

DESERTED

111 cigarettes 10¢ They are GOOD!

rock." This is sublime, but one must know history to understand it. Waste of Money. Broker's Wife—I think it's awfully foolish of you to pay so much for a seat in the stock exchange. Every time I drop in to see you I find you either standing up or walking about. With Bryan telling the past and Doyle telling the future, the only thing doubtful is the present. A local tailor says he saw a certain married man kissing a girl in the park the other evening and also says unless he pays him at once what he owes him he will print his name in this newspaper. We don't blame the tailor for ramming a duck like that.

HOME SWEET HOME Uncle Si is a wealthy "Profit" by Terry Gilkison. YES, I'VE GOT TO DO IT! I'LL TELL THE FOLKS TO HAVE A PICNIC! YOU'RE A DEAR, UNCLE SI! YOU ALWAYS PLAN SOMETHING FOR OUR PLEASURE!

PLEASURE NOTHING, GAL! YOU SEE THE REASON I'M PLANNING ON A PICNIC IS— WE NEED RAIN!!!

The St. Tammany Farmer D. H. Mason Editor and Proprietor Entered at the Covington postoffice as Second-Class Matter.

OFFICE CAT TRADE MARK BY JUNIUS COPYRIGHT 1921, BY EDGAR ALLAN MOSS.

FOR SALE Contents of Home at 1715 Jackson Street, Old Covington. 3 gold beds, heavy, $5 each. 3 springs, good, $4 each. 3 moss mattresses, new, $5. 2 rockers, good condition, $5. 2 rockers, good condition, $3. 2 cane chairs, good condition, 75c. 1 arm chair, good condition, 75c. 1 chiffonier, French glass, $20. 1 heavy white bed with canopy $5. 1 armoire, good condition, $8. 2 tables, 75c. 1 table, 50c. 1 kitchen table, 50c. 1 kitchen table, $1.50. 1 kitchen table, $1. 1 Charter Oak range with water front, $60; range like new. 1 large McCray refrigerator, all tiled, large, $28. 1 baby gold bed, drop on both sides, with heavy moss mattress, $18. 1 hat rack, French glass, $5. Lot of shades worth $2, 35c each. Beautiful bed room suite, cost $600, will sell for $130. Apply at 1715 Jackson Street.

SHERIFF'S SALE Frank Smele vs. Josef Streitmetter No. 3621 Twenty-Sixth Judicial District Court, Parish of St. Tammany, State of Louisiana

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of a writ of fieri facias issued out of the honorable aforesaid 26th Judicial District Court in and for the Parish of St. Tammany, State of Louisiana, and to me directed, bearing date the 25th day of July, 1922, I have seized and will offer for sale to the last and highest bidder, at the home of Jos. Streitmetter, near Bush St., Tammany parish, Louisiana, between legal sale hours for judicial sales, on Saturday, August 19, 1922, the following described property, to-wit: One red cow and yearling, one brown cow and calf, one yellow cow and calf, one brown and white pied cow and calf, two steers 4 years old, one red and one red with white face, two heifers two years old, red and white pied; one yellow bull, one steer yearling one year old, brown and white, one Studebaker farm wagon, one Griddle plow, one drag, one cultivator, 2 cows and calf, one old horse. Terms of Sale—Cash, with benefit of appraisement. WALTER GALATAS, Sheriff. au5-3t

