W. O. W. UNVEIL MONUMENT OF D. M. PITTMAN AT FOLSOM

Amos L. Ponder, Jr., Who Was Speaker of the Day, Made Impressive Talk

DINNER SERVED ON THE GROUNDS

Poem Recited by Miss Gertrude Lee; News and Social Notes

(By Staff Correspondent)

Folsom, July 6.—On Sunday, July 9, the W. O. W., No. 44, of Amite, unveiled the monument of Dolos M. Pittman at Bogue Falaya Cemetery with a large carefully carried out. Amos L. Ponder, Jr., was the speaker of the day. Mr. Ponder pictured the beauties of woodcraft in a very impressive way. After the unveiling ceremonies dinner was served on the grounds for the visitors, which was prepared by J. Y. Mapey, of Folsom. Those present from Amite were W. H. Clark, E. A. Leland, C. J. Moore, Amos L. Ponder, Jr., F. A. Hesser, A. Brucutt, Fred Lee, Howard Bell and J. Lowery. The poem was recited by Miss Gertrude Lee.

Mr. I. W. Stevens is on the sick list this week. Mr. Orvil Jones, of Blioxi, arrived Friday to spend the summer with his father, Dr. F. R. Jones. Little Miss Eleanor Bibby, of Columbia, Miss., was the guest of little Annette York last week. Miss Iona Collins, of Onvill, returned home last week from Baton Rouge where she spent two weeks with friends. Mr. Hiram Heith and Mr. Melvin Quave were the guests of friends here Sunday.

Mrs. Thos. Gusman and children spent Thursday afternoon in Mandeville with Mrs. G. N. Mayo, of Lafayette, who is visiting there. Misses Eula and Emma Fendlasson and Ward Fendlasson sent the 4th in Amite with relatives.

Miss Truman Camp is visiting in Bogalusa. Miss Iona Collins, of Onvill, spent Friday with Miss Claire Gusman. Miss Gladys Harrelson left Monday for Livingston and Baton Rouge to be the guest of relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McLain and family have returned after a short stay at Baton Rouge. Mr. and Mrs. M. Wallis, of Livingston, motored over Monday. Mr. R. D. Crook, of Bogalusa, was the guest of friends Wednesday.

Master Thos. Gusman, of New Orleans, spent the 4th at home with his mother. Misses Claire Gusman and Eula Fendlasson spent last Friday and Saturday with Miss Iona Collins, at Onvill.

POLICE JURY.

The regular meeting of the Police Jury will be held in Covington on Tuesday, July 11, 1922.

F. J. MARTINDALE, Secretary.

FARM BUREAU MEETING.

There was a meeting of the Farm Bureau at the courthouse, Wednesday, Mr. Frank Dutsch, the president presiding. Balloons were given out at the meeting for the purpose of electing a board of directors. These will be returned to Secretary E. J. Frederick when they will be counted and the result announced. This is a preliminary to the active work it is expected the Farm Bureau will conduct in the parish.

ABITA SPRINGS NOTES.

The school election was carried without opposition, which shows that the people of our town want a new school, and we will soon boast of a modern school. The entertainment given last Sunday for the benefit of the school was a grand success. Capt. C. J. Mott is spending two weeks with his family here. Miss Rita Santos is visiting friends in New Orleans. Mr. Jos. LaBosque, civil sheriff of New Orleans, is now occupying his summer home with his family. Miss Elmira Pons spent the 4th of July in Lewisburg with Mr. and Mrs. J. Smith. Mr. and Mrs. Bernhardt spent the week end at their summer home. The swimming pool at Morgan's was crowded last Sunday. It is being planned to be a popular place. Judge A. O. Pons was a business visitor to New Orleans, Thursday.

EADS POITEVENT GIVES EMPLOYEES PICNIC ON 4TH OF JULY

Barge of Poitevent & Favre Lumber Co. Fitted for the Occasion

ELKS THEATRE OPENS JULY THIRD

Large Number of New Orleans Boys Select Mandeville for Camping

(By Staff Correspondent)

Mandeville, July 5.—On July 4th Mr. Eads Poitevent gave a grand picnic for his employees and friends. One of the 100-ft. barges belonging to the Poitevent & Favre Lumber Company was fitted up with railings on the sides and heavy tent-like cloth served as a covering. The boat left Lewisburg at 7 a. m.—then the good time began, everybody enjoying the occasion very much. All enjoyed the delicacies, which consisted of all sorts of sandwiches, ice cream, lemonade and lots of others in abundance. Some of the younger people indulged in dancing, music being furnished by a Victrola. This was a very enjoyable amusement for the barge breeze made it very pleasant. The delightful entertaining of Mrs. Eads Poitevent lent a charm to the occasion that added greatly to its enjoyment.

The barge first landed at West End and later on the picknickers went to Spanish Fort. Special cars had been chartered for the occasion. At these places everyone amused themselves, either by riding on the scenic railway, winning kewpie dolls, novelties, etc., and in many other ways. Some of the crowd went into the city proper where they visited friends and relatives.

