BORN—To Mrs. Harry J. Warner (nee Jeanne Piguet), at Touro Infirmary, New Orleans, on Saturday, January 14, 1922, a girl, Alida.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Marange, Jr., on Sunday, January 15, 1922, a girl, Irma Rita.

Mr. and Mrs. Saul Goldberg, Sr., were hosts at a dinner dance at Antaine's, in New Orleans, following the performance at the Orpheum last Sunday night. Mr. and Mrs. Goldberg entertained in honor of Major Arthur Reed, of Montreal, Canada, the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Goldberg, and their son, Major Lionel Goldberg. Mr. and Mrs. Goldberg entertained Major Reed and Miss Virginia Howell, Major Goldberg and Miss Inez Pelloat, Mr. Ed. Shaw and Miss Anita Siren, Mr. and Mrs. Saul Goldberg, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Billie Sherwood, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bennett, Messrs. Harold Bertrand and Norman Ferguson.

Cards have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Salmen announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Ellarose, to Mr. William H. Sullivan, of Bogalusa, at their home in Slidell, Friday evening, January 20th. As both of the contracting parties are very prominent socially, Miss Salmen being one of the most popular members of the unmarried set of Slidell, and Mr. Sullivan the "father" of Bogalusa, the wedding will be a very elaborate affair, to which hundreds of persons have been invited.

The America Street Bridge Club was organized during last week with the following ladies as members. Mmes. E. G. Richard, G. R. Tolson, P. L. Shaul, A. B. Morgan, Mrs. Hoeyner, Mrs. Drews, Miss Kate Eastman and Miss Stella Mercadet. Instead of prizes being awarded at each meeting a tally composed of those who score lowest will be kept, the two lowest scores having to entertain at a banquet, at which will be present the husbands and friends of the members.

The Junior King Party met last Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Schomberg. After an animated time, and a series of interesting games, the King's cake was cut, the lucky coin fell to the lot of Miss Margaret Peshon, who chose Master Blenk Young as her king. They will reign next Saturday night, Jan. 28, at the Community House.

Mrs. H. K. Goodwyn entertained the Matrons at their weekly meeting held Wednesday afternoon, the first prize having been awarded Mrs. H. D. Bulloch, consolation Mrs. C. F. A. Fuhrmann, guest prize Mrs. Philip Burns. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. C. E. Schomberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bougere, of Charleston, W. Va., spent the week end here as the guest of Mrs. G. R. Tolson. Mr. and Mrs. Dougere will spend the week in Bogalusa attending the convention of the salesmen of the Great Southern Lumber Co., Mr. Bougere being one of their employees.

Mrs. Philip Burns entertained the Double T. G's. at their meeting last Tuesday, the first prize being awarded Mrs. Philip Burns, consolation Miss Grace Blossman.

Miss Beatrice Jones left Tuesday afternoon for Sellers, La., where she will spend some time with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jones.

Miss Anna Mornus spent Wednesday in New Orleans with Mrs. Harry Warner.

Mr. Adrian D. Schwartz spent last Wednesday in New Orleans in the interest of his law business.

Dr. and Mrs. N. M. Hebert left Sunday for New Orleans where they will spend a week with relatives.

Mrs. J. D. Kerr has returned from New Orleans and Brookhaven where she was called on account of the serious illness and death of her father, Mr. Sam N. Storm, of Brookhaven. Her many friends extend their sympathy.

Mrs. H. R. McLeod, of New Orleans, is spending some time here as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jasper E. Nilson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Lyon spent the week end in New Orleans with Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Greenlaw. They will return to New Orleans Friday when Mrs. Lyons will undergo a slight operation.

Misses Della and Daisy Bertus and Messrs. Sidney and Shilley Vignaud, of New Orleans, spent last Sunday here with Mr. and Mrs. James Prevost and family.

Mrs. James Prevost and Miss Mimi Prevost left Tuesday morning for New Orleans where Miss Prevost will undergo an operation at Hotel Dieu.