SHERIFF'S SALE Madisonville Bank vs. Malvern B. Griffin, Trustee, et al. No. 3627. Twenty-Sixth Judicial District Court, Parish of St. Tammany, Louisiana. Notice is hereby given that by virtue of a writ of seizure and sale, issued out of the honorable Twenty-Sixth Judicial District Court, dated the 13th day of July, 1922, and to me directed, I have seized and will offer for sale at the principal front door of the courthouse in the Town of Covington, St. Tammany Parish, Louisiana, between legal sale hours for judicial sales, on Saturday, September 2, 1922, the following described property, to-wit: One certain tract or parcel of land situated in the Town of Madisonville, Parish of St. Tammany, State of Louisiana, described as follows: Bounded on the north by the property of Agnes Baham and William Benning, on the south by property of J. M. Bryant, on the east by the Tchoufoueta River, and on the west by Main Street, measuring more or less seven hundred feet square, with all the buildings, ways, machinery, office furniture, movables, etc., contained on the above described real estate. Being the same property acquired by the present vendor from John H. Menge, trustee of Gulf Shipbuilding Co., Inc., bankrupt, by act passed before A. W. Cooper, Notary, on the 29th day of May, 1920, duly registered in the Conveyance Records of St. Tammany Parish in Book 77, folio 518. Terms of Sale—Cash, without appraisement. WALTER GALATAS, Sheriff. j29-6t

EDITORIAL COMMENT BY D. H. MASON WHY NOT NEW ORLEANS PAPERS.

J. D. Schmidt of the U. S. engineering department of the fourth levee district is a man of accomplishment and unusual ability. He will have a place in the hearts of the people this side of Lake Ponchartrain because of his appreciation of our opportunities and his loyalty to a place that brought health and happiness to one very dear to him. Thirty years ago he came to Mandeville for the health of Mrs. Schmidt, after discouraging trials of other climates. Her rapid recovery won his gratitude, and it occurred to him that many human beings might be saved from lives of suffering if communication between the big city of New Orleans and this side of the lake could be established in a manner that would avoid the inconveniences and lengthy hours of travel. In fact, he visioned this section as a suburb of New Orleans.

Being a man of action and resourcefulness, Mr. Schmidt planned a bridge across Lake Ponchartrain and proceeded to interest New Orleans in the proposition. A prominent Chicago man also became interested, and together they proceeded to interview various big business men. The disinterested attitude of New Orleans so disgusted the Chicago man that he left, giving Mr. Schmidt a check for a large sum, stating that if New Orleans could be induced to do anything, he was interested to that amount. The plan failed to awaken New Orleans.

To-day the bridge across the lake is again being agitated. A committee of the Covington Association of Commerce is working out plans and getting data to be presented for the consideration of the people. New Orleans, more than any other section, would be the beneficiary. Money will be raised for publicity, but in the meantime, it seems remarkable that so little attention has been given to the matter by New Orleans papers. If this bridge is built, New Orleans papers could be put on the streets of the town of St. Tammany within a short time after they appear on the streets of New Orleans. The business man could be in touch with his New Orleans interests while he enjoyed the breezes of Lake Ponchartrain on the beach of his summer home in Mandeville. The clerk could hang up his hat in his country home within an hour after he left his work. The skilled service of New Orleans hospitals and sanitariums would be available to the emergency cases this side of the lake almost as speedily as if in the city. Palm Beach could not compete with the attractiveness provided by a bridge across Lake Ponchartrain, should the plan of an earthen causeway with beach on each side be carried out. These beaches could be lined with club houses and amusement features. Many railroads would seek entrance to New Orleans. Its union depot problem could be solved. The saving in transportation by a direct route would be enormous. As a highway, this causeway would make many miles of public highways now anticipated unnecessary. It would almost save enough in highway construction to pay for itself. The increased value of property in New Orleans would pay for it. The growth of the city is a consideration that makes the cost of constructing this causeway insignificant. The saving to the city in life and health and vigor alone should cause this matter to be taken up and boosted to a successful termination.

Why do the New Orleans papers pay so little attention to an effort to do something that is of so much value to the people? It is certainly deserving of bigger headlines than an elopement with a cave man, the love affairs of an actress or the pet terrier of Miss Society.

PUTTING OUR WATERWAYS IN ORDER.

To those who have failed to recognize the value of the work of the Covington Association of Commerce, it will be interesting to learn that through the efforts of this association Congressman Geo. K. Favrot has introduced a bill in Congress appropriating funds for the dredging of the Bogue Falaya, and Tchoufoueta rivers and Bayou LaCombe, and the bill has passed the Senate. We understand that in a short time this work will be under way.