After becoming weary from the long but pleasant day's tramp, the crowd boarded the barge and departed for home about 8 p. m. The home-bound trip was immensely sociable. Everybody was expressing the gay time that they had spent and were showing the gifts that they had won. The boat reached its moorings at 10:30 o'clock.

Although Independence Day was quietly celebrated, still this picnic meant much not only to the employees of Poitevent & Favre who participated, but to the many friends of the Poitevents who went on the trip.

Opening of the Elks Theatre.

The Elks Theatre had its grand opening July 3d. The place was filled almost to capacity, something near 500 people being present for the occasion. This beautiful place is in keeping with up-to-date theatres of the larger cities with its comfortable seats, excellent ceiling system and costly screen and engines. This hall is becoming quite famous as a dancing place. The dances are carried on in a strictly respectable manner and under constant vigilance of Mr. Vautrain and Mr. Rosenthal. The whole parish is represented at the dances and other occasions, and New Orleans visitors here take advantage of the many enjoyments offered at the Elks. The crowds are steadily increasing.

Orleans Select Mandeville for Vacations.

Quite a number of New Orleans boys have selected Mandeville as the ideal spot for their vacation. Five young men, Bill Harter, Clifford Lafayette, "Ick" Sonnfield, Ashton Lafayette and Whitner Chauvin, are camping near Bayou Castaigne, enjoying all the sports of outdoors. Cyril Felder, Clifford Campos and Emory Cousin are also on vacations.

Fighting Casard Boys Return.

The fighting sons of Detective Casard, Jules, Frank and Mike, returned from New Orleans last Sunday, after capturing several titles in the rings of the city.

Beach is Popular Picnic Ground.

Mandeville's beach served as picnic grounds for three parties. The "Knicker" of Madisonville, the Boy and Girl Scouts of Slidell, and a party of Covingtonians. All outsiders are heartily welcomed to this town to enjoy our facilities.

Personals.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy A. Smith and son spent July 4th in Mandeville with Mrs. J. L. Smith. Mrs. D. Mitchell and daughters, Iona and Doty, are stopping at the Audubon Hotel. Mrs. T. Gusman and Dr. F. R. Jones, of Folsom, were guests of Mrs. J. N. Miller, July 4th. Mrs. Chas. Russell and Miss Emily Hansbrough are visiting their mother for a while. Two of our charming young ladies, Misses Gladys and Irma Howze, departed Sunday for New Orleans to visit friends and relatives. Messrs. James Thrifley and Arthur Burke, of New Orleans, are spending their vacation here. They are stopping at the Casino. Miss Corlano Smith was a New Orleans visitor last Monday. Miss Mildred Smith, of Mandeville, accompanied by Misses Lucille St. Martin and Effie Breaux, left New Orleans last Saturday for a trip through the West. Mr. Adolph Dubourg spent last week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Dubourg. Miss Julia Carl, of New Orleans, visited friends here last Sunday. Misses Ida Heffner and Jeanne Soule will spend the coming week end as guests of Miss Estella Smith, Mr. and Mrs. A. Destor and family

AND BOTH ARE WAITING FOR A BITE

President Harding is here seen fishing with his friend, R. B. Creager, who, as the boat flops up and down in the water, is wondering if he will be named as American Ambassador to Mexico upon the recognition of the Obregon government.

4TH AT PEARL PARISH FAIR IS RIVER GREATLY MAKING PLANS ENJOYED BY ALL FOR BIG EVENT

Pearl River, July 5.—Pearl River folks celebrated the Fourth with a very enjoyable old-time picnic and fish fry on the swamp's edge at Hill's Switch. There was a large and representative crowd of old folk, with a generation of youngsters, and the enjoyment of the day had the added pleasure of plenty of good things to eat and drink and fish that were cooked in a style to delight the palate and strengthen the appetite. A very pleasant incident of the celebration was the presence of two of the oldest residents of this place, Mrs. Rebecca Crawford, 84 years of age, mother of the late A. D. Crawford, who has spent her young days in this community, and Mrs. P. Z. Craddock, 79 years of age. There was a proud light in their eyes as they watched their children, grand children and great grandchildren eating of the goodies, and partaking of the refreshments provided for the occasion, swinging on vines, running races and having a good time generally.

Another event was the enjoyment of a shower bath that lasted about two hours by the fishing crowd on the day before on the banks of Pearl River. The young folks had a delightful time bathing in the strong running water.

There were people in attendance from other parts of the parish and some from Mississippi. All enjoyed the occasion and will look forward with pleasure to the celebration of next Fourth of July.

BOY AND GIRL SCOUTS ENTERTAINED.

The Boy and Girl Scouts were taken on a trip through Covington, Thursday, under the auspices of a committee of the W. P. U., of which Mrs. Preston Buras was chairman. Autos were furnished by Covington people and an inspection of the Mackie Pine Products Company and the St. Tammany Ice & Manufacturing Company was enjoyed by all. Also a visit was made to St. Paul's College.

