Master Robert Lobdell and Miss Lola Cole reigned as king and queen at the masquerade party given last Saturday evening at the Community House by Junior King Club. After a number of games and dancing the king's cake was brought in. When served the members of the club the lucky bean fell to the lot of Master Louis Brady, who in turn chose Miss Joey Kammer as his queen. Very gracefully the reigning king and queen retired from the throne in favor of the new monarchs, placing their crowns upon their heads. The next dance will be given at the home of Miss Joey Kammer, Saturday, February 25th.

The Y. P. K. C. held their dance Saturday evening at the home of Mr. Thos. Frederick, he being king and Miss Elsie Galatas queen of the evening. After an evening of dancing the king cake was cut, Mr. Herbert Frederick having captured the lucky bean. He chose Miss Irma Rue Weidy as his queen. They will entertain Saturday evening, Feb. 25, at the Community House.

The Terpsichorean Revelers have issued invitations to their "Black and White" Ball, Saturday evening, Feb. 18th, at the Southern Hotel. This is the first time a ball of this kind has ever been held and the club members and their guests are looking forward with pleasure to another successful entertainment.

Miss Shirley Hoffman entertained a number of the school set at a masquerade ball last Friday night, at which dancing was indulged in during the evening, after which delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Henry announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their sister, Miss Noemie Abadie, to Mr. Aey Ordorgne, at St. Francis de Salles Church, Houma, La., on Wednesday afternoon, February 22, at 5 p. m. No invitations have been issued, relatives and friends being invited thru this medium.

Miss Addie Badon has returned from Bogalusa after several weeks spent there as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Taylor.

Relatives here received the sad news, Tuesday, of the death of Mr. Frank Sanchez, which occurred at Baton Rouge, Monday evening, after a prolonged illness. He leaves his wife, who was Miss Euphemie Richard, of Covington, four children, besides his mother, sisters and brother. The funeral took place Wednesday in Baton Rouge from St. Joseph's Church, at which requiem high mass was celebrated. Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Addison and Masters Belmont and Wilton Sanchez went to Baton Rouge to attend the funeral.

Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Gautreaux entertained at an informal reception and dance, Sunday night, in honor of their fourteenth wedding anniversary. Among those present were Misses Cecile Warren, Elma Frederick, Jesse Goodwin, Vernie Galmiche, Avis Mercade, Myrtle Rose, Elsie Galatas, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Poole, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Schonberg, Mrs. Marion Jones, Messrs. Oliver and Clay Hebert, Noel and Francis Kammer.

CROWNPRINCE SANS BRASS BUTTONS

Brass buttons don't mean anything in the life of William Hohenzollern, Jr., any more. Germany's former Crown Prince is more interested in Swiss cheese sandwiches on rye, particularly when, as shown in this most recent picture of the exile in Holland, he had just returned from a joyride on his motor-cycle.

Miss Louise LeBlanc returned last Monday from New Orleans where she spent three days with her sister, Mrs. Eugene Garard.

Mrs. A. Laborde is spending some time in New Orleans with Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Laborde and son.

Miss Mimi Laborde has returned from New Orleans after several weeks spent there with relatives.

Mr. Fred J. Heinz spent Wednesday in New Orleans on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Thompson, of Seattle, Wash., and Mrs. Lilla Thompson, of New Orleans, spent last Friday here with Mrs. S. G. Peterson and family.

Judge and Mrs. P. B. Carter, District Attorney J. Vol Brock, Attorneys Lindsay McDougall, of Franklinton; A. S. Burns, of Ponchatoula; S. W. Provensal and L. V. Cooley, of Slidell, attended the session of the District Court here this week.

Mr. John P. Rausch, of Abita, paid his weekly business visit here last Saturday.

Mrs. L. C. Helntz was a New Orleans visitor, Tuesday.

Miss M. Escoffier returned Tuesday from New Orleans where she spent several days.

