PROMULGATION OF ELECTION.

STATE OF LOUISIANA
Parish of St. Tammany,
Town of Covington.

By the direction of the Board of Aldermen of the Town of Covington, La., notice is hereby given that on Tuesday, the 16th day of May, 1922, an election was held in the Town of Covington, St. Tammany Parish, La., to determine the propositions:

Proposition No. 1—To incur debt and issue and sell negotiable semi-annual interest bearing bonds of said Town of Covington, La., to amount

HOW ARE YOUR FEET?

That's a peculiar question for us to ask, but we mean it.

There are people in this parish who have been suffering for life-time from their feet simply because they did not know what to do for them. We have arranged for a FREE demonstration with the Scholl Manufacturing Company, manufacturers of foot specialties and orthopedic appliances, at our store on when we will give demonstrations and instructions for the use of Dr. Scholl's Foot-eazer, Toe Flex, Tri-springs Arch, Heel Cushion, Bunion Reducer and Foot Powder.

Saturday, May 20,

We invite everybody to be here on the above date. You don't have to buy, but you will learn something about foot comfort that will make you feel grateful to us for having given you the opportunity of finding how to relieve that terrible ache and pain you have been undergoing all these years, when by just a little investigation it all could have been eliminated.

and issue and sell negotiable semi-annual interest bearing bonds of said Town of Covington, La., to amount of fifty thousand ($50,000) dollars, evidencing the said indebtedness, for the purpose of providing funds for constructing sewers, title to which shall be in the public. Said bonds to bear interest at the maximum rate of 6 per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, and to run for thirty-five (35) years from the date of the bonds, and the principal and interest to be secured and paid by a sufficient special tax levied and collected in each of the years while all or any of said bonds are outstanding in accordance with the provisions of Article XIV, Section 14, of the Constitution and Laws of Louisiana.

That the returns of said election were canvassed by the Mayor and Board of Aldermen of said Town of Covington, La., according to law and previous legal notice, on the 17th day of May, 1922, and found to indicate a majority in number and amount of the property taxpayers of Town of Covington, La., qualified to vote under the Constitution and Laws of this State, voting at said election, voted in favor of both of said propositions, and the ballots cast in said election were examined and counted in number and amount, both for and against the above said propositions, and

The result of said count for the Waterworks Bonds was seventy-nine (79) ballots and two hundred sixty-four thousand, nine hundred thirty-one ($264,931) dollars in favor of said proposition, and three (3) ballots and two thousand two hundred twenty-five ($2,225) dollars against said proposition, and

The result of said count for the Sewerage Bonds was seventy-eight (78) ballots and two hundred sixty-four thousand, one hundred eighty-one ($264,181) dollars in favor of said proposition, and four (4) ballots and two thousand nine hundred seventy-five ($2,975) dollars against said proposition, and

That the majority of the taxpayers voting at said election in favor of Proposition No. Two, for the issuance of Sewerage Bonds, was seventy-four (74) in number, and two hundred sixty-one thousand, two hundred and six ($261,206) dollars in amount, and

That, therefore, both of said propositions carried.

Thus done and signed on this 17th day of May, 1922, at Covington, Louisiana, in the Parish of St. Tammany.
