COLORED SERVANTS REMEMBERED DURING XMAS.

Covington, La., Dec. 28, 1921. Editor St. Tammany Farmer: Among the many happenings of this merry Christmastide there is one that has filled my heart with gladness. I was charmed to see so many of the colored servants returning to their homes with Christmas presents in their hands from their employers. It brought to my mind the well known fact that the white madams of the town of Covington appreciate the service of their colored help.

WHAT DID SHE MEAN Tom—I'm going away Christmas. Alice—Is that so? Won't that be nice?

THIS AMERICAN NAPOLEON MAY SOON BE A REAL KING

The little country of Albania, whose complete freedom has been assured by the League of Nations, has asked Jerome Napoleon Bonaparte, of Baltimore, Md., to come over and be their king. He is considering the matter. The above is a photograph of Jerome himself and his wife. His great, great grandfather was a brother of Napoleon I, and married Miss Patterson of Baltimore.

See if you, too, don't choose The NEW EDISON

Dr. W. V. Bingham, Director of Research, Carnegie Institute of Technology, compared four different phonographs. His nine tests embraced all kinds of vocal and instrumental music. The New Edison proved itself the best phonograph by winning all nine tests. Too wonderful to be true? Compare on your own account. We'll supply you with a Phonograph Comparison Card, such as Dr. Bingham used. Bring or mail the coupon. FRANK PATECEK Parish Dealer Covington, La.
