of New Orleans, last Sunday, the score being 42 to 24 in favor of the Covington Hi. The game was fast and full of thrills from start to finish. The Legion boys are much heavier, and some of them are old college stars, yet the C. H. S. boys did themselves credit, even though one of their best players, Lawrence Frederick, was out of the game due to an accident received in the Mandeville game. The line-up was: Legion, B. D. Burns, K. Moise, E. Menestre, Geo. Johnson, Cyp. Schoen, H. Huddleston, sub. C. H. S., J. Burris, N. Fitzgerald, D. Bulloch, W. Meller, F. Faunteroy, Tom Frederick, sub. The Covington High School team has played six games this season, winning four and losing two. It might be said to the credit of the C. H. S. team that the two games they lost were out of their class, one being the Covington town team, which is made up of ex-college players and much heavier men, and the other team was the St. Benedict College team.

The C. H. S. boys feel that they are the equal of any strictly high school team in this section and are open for engagements.

SUNDAY SCHOOL EXERCISES AND CHRISTMAS TREE.

The Presbyterian Sunday School will hold their usual holiday exercises and Christmas tree on Wednesday, December 21, at 7:30 p. m., at the Presbyterian Church.

There will be a Christmas tree and stockings with the gifts are to be distributed among the less fortunate children of Covington and the surrounding country. The older people of the church, and others if they so desire, are to be permitted to bring packages of fruit, candy, clothes and groceries, and the distribution of the articles will be made to the best advantage by Mr. Dan Davis, assisted by others of the Sunday School in order to bring a "ray of sunshine" into every home in this section on Christmas Day.

The program this year promises to be unusually entertaining as the exercises will be in charge of Mrs. P. L. Shaul, assisted by Miss Kate Eastman and the young ladies of the Sunday School. Mrs. E. G. Davis will have charge of the musical part of the program, and the decorating will be done by the master hand of Mr. John Haller.

Any one knowing of a needy family will confer a favor by dropping a note to Mrs. Dan Davis, Covington, La., and the case will be investigated and attended to.

The general public is given a cordial invitation to be present and especially all children, whether they are members of the Presbyterian Sunday School or not.
