Some Style,
Some Comfort,
Some Low Price!

"Glad that I waited a few days to buy my straw hat. I had no idea I could get such quality for the money in Covington," said a delighted customer to us the other day.

Right he was. We should not have been able to offer you a fine lightweight Straw Hat at the remarkably low price of $2.50 were it not for the fact that a factory gave us a "below cost" figure on a big lot. But this lot is not big enough to supply half the heads in this town that will want one—so you had better come early if you do not wish to be told—"They're all gone!"

A SONG OF COVINGTON.
(By Charles Montessoro Brown)

The sweet, pure winds of Covington
Are softly blowing now!
And from blue skies the mellow sun
Is kissing our cool brow!
The healing balm of lofty pines
We breathe in sweet delight,
And when the golden tide declines,
Descends the peaceful night!

The cooling zephyres sweetly sigh,
Coy woodland fairies sing!
A smiling moon lights all the sky,
With glorious lingering!
All night, in cradles of the air,
We gently rock and sleep,
Our spirit free from earthly care,
In Dreamland's mazy sleep!

The morning dawns in golden glow,
The blossomed flowers smile!
Rare songsters trill—we feel, we know
Life here is worth the while!
A paradise is Covington.

Where golden days forever run,
And happiness is sure!

CALOMEL SALIVATES EVEN WHEN CAREFUL.
Trochoceros Drug Can Not Be Trusted and Next Dose May Start Trouble.

Calomel is dangerous. It may salivate you and make you suffer fearfully from soreness of gums, tenderness of jaws and teeth, swollen tongue and excessive dribbling from the mouth. Don't trust calomel. It is mercury, quicksilver.
If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your drugist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tona for a few cents; which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel.

Take a spoonful and if it doesn't straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick an nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tona you will wake up feeling great. No salts necessary. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and can not salivate.—Advertisement.