Mrs. Walter F. Hanley, of Slidell, spent Friday here as the guest of Mrs. Wallace M. Poole.

Mrs. H. A. Mackie and little son returned Monday evening from New Orleans where they spent the week end with relatives.

Mr. A. H. Clement, of New Orleans, spent several days here during the past week, on business.

Miss Mayme Paysinger, of Madisonville, was the week end guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Boudousque.

The Juvenile King Club met Friday, Feb. 10th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Easton, at which Miss Inez Easton, queen, and Master Walsh Stutz, king, reigned. The affair was in the form of a country revelry, aprons being worn by the girls and overalls by the boys. The decorations consisted of pumpkins, hay and cane. The usual games were enjoyed. A cutting of the king cake the bean fell to Master Otis Helntz, he choosing Miss Katherine Burns as his queen. The next party will be at the home of Miss Katherine Burns.

Deputy Sheriff Ernest Quatreveaux was called to New Orleans last Saturday on account of the death of his mother. His many friends here sympathize with him in his grief.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Herbez, of Bogalusa, spent several days here during the past week with their sister, Miss Clara Herbez.

Mrs. Charles Frederic, of New Orleans, has been here for several weeks as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Simmons and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Burns.

Mr. Miller F. Simmons, of Slidell, was a business visitor here Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kammer and daughters, Misses Mimi and Joey, went to New Orleans this week to see the dance exhibition of Madam Pavalova, at the Lafayette Theatre.

Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Durel were called to New Orleans last Sunday on account of the serious illness of a relative.

Mrs. Wm. A. Reeder entertained the Merry Makers at her home last Friday night. Miss Irene was the dainty little queen of the evening. A most delightful time was spent in dancing and games. Every one was bubbling over with carnival spirit. The supper table was very attractive and tempting with its delicious cakes and candies. Heart shaped valentines were given each guest. The festivities decreed that Miss Francis Second capture the magic bean that made her queen. She chose as her king, to reign with her at the next dance, Mr. William Harrell.

CARD OF THANKS.

Having gone out of business in Covington, I desire to thank my patrons and friends who have given me a liberal share of their patronage during my business career in Covington. While I will not be in business here, my family will remain in Covington, and I will always cherish the pleasant dealings I have had with Covington's population.

PROCLAMATION OF ELECTION.

Pursuant to a resolution by the Parish Board of School Directors of the Parish of St. Tammany, Louisiana, at its special meeting held on the 27th day of January, 1922, I, N. H. FITZSIMONS, president of the Parish Board of School Directors, hereby give notice that, in compliance with said resolution, a special election will be held in School District No. 7 of the Parish of St. Tammany, Louisiana, on the 8th day of March, 1922, for the purpose of submitting to the property taxpayers qualified under the constitution and laws of the State of Louisiana to vote at said election, the following proposition, to-wit:

To levy a special tax of 2 mills on the dollar on all the property in School District No. 7, Parish of St. Tammany, Louisiana, subject to state taxation, annually, for the period of five years, for the purpose of giving additional aid to the public schools of said district No. 7.

For the purposes of said special election the polling places will be Lacombe Public School, at Lacombe, La., and the following commissioners and clerk of election have been appointed to serve at this election: J. M. Barringer, B. W. Todd and C. J. Villars, commissioners, and R. H. Krentel, clerk.

At said special election the polls will be open at seven o'clock a. m., and close at five o'clock p. m., and the election will be conducted in accordance with the laws of Louisiana applicable thereto.

Notice is hereby given that at ten o'clock a. m., on the 10th day of March, 1922, the said Parish Board of School Directors of the Parish of St. Tammany, Louisiana, will meet at Covington, Louisiana, and in open session proceed to open the ballot box, examine and count the ballots in number and amount, examine and canvass the returns, and declare the result of said special election.

This 27th day of January, 1922.

N. H. FITZSIMONS, President Parish School Board.