Mrs. Wm. Porteous, who is with the Girl Scouts at the de la Vergna place, is anxious to establish a woman's auxiliary to the Legion. She has been active in scout work and takes great interest in the welfare of the girls and is anxious to make their stay here pleasant.

The Girl Scouts would like to attend church services Sunday and it is intended to have autos take them to the various churches. There are both Catholics and Protestants among them and those who can provide autos should call for them.

BLIND STUDENT WINS HIGH HONORS

That courage and intelligence can overcome the tremendous handicap of blindness has again been demonstrated in the person of Miss Catherine Burke, who lost her sight when she was sixteen. Aided by a stylus and point system in note taking, and a typewriter in examinations, Miss Burke prepared for college in Chicago, her home town, and went to the University of Wisconsin for her first two college years. On her graduation from Barnard College, and after winning high honors, she was elected a member of the Phi Beta Kappa Sorority.

Miss Burke, who recently graduated from the State Normal, is at home for the summer.

Mrs. E. Levine and children are stopping at Mrs. Chas. Toomey's. Miss Elsie Vallier, graduate of St. Scholastica's Academy in Covington, is attending Newcomb, taking up a summer course.

A REAL DANCE.

A dance will be given at the Park Pavilion, Covington, Saturday night, July 8 (to-night), under the auspices of the Crescent City Auto Association. The delight of dancing is lost without good music, and with good music it is one of the most enjoyable of all pleasures. We will have Eddie Pett's Jazz Band. The program is a most popular arrangement of the best dance music. You won't be able to keep your feet still one minute. Admission, $1.50. Ladies free.—Adv.

BOOSTS THE STATE'S FORESTRY

President Park Calls for Winners in Essay Contest in Louisiana. Washington, D. C., June 28.—Louisiana's methods of booming forestry are to be given nation-wide publicity. In a letter to-day to M. L. Alexander, state commissioner of conservation, the American Forestry Association asks for a copy of the prize-winning paper on forestry by Rene Dubourg, of the Mandeville High School, in the recent forestry essay contest.

The letter, signed by Charles J. Pack, president of the American Forestry Association, says the American Forestry Magazine wants to print excerpts from the essay, as well as the list of other winners and those receiving honorable mention.

HIDDEN CIVIL WAR MONUMENT DISCOVERED

A most interesting historical find has just been made by a cameraman of a monument near Washington, D. C., erected to an unknown southern soldier killed by a shell from Fort Stevens during the Civil War. This monument was so hidden by dense woods, that its existence was not known until the recent discovery by a cameraman.

OZONE DAIRY ASSOCIATION INSTALLING MACHINERY

The Ozone Dairy Association of St. Tammany parish has received its machinery from the Creamery Package Company and is now installing same in its headquarters in the Burns building, in Covington. The equipment will take care of all the milk that can be handled for some time to come. It is modern, sanitary and in every way an improvement in handling dairy products that should be appreciated by the people. The association will be able to pasteurize milk, thereby furnishing the baby with food with none of the lurking dangers of ordinary cooled milk, especially as the machinery for cleansing bottles leaves them perfectly pure and sanitary. Butter making will be accomplished with the aid of the latest improvements. The Ozone Dairy Association is now equipped to give first class service all around.

COURTHOUSE NEWS.

Mike Ryan, Harry Penton and Geo. Rentine are charged with reckless driving, drunk and disturbing the peace, July 4th. Ryan was taken to New Orleans by Dr. Bulloch. He is said to have some ribs broken, one of which punctured the lungs. The others were simply bruised and shaken up. The Ford car was wrecked on the Mandeville road and laid in the ditch. Hootch Still Captured. A still was captured on the farm of Luke Burnthorn, near Folsom, July 6th. Two jugs of liquor, besides the equipment, was taken in charge by Sheriff Galatas. Burnthorn has not been apprehended, but a warrant has been issued. Sanity Questioned. W. E. Singletary, of Slidell, was brought to Covington, July 5, pending investigation as to his sanity. New Orleans Prisoners Sent Here. Judge Foster of the Federal Court, New Orleans, has sentenced W. Delacourse, W. Miller and V. Miller to 60 days in the St. Tammany parish jail, in contempt of court for violation of injunction. The case came up in connection with the railroad shomman's strike. They have been turned over to Sheriff Galatas by U. S. Marshal Loisel.

A CARD.

To the Citizens of Covington and St. Tammany Parish: I am taking this means to advise you that I am in no way connected with the Birmingham Graphite Company, having left them on March 15, sixty days prior to their going into receiver's hands, and that I have had nothing whatsoever to do with them since that date, nor was I responsible in any way for the present receivership, neither do I care to or intend to be mixed up in the adjustment of their present affairs, my only interest being in trying to collect salary due me from them, which is the sole reason for my name appearing in the present suit against the Birmingham Graphite Company. I am making the above statements to clear myself of any responsibility in the affairs of the company, either past, present or future, and for the purpose of letting many friends in the parish know that I am blameless for the sad condition of the said company. In justice to myself I believe this statement is in order. R. A. McCORMACK.