Mrs. Annie Ferguson and Miss Nina Gabriel spent last week end in New Orleans.

Mr. John P. Raush, of Abita and New Orleans was a business visitor here Saturday.

Mrs. W. T. Wallis, of Folsom, visited her sister, Mrs. F. J. Martindale, here last Monday.

Miss Thelma Strobic returned last Saturday to her home in Bogalusa after several weeks spent here with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Blossman and family.

Miss Lucille Rutland returned last Monday from New Orleans where she spent two days.

Mr. Lawrence White, of Carrollton, Miss., spent Monday and Tuesday in Covington on business.

Mrs. Alice Fuhrmann, of Goodbee, spent Tuesday here as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. A. Fuhrmann and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Eimer.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Heintz were New Orleans visitors Wednesday.

Judge T. M. Burns was a New Orleans visitor Tuesday.

This community was shocked to learn of the death of Mrs. Harry Horton, which occurred in Bogalusa last Saturday at the Bogalusa Hospital. Before her marriage she was Miss Adrienne Pellegriin. The funeral took place last Sunday in Bogalusa. She leaves her husband, three children, several sisters and brother and mother, to mourn her loss.

The second of the series of King's parties to be given by the Y. P. K. Club took place last Friday night at the home of Misses Gladys and Laura Durel. Mr. Francis Kammer was the holder of the lucky bean, choosing as his queen Miss Clara King. The party to be given this Friday will be at the home of Miss Clara King. Besides the members who attended the first King's party the following additional members were present: Misses Grace Barringer, Irma Ray Welby, Carrie Belle Weldy, Blanche Frederick, Messrs. Edison Barringer, Robert Frederick, Homer and E. G. Durel.

Miss Addie Badon is spending a while in Bogalusa with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor and Miss Edna Earl Taylor.

The town is all a-flutter on account of the masquerade and fancy dress ball which will be given to-night at the Southern Hotel under the auspices of the Terpsichorean Revelers. The membership and different committees are clothed in mystery and from reports float some of the most prominent members of the town and parish are at the head of the organization. Delightful music will be furnished, and the committee promises a wonderful time for all present. Admission is by invitation only.

Mr. C. Marvin Poole was a business visitor to Baton Rouge, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Linton and little son, of New Orleans spent several days here during the past week with Mr. and Mrs. Julian H. Smith and family.

Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Paine and Miss Ella Paine, of Mandeville, attended the supper given by the Masons to Eastern Stars at the Southern Hotel last Saturday evening.

Mr. Donald Dunn, of Slidell, spent last Saturday and Sunday here, having come up to attend the Masonic-Eastern Star supper.

SHOWER FOR MISS PLANCHE.

A miscellaneous shower was given Miss Iris Planche on January 7th, at the Presbyterian Manse, by the ladies of the Auxiliary and several of Miss Iris' friends.

Mrs. Talmage had her home decorated for the occasion in pink and white, and in the arch dividing the parlors the shower was hidden in white drapery. After a musical program, by Mrs. Davis and Miss Frazier, Miss Planche was blind-folded beneath the shower, packages of every description falling around her, and then little Thomas Talmage drew his toy wagon loaded down with gifts into the center of the room where the bride-elect, speechless but radiant, enjoyed opening each token sent by loving friends.

After delicious refreshments and congratulations to Miss Planche, who as one of the girls in church and Sunday School work, has contributed to music and singing her talented and sweet voice and made many friends for herself, the party returned to their homes, declaring that weddings and showers are the most enjoyable of life's events.

Word has been received from Beaumont, Texas, announcing the death of Mr. Stanley A. Spencer, which occurred there January 12th. Mr. Spencer married Miss Helen Addison of this place, and she together with eight children, besides several brothers and sisters, are left to mourn his loss. Mr. Spencer was president of the Crystal Ice Company, of Beaumont, and a member of the Shriners, besides belonging to a number of civic and social organizations, and his death is a great loss to the community.

