Miss Boudousquie, Society Editor

Mrs. F. F. Planché announces the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Iris Madeline, to Mr. Felix Barrow Folkes, now of Covington, formerly of St. Francisville, La., on Saturday, January 14, 1922, at 7 p. m., at the Presbyterian Church. The wedding will be a very quiet affair and no invitations have been issued, relatives and friends of both families being invited through this medium.

Dr. and Mrs. Wallace J. Durel entertained at a reception and dance New Year's Eve in honor of their daughters, quite a number of the young dancing set, as well as the married set, being present. Delightful music was furnished, and refreshments in keeping with the holiday season were served in abundance.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kammer entertained at a Gypsy Camp Fire Meeting on New Year's Eve at their home on America street, at which were present the younger members of the school set. Delightful games were enjoyed, followed by a Wrenna bake. It was a very informal affair, the best time imaginable having been enjoyed by all those present.

Mrs. F. F. Planché and Miss Iris Planché returned Wednesday night from New Orleans where they spent several days.

Mrs. Myrtis Watson, of Patterson, La., State Grand Worthy Matron; Mrs. J. B. Wortham, Past Grand Worthy Matron, and Mrs. E. J. Domergue, Dist. Deputy Grand Worthy Matron, of the Order of the Eastern Star, were here Wednesday on their annual official visit to the Covington chapter. Following the meeting an informal reception was held in honor of the distinguished visitors. During her short stay here Mrs. Watson was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. H. D. Bulloch.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Planché and family spent New Year in Bogalusa with Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Planché and family.

Mrs. M. D. Connors was a New Orleans visitor Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lacoste, the latter formerly Miss Rachael Roubion, returned Saturday to their home in New Orleans after having spent their honeymoon here.

LEVI ROBERT BUSH.

In loving memory of our beloved husband and father, Levi Robert Bush, who died January 2, 1921.

In the cold and winter woods softly sleeping,
Where the flowers have died and decayed,
Lies the one we loved so dearly,
In his silent lonely grave.
Peaceful be your sleep, dear father,
It is sweet to breathe your name;
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.
You shall never be forgotten,
Never from our memory fade,
Loving hearts will always linger,
Around the grave where you are laid.
It is one year, father dear, since
you have left us,
And we miss you more and more;
Our hearts are filled with sadness,
For your sweet smile we see no more.

THEODORE.

We miss you coming footsteps,
We miss your everywhere;
Life is not what is used to be,
Since our dear father is not there.

MADISONVILLE NOTES.

son of Junior Rousseau f. Blenk Young s. Lonnie Tyrney g. Bubbie Badaux c. Wilmer Perrin, sub; Harry Hoover, referee.
Wednesday afternoon, January 4, the junior cagers, like the proverbial child who licked his kid brother 'cause his ma licked him, transferred the punishment received to the Covington Junior III quintette with the same score of 13 to 8 in a hard fought game. Line-up, Covington, Blenk Yonny f. Chris Ragan f. Fernie Trenchard c. Geo. Blow g. Vic Bradley g. Duke, sub. Madisonville, Leon Loon Rousseau f. Wilmer Perrin f. Bubbie Badaux c. Junior Rousseau g. A series of dances planned.
The first of a series of nine o'clock dances planned for the pre-Lenten season will take place Saturday, Jan. 14th, in the U. F. B. Hall. The floor committee includes Bennie Chatellier and Enos Pennington and Misses Finkle Gollehon, Denia Chatellier and Dimples Ballam.

Whispers.
A fortunate few were the recipients of a Telegram of Smiles on New Year's Day from Vera Cruz, signed Earl. And who couldn't smile under the climatic conditions when he says, "every swallow is one of joy."
Who said Larry wasn't an astronomer—when he's a proven adept at seeing stars?

Church houses were crowded Sunday—a fact consistent with the many new leaves turned over.

The truth will out sometimes—and the report states that our bashful young friend, Ross, has a bevy of "pretty chickens" to look after these days—only Papa Fitcher's feathered beauties, my dear girls.

Social Items of Interest.
Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Haas were hosts Thursday evening at a delightful dance at their pretty home in Covington street, complimentary to Miss Mayme Millott. It was one of the many delightful affairs planned for the Yuletide season and a large number of young people were entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. Haas' guests included Miss Mayme Millott, Misses Adrienne Dendinger, Marie Rausch, Thelma Polcar, Dimples Ballam, Della Parent, Carmine Young, Finkle Gollehon, Bonnie Leonard, Nora and Pearl Holly, Louise Badaux, Bonnie Mae Smith, Edith Koopp, Denia Chatellier and Hettie Koopp, Mr. and Mrs. Frank V. deGruy, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Koopp, Messrs. John Rausch, Victor Oulliber, Bennie Chatellier, Larry Davenport, Rudy Flasdick, Ross Murphy, Geo. Dutsch, Jr., Dan Cooper, Enos Pennington, Bud Koopp, Leo LeBlanc, Dr. Chas. Lopez, Lloyd Heuzhan, and others.

Miss Nannie Gollehon charmingly entertained the younger school set at a cotillion party and dance at her home Thursday evening, a large number of guests enjoying the occasion.

Miss Ethel Oulliber was the recipient of much attention when she was tendered a surprise party by her many friends, Wednesday evening, January 4th, the occasion being her 18th birthday. The participants included Miss Ethel Oulliber, Misses Elsie Galatas, Mabel Perrin, Eva Pennington, Gladys Young, Ella