The importance of waterways is daily being impressed upon the people. Either the congestion of tying up of railroads by strikes or destruction of bridges or other cause, and the preferential rates established by water competition makes waterways invaluable. For some time the Bogue Falaya has been but partially navigable to Covington, with the result that vessels have been driven from the trade. The opening up of this channel will bring them into the trade again to the Covington wharf.

MAKING THE LAW EFFECTIVE.

While prohibition may be distasteful, the lawabiding citizen will not encourage its violation. As long as it is a law, there is no question or doubt that it should be enforced. The federal authorities have not made a great success of it, but the state laws amply cover the situation if the courts stand firm in punishing its violation. But there are certain weaknesses in the law that may defeat its object. For instance a fine of $200 will not allow an appeal, but a fine in excess will. The bootlegger who is doing a good business can appeal, give bond and make enough out of his occupation to pay the fine and put away a profit by the time the case is decided by the higher court. Also, in serving his jail sentence, if between eighteen and fifty-five years of age he may be hired out by the police jury, if in the discretion of the judge it is advisable, and the sum total for which he is hired is not less than the fine. Much of the effectiveness of the law depends on its administration.

According to press statements, the Attorney General will take action as directed by Governor Parker, if co-operation is not obtained in the enforcement of cattle dipping in nine of the parishes. St. Tammany is one of the parishes named. The expense to St. Tammany has crippled it greatly, but the longer it is deferred the more expensive it will be. Co-operation of cattle owners would have made us tick free by this time and this burden would have been lifted from us. Strict enforcement of laws is always the best policy.

Only those believe in the "survival of the fittest" who consider themselves the fittest.

Babies are still being born on the farms but few of them ever learn to be satisfied with country life.

A laundress is a necessity in families. Without her mother would never know what is going on in the neighborhood. As a news service it is the best.

Knowledge isn't always power. A man may know that he has run out of gasoline and still be unable to go.

Live so that when you come to die your death notice won't appear among the list of town improvements.

There is very little satisfaction for any person at a meeting of a coroner's jury selected to probe a fatal automobile accident.

Thoughts of a Middle-Aged Guy. The poet, he sings of the dreams one can buy. You can get quite a lot for a slice of middle pie— Says the middle-aged guy.

Congressman Swayback recommends that the Government earn a little money selling off our gas masks to hay fever sufferers.

Last evening while sitting on our porch we noticed fifteen automobiles, etc., floating by with one light in front and some also with one light and a spotlight. If there is any class of criminal that should be pinched it is that kind, but our beautiful city is full of such violators every night.

You Know the Kind. Barber—Razor all right, sir? Victim—My good man, if you hadn't mentioned it, I should never have known there was a razor on my face. Barber—It's very kind of you to say so, sir. Victim—Not at all. I thought you were using a file.

Sometimes a Snapping Turtle Answers Us. The Young Girl—Ma why do they keep animals at the telephone office? Mother—Why, child, what gave you such an idea? The Young Girl—Because when I called pa up the lady told me the lion's busy.

Ouch! We suppose that even a woman could run a cigar store successfully if she had enough to backer her—if you follow us?

Marching Along. The encouraging thing about the future is that there is so much of it.

Judged by the attention that other people give our business it is evident that almost nobody is in the right business.

Taking the Message. Take the message and I'll get it from you later. "Your little girl wants to kiss you over the phone," explained the stenog. demurely.

My squashes are turning out to be ratbags.

Even an amateur gardner can raise an astonishing variety of blisters.