FOLKES—PLANCHE.

A wedding of unusual interest was solemnized last Saturday evening at eight o'clock at the Presbyterian Church, when Miss Iris M. Planche was married to Mr. Felts B. Folkes, Rev. F. C. Talmage officiating.

The church was beautifully decorated, palms and bamboos filling the chancel rail, with clusters of camelias and japonicas filling vases and baskets. Down the aisle an arch of the same flowers under which the bride passed, was tied with white ribbon streamers to the pews. At the appointed hour, to the strains of a wedding march, the ushers, Mr. E. G. Davis and Mr. J. H. Hallor, Mr. J. W. Davis and Mr. Emile Menetre, preceded by Miss Doris Frederick, maid of honor, who walked alone, and then the bride leaning on the arm of her grandfather, Mr. Victor Planche, who gave her into the keeping of the groom, who awaited her coming with his best man, Mr. Edgar Menetre. After a most impressive ceremony, during which "Love's Old Sweet Song" and "Because" were rendered beautifully by Mrs. E. G. Davis, organist, and Mr. Fabian Bouquet, violinist. During the signing of the register Mr. Clarence London sang "O, Promise Me."

The bride, always pretty, was exceedingly charming in her traveling suit of dark blue with gray trim, and hat to match. The maid of honor was most becomingly dressed in blue crepe de chine with hat to match, and both carried large arm bouquets.

The immediate families and a few invited friends repaired to the home of the bride's grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Planche, where refreshments were served and congratulations given.

Mr. and Mrs. Folkes left that evening for Hammond and St. Francisville to be gone one week, and on their return will be at home to their friends in their apartments at the home of Mrs. F. F. Planche on 19th Avenue.

Among the out-of-town guests were the groom's mother, Mrs. Cheston Folkes, of St. Francisville, and her little grand-son, Master Shelby Reid, of Amite, La.; Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Planche, of Bogalusa; Mr. Cheston Folkes, Jr., and Miss Mary Folkes, of St. Francisville, brother and sister of the groom.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.

In the issue of The St. Tammany Farmer of date January 7th, the Women's Progressive Union had a card commenting on the action taken by them in regard to the better quality and weight of bread, and our approval of the stand taken by the People's Bakery in that respect. We did not know at that meeting when such action was taken "to send this card to our local paper," that Mr. Aouelle, of the Aouelle Bakery, was likewise giving a better quality and had immediately upon request increased the size and weight of bread. We make this statement in justice to Mr. Aouelle, and want he and all of our business people in Covington to feel that the Women's Progressive Union are interested in everything and every proposition for the advancement of Covington.

GATHERING DATA FOR "LAND FOR SALE BULLETIN."

New Orleans, Jan. 12, 1922.

Editor St. Tammany Farmer:

As we are now gathering the necessary data to publish the annual "Land for Sale Bulletin" of this department, we herewith hand you a questionnaire and that you use same in describing any property that you have for sale and wish published in this bulletin. This description will supplement any other listing which you may have already sent us.

We will send additional questionnaires to you or to anyone whom you advise us has lands for sale in this state, as we desire as many acceptable propositions listed as possible from each and every section of Louisiana, and we ask your co-operation in enabling us to include the properties that are for sale in your vicinity. There is no charge for this service.

The bulletin when completed will have a wide circulation and will be placed in the hands of all those whom we ascertain are desirous of acquiring lands for agricultural purposes; we will also place the names of those who have listed propositions with us on our regular mailing list to receive the land inquiry letters which will contain the names and addresses of such parties who desire to purchase Louisiana lands, thus enabling our land owners to get in direct communication with prospective buyers of land located in this state.

Acceptable timber propositions will also be published but no city real estate or commercial properties will be included.

Kindly return the questionnaire at your earliest convenience and oblige. Yours very truly,