Eloquence is wasted on ignorance. At a critical time Mirabeau captured a turbulent assembly with a sentence. He said, "I know it is but a step from the capitol to the Tarpeian

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS

Foreign Advertising Representative THE AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION. WANTED—To rent, by Oct. 1st, modern home with two or three bed rooms, living room, dining room, kitchen and bath. Preferably in Old Covington. Address Box 548, Covington, La. au5-3t. FOR SALE—19 acres, cleared, fenced, ready for cultivation. High land on Bayou LaCombe. An ideal place for pecan, pears and Satsuma orange trees. $600. Terms. Address C. J. Villars, Oaklawn P. O. au5-3t. FOR SALE—Famous Dixie pears, very large and juicy; delicious quince flavor. Used for eating and preserving. Price 30c a dozen. Can send by parcel post. Address C. J. Villars, Oaklawn P. O., La. au5-3t. FOR SALE—1914 model Ford, touring car, thoroughly overhauled, new top, new tires, new seat covers. Or will trade for truck. Address I. H. Keller, Abita Springs, La. 2t. TAKEN UP—At my place, Goodbee, La., 1 dun cow; no marks or brands. Owner can have same by proving ownership and paying for this ad, and all costs. W. A. Thoms, Goodbee, La. au5-2t. WANTED—The Shoe Repairing Shop at 322 Columbia street wants to buy a Ford car. Must be cheap and no junk wanted. au5-3t. LOST OR STOLEN—Lewellyn setter, white with large black spot on head and right hip. Reward if returned to J. E. Nilson, Covington. au5-3t. OLD COVINGTON. (Continued from page 1) Bank & Trust Company, and on the opposite corner an old friend greets me—the former home of Judge Martin Penn. But this large family has all disappeared. Judge Penn passed away at the beginning of the yearling one year old, brown and white, one Studebaker farm wagon, one Griddle plow, one drag, one cultivator, 2 cows and calf, one old horse. Terms of Sale—Cash, with benefit of appraisement. WALTER GALATAS, Sheriff. au5-3t. SHERIFF'S SALE. Madisonville Bank vs. Malvern B. Griffin, Trustee, et al. No. 3627. Twenty-Sixth Judicial District Court, Parish of St. Tammany, Louisiana. Notice is hereby given that by virtue of a writ of seizure and sale, issued out of the honorable Twenty-Sixth Judicial District Court, dated the 13th day of July, 1922, and to me directed, I have seized and will offer for sale at the principal front door of the courthouse in the Town of Covington, St. Tammany Parish, Louisiana, between legal sale hours for judicial sales, on Saturday, September 2, 1922, the following described property, to-wit: One certain tract or parcel of land situated in the Town of Madisonville, Parish of St. Tammany, State of Louisiana, described as follows: Bounded on the north by the property of Agnes Baham and William Benning, on the south by property of J. M. Bryant, on the east by the Tchoufoueta River, and on the west by Main Street, measuring more or less seven hundred feet square, with all the buildings, ways, machinery, office furniture, movables, etc., contained on the above described real estate. Being the same property acquired by the present vendor from John H. Menge, trustee of Gulf Shipbuilding Co., Inc., bankrupt, by act passed before A. W. Cooper, Notary, on the 29th day of May, 1920, duly registered in the Conveyance Records of St. Tammany Parish in Book 77, folio 518. Terms of Sale—Cash, without appraisement. WALTER GALATAS, Sheriff. j29-6t in neat slippers. The crowning glory of this quaint costume was the little lace cap, from under which looked forth two merry black eyes. Full of hospitality which they dispensed liberally, she could have dined the president or peasant with equal ease. The two other sons, familiarly known as Tim and Doan, lived until a few years ago, and now the eldest lives all alone, not in the old home, for where that stood is the pleasure grounds of the Southern Hotel. Miss Matilda Brennan, or Miss Tillie, as she is generally called, lived on the corner opposite her old home in a nice place built by her brother, Tim. She lives alone, surrounded by works of art, and with the companionship of books. Some day I will call on her. AN OLD-TIMER.

Tonic food value, body, real quality, is in every bottle of Budweiser. Made famous by the manufacturers of Bevo, A.B. Ginger Ale, A.B. Root Beer, A.B. Draught, A.B. Barley Malt Syrup, Malt Nutrine and other products. 15¢ ANHEUSER-BUSCH, INC., ST. LOUIS. Covington Grocery & Grain Co. Wholesale Distributors Covington, Louisiana